She Dislikes Men.

Cecil Rhodes has a sister living in South Africa. According to a writer in the Young Woman, Miss Edith Rhodes is said to dislike men as much as her brother dislikes women. Their home, Groote Schurr, is a few miles from Cape Town, and here Miss Rhodes dispenses hospitality lavishly. She is described as of masculine appearance, rich, generous, business like, not clever, with numerous peculiarities, and hosts of friends. Away from home she takes her part in manly sports, but at home she keeps a lady companion, as feminine as any lady in that, or any land, and makes an admirable hostess. She is greatly interested in the [illegible] on her brother's estate, and is very fond of driving. Miss Rhodes is a loyal champion of her brother, and has a pretty thorough grasp of South African politics generally.

14TH AT CHURCH.

Sermon By Rev. G. L. Starr—Canadians Are Good Soldiers.

The 14th regiment had its annual church parade Sunday morning, attending service in Ontario hall, where Rev. G. L. Starr, chaplain of the regiment, preached an impressive sermon to the men. Before beginning his discourse Mr. Starr extended a hearty welcome to the regiment; it was the first time he had had the pleasure of meeting them since being gazetted their chaplain. He could enter into the spirit of a soldier's life, having advanced from the ranks to be major. He did not want to be chaplain in name only; he wanted to be of service to the corps and he wanted the men to make themselves known to him at all times. He also extended a welcome to the cadets of the Royal military college, who were present for the last time of the session.

Referring to Canada's place in the great British empire, Mr. Starr said that only one short year ago peace reigned throughout the empire, and the only enemy this country had were men who fought with their tongues. But the war trumpet sounded and Canadians responded to the call to arms. This country sent out 3,000 men but she was ready with 50,000 if they had been needed. Canada is indeed part of the great British empire, which God has so signally blessed. The Canadians all along knew that there flowed in the veins of our countrymen blood that could do something brilliant if the opportunity were afforded, and the conduct of the Canadians all through this war has fulfilled these expectations. The queen to-day for the first time realizes that she has worthy sons beneath northern skies.

The speaker mentioned the fact that June 24th was the anniversary of the battle of Beaverdam, when a handful of soldiers held at bay a whole army and saved the Niagara peninsula. Mr. Starr paid a glowing tribute to Laura Secord, the heroine who carried to the Canadian soldiers news of the plot of the Americans.

For his sermon Mr. Starr took as his subject the life of St. John the Baptist, taking up three characteristics of the great divine—self-discipline, courage and loyalty. These characteristics were worthy of emulation, and were requisite in a soldier, who must be loyal to his commanding officer, courageous to carry out his orders, and self-disciplined to act promptly and to have that health which is needed to make a good soldier. Christ should be their ideal leader, to whom they could say, "Lord, whither Thou goest, there shall I follow."

During the service Charles Harvey sang with fervor and feeling Kipling's Recessional.

After service the regiment was taken for a short street parade.

The hymn marches used by the brass band were arranged by bandmaster Trendell.

WHY DO YOU SUFFER.

From Rheumatism, When an Application of Griffith's Menthol Liniment Will Relieve All Your Suffering in a Few Minutes?—It is an Antidote For Any Pain

R. A. Pilgrim, of Pilgrim Bros.,' soda water manufacturers, Hamilton, writes: "A short time ago I was attacked so badly with muscular rheumatism in my wrist that it caused my arm to swell to the elbow, the pain being almost unbearable. Griffiths' Menthol Liniment was applied, and in a few minutes the pain left me, and in less than six hours every trace of swelling and soreness had entirely disappeared. It certainly does cure rheumatism. Price 25c. Sold by J. B. McLeod, Kingston.

The Stuff She's Made Of.

General passenger agent G. T. Bell, of the G.T.R., has prepared a tabulated statement, which shows the stuff the "International Limited" is made of. This train is compared, most favorably, with the Pennsylvania limited, the most noted fast train between New York and Chicago to ride on which passengers pay $4 in excess of the first class fare, in addition to extra charge for Pullman accommodation. The mileage given is reckoned from Jersey City, after allowing fourteen minutes to cross the river, while for the international limited the same time is allowed to cross the river from Windsor to Detroit. The following is the table:

From Jersey City to Philadelphia, 89.76 miles; stops, 1; time, 1.58 hours; miles per hour, 45 3-10.

To Harrisburg 195.08 miles; stops, 2; time, 4.24; miles per hour, 42 6-10.

To Altoona, 327.06 miles; stops, 3; time, 7.39; miles per hour, 42 7-10.

To Pittsburg, 443.96 miles; stops, 5; time, 10.46; miles per hour, 41 2-10.

To Chicago, 911.96 miles; stops, 16; time, 23.46; miles per hour, 38 4-10.

From Montreal to Morrisburg, 92.27 miles; stops, 1; time, 1.52; miles per hour, 49 4-10.

To Napanee, 198.51 miles; stops, 5; time, 4.12; miles per hour, 47 3-10.

To Toronto, 333 miles; stops, 9; time, 7.25; miles per hour, 44 9-10.

To London, 448 miles; stops, 13; time, 10.26; miles per hour, 43 4-10.

To Chicago, 878.32 miles; stops, 30; time, 23.16; miles per hour, 37 9-10.

Women We Read About.

Mrs. French, the wife of Gen. French, is a very graceful and charming woman, devoted to her home and her children. Gardening is Mrs. French's great hobby, and has been from her girlhood, when she was nicknamed at home the head gardener. She was married to Gen. French in 1880, then a captain of the hussars and stationed in Dublin. She has taken an active interest in associations working for the benefit of soldiers' and sailors' families. The only daughter—there are two sons—of Gen. and Mrs. French, bears the uncommon name of Essex. She is a pretty girl, can do almost anything with a bicycle, is a fearless horseback rider, and sometimes haunts one of her father's chargers to his intense delight, and her mother's alarm. The devotion of Gen. French to his young daughter is quite delightful. They are almost inseparable companions when the general is at home.

A Lad's Sudden Death.

Almonte, June 26.—Merrill B. Taylor, son of W. B. Taylor, Smith's Falls, staying with James Quigley, Pakenham, was taken ill suddenly of peritonitis on Thursday. A telegram was sent to his father, and to his aunt, Mrs. Robert Young, Almonte, but before either could reach him he had passed away. His funeral took place on Sunday to the Ninth line cemetery, Ramsay. He was nine years old.

The Tidings From Various Points In Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

Fair View Visions.

Fair View, June 25.—Rain is needed. Fruit is drying up. A. D. Snider was pathmaster, and road-work finished on Tuesday. David Fraser has been repairing his house. Stacey Vamalstine and Clint Jenkins have taken the job of cutting Mr. Louck's hay. Charles Switzer, Desmond, spent a week with his aunt, Mrs. A. D. Snider, Victoria street.

Enlarging The School House.

Moscow, June 22.—The school house is to be repaired during summer holidays. It will be made into a two storey building to accommodate increasing attendance. A Sunday school picnic was held at Varty Lake on Saturday. The wheeling party, which left for Sydenham in such good spirits Saturday morning, returned late Saturday night with their spirits and clothing somewhat damped by the heavy downpour of rain. Mrs. W. Martin, very ill, is recovering. A. M. Bell returned on Tuesday from Ottawa. Mrs. A. J. Hammond, Winnebago City, Minn., is visiting at the home of her father, W. W. Asselstine. Rev. G. S. White is conducting service in the Methodist church in the absence of our pastor, Rev. Mr. Adams.

Clarendon Echoes.

Clarendon, June 20.—Owing to the frequently refreshing showers strawberries are beginning to ripen rapidly and enabled to be supplied with fresh and delicious dish. A number from this vicinity attended the Presbyterian service held at Rylertsville, on Wednesday last. Last Sabbath, Rev. E. Crummy preached his farewell sermon which we trust will be remembered for ages to come. He will be greatly missed as his service during the past two years and a half has wrought a lasting influence. Miss Frankie Wager, of Enterprise has come to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Ellis. Miss Ida May Ladliner has gone to Parham to stop for a few months. A great many of our young people purpose attending the picnic to be held at Mr. Hughes' Grove, on the 21st, in aid of the English church, Oso.

Notes From Wolfe Island.

St. Lawrence, June 26.—The moderate showers in the past month have done much to add to the abundant crops of hay and grain. Meadows are looking fine and future prospects are even more promising than last year. Farmers are now preparing for the coming haying season. The scow Maggie L. recently set sail for Kingston, laden with forty tons of hay and nineteen hundred bushels of grain, from C. A. Barry, a well-known farmer on Wolfe Island. This is the seventh time in succession the boat has anchored in Breakey's bay for his hay and grain. His neighbors are glad of his success in farming, but are sorry to think that no other farmer can compete with him. The weather of the last few weeks has been exceedingly delightful, and the roads are in excellent condition. The congregation of Christ's church took advantage of this and held their annual picnic in Montgomery's grove. A large number was present and all report having spent a most enjoyable time. A goodly amount was received for the purpose of making improvements on the church. Owing to the absence of Rev. Mr. Young, the services in both Anglican churches were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Dixon. The holidays are drawing near, and all schools will soon be closed and the many teachers return to their homes.

'TWAS A PRETTY SERVICE.

Children's Day In Eastern Methodist Church Napanee.

Napanee, June 26.—Sunday was children's day in the Eastern Methodist church. The church was very tastefully decorated with daisies and potted plants and a very pleasant picture it was to look upon the smiling faces of the children, bright and fresh and flower-like as the daisies themselves. The front seats in the church were reserved for the children, and their clear, sweet voices rose in the hymns with a richness and purity quite refreshing. It was Rev. Dr. Crother's farewell sermon, and the church was filled to overflowing. Dr. Crothers and his estimable wife have been very popular during their stay in town, and the good wishes of the whole town go with them to their new charge in Belleville.

Misses Bertha and Stella Neilson and Master Charles, Wilton, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Napanee. John T. Wilson and bride are spending a few days in town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Wilson. Rev. W. S. McTavish, Deseronto, exchanged pulpits with Rev. W. W. Peck, on Sunday.

Dr. Ward is progressing towards recovery as rapidly as can be expected. Mrs. Thomas Miller, Montreal, is spending some weeks in Napanee, and vicinity, visiting relatives.

The Retort Courteous.

A lady had in her employ an excellent girl who had one fault. Her face was always in a smudge. Mrs. —— tried to tell her to wash her face without offending, and at last resorted to strategy.

"Do you know, Bridget," she remarked in a confidential manner, "it is said that if you wash your face every day in hot soapy water it will make you beautiful?"

"Will it?" said Bridget. "Sure it's a wonder ye niver tried it, ma'am."

Carslinal Manning met one day a drunken Irishman on a London street and said, "Patrick, I have joined the temperance society." "Perhaps your reverence needed it," was Patrick's reply.

If the children require physic nope acts so nice as Miller's Worm Powders; very pleasant to take. Sold by E. C. Mitchell.

Joseph Leggatt, a cripple, seventy-seven years of age, hung himself to the rung of a ladder in rear of his residence at Rochester on Friday.

If your child is pale, peevish, and does not thrive, a dose of Miller's Worm Powders occasionally will cure. Sold by E. C. Mitchell.

Twelve persons were injured at Sherbrooke, Que., on Thursday, by the breaking down of a verandah on which 100 persons were standing.

MONSOON

INDO-CEYLON TEA

BEFORE AND AFTER.

A Matrimonial Sketch That May be Recognized.

London Tit-Bits.

This is a year before marriage. He is making her a call. He is at the front door ringing the bell. He has been thinking all day of her. These are his boots newly blacked, collar spotless, his form ditto outside, his gloves drawn on for the first time, his hair newly-parted and oiled, his face newly-shaven, his heart palpitates for her, his nerves are nervous for her, he fears she may be out, or that her parents may object, or, worse than that, some other fellow may be there with her. The door opens. She is there and alone. He is happy.

This is a year after marriage. He is ringing at the door. His face is unshaven, his collar much worn, his boots unblacked, his hair unbrushed. He rings again in exactly ten seconds. He gives the bell a short, petulant pull. He is thinking of her. He is grumbling that she doesn't answer it sooner. He has not all day been thinking of her. He has gone further, maybe, and fared worse. Now she opens it. He pushes past her and remarks: "Takes you for ever to answer that bell."

His unbrushed boots sound sullen as he ascends the stairs. She follows meekly after. He dashes into the room and afound the house, and sings out: "Isn't dinner ready yet?" She bids him to be patient for a moment. But he won't. Because dinner isn't ready within one minute after he gets home. Because this is the one year after marriage. Because the bloom is off the rye, the down rubbed off the peach, and various other considerations. Because it's the way of the world, of man, of matrimony. O Tempora! O Matrimony!

THEY CAPTURED THE TOWN.

Remarkable Experience of Two Troopers of Brabant's Horse.

The following incident is narrated by an officer of Brabant's Horse. On the occupation of Ladysmith two men, a regimental saddler, and a bugler, obtained leave to enter the town with the Kaffiarian rifles, but at the last moment the order was cancelled. The two men, however, took French leave and entered the town, capturing the Landdrost and demanding the surrender of the district. This was complied with and a quantity of arms and ammunition was surrendered, together with a large number of carts and horses. The two men then bought up the whole stock of tobacco, cigars and cigarettes in the town, and with this and the rifles and ammunition returned to camp, where they sold the tobacco to their comrades at a handsome profit. The cost of their escapade, however, was instant dismissal.

How He Found Sentiment.

Mark Twain, living quietly in England at present, was recently dining at the house of a friend, and seated next to him was an American who had only that day reached England. They were, of course, talking war, and the newcomer, wishing to know the feeling of England in the matter of the future of the Transvaal, asked Mark Twain how he found public sentiment in England regarding the independence of the republics.

"Well," said Mark, "I find the English are paraphrasing a part of the burial service. They are all quietly repeating, 'Mr. Gladstone gave and lord Salisbury hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord.'"

A Scot Described.

A Scotchman is a man who, because there is not porridge enough for all at home, has left his country to edit the principal dailies, manage the banks all over the world, command the ocean steamers, occupy the chief seats in the engine rooms of the navies of the world, shoot Boers or Indians in the service of his country, and go pegging along anywhere, holding his own with one eye on Providence and the other on his wages.

Woman's Welfare.

Paine's Celery Compound

Gives and Maintains a Perfect Condition of Bodily Health.

The great susceptibility of women to nervousness and worry is heightened by the fact that, in the majority of cases they lead confined and monotonous lives, narrowed down to the four walls of home the greater part of the day.

Paine's Celery Compound is just what such nervous and depressed women need to restore their nerves to energy and to lift them out of their constipated, dyspeptic habit of body.

No other remedy known to medical men is so rich in flesh-forming and energy-producing constituents for women as Paine's Celery Compound. It is also a true and unfailing regulator, keeps the blood pure and rich, and maintains an even condition of good health that makes a woman contented and happy. Mrs. Wilcox, of Creemore, Ont., writes as follows:

"For years I have suffered from constant sick headache and nervousness. At times I have been so bad that I have been unable to sleep two hours a night for weeks. I have tried many medicines and doctored a great deal, but never received a hundredth part of the value from them that I have obtained from Paine's Celery Compound. After using three bottles I can sleep well, my headaches have ceased, and I feel healthier and fresher than I have been for years."
