Not Generally Observed,

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 8 - Yesterday, set aside by the Evangelical alliance, London Eng, as a day of prayer and humiliation, was not generally observed. In many churches no reference was made to the matter, and in others it was only lightly touched upon. In a number of churches special prayers were offered for the troops, and in the special sermons allusions were made to Britain's trial, and the hope ex pressed that victory would soon crown her efforts in South Africa. -
