Remain In The Field.

London, Aug. 21.-In a despatch dated July 4th, and detailing the condition of affairs at the front at that time. lord Kitchener says: "There are no more than 13,500 herrs now under arms. Although they are not able longer to undertake extensive operations, their apparently inexhaustible supplies of food enable them to maintain an obstinate resistance, without retaining anything or defending the smallest portion of this vast country.

"The wearing down process is necessarily slow, rendering the employment of a large number of troops still necessary. Since the despatch was written the losses of the Boers have brought their
