PILLS.

Sold by all druggists at 50c. a box or 3 for $1.25.

A Nurse Cured of Dropsy. Mrs. Isabella Richardson, a well-known nurse living at 91 Catharine Street, Hamilton, Ont., says: "Up to fifteen months ago I followed the avocation of nurse, then I was taken ill with Dropsy and Kidney trouble. My hands and feet began to swell, my blood was weak and watery and I band was out of town and a sking him EEEEEEEEEEE had unbearable pain in my back. Urinary troubles caused me untold suffering, loss of sleep and pain. While in this condition I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial, and am pleased to say the pain has left me, the dropsical symptoms are gone, the urinary trouble has ceased and, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills, I am completely cured,"

Be sure you get DOAN'S.

THE DAILY WHIG.

"Opifer per Orbem Dicor."

"THE AUDIENCE WITH US." The News has been distressed by a remark of the Whie, and to the effect that Mr. Haycock was the best man in the Barriefield scrimmage. "The audience was with us," it says. Of course it was. Men, reading, thoughtful, meditative, must have been carried away by the harangue of the orator who declared that independence of meant business.

HE'S OUT FOR SHOW.

In one of the western constituencies a phatically repudiated it. man has been found who, though profess east for exhibition purposes.

CORRECTING MISPRINTS.

The News assures the people of Frontenac that it was a misprint of the Toronwould defeat Haycock, but McRae would win. It says Matheson meant that Gallagher would win. Mr. Matheson, in this last, knows as much about it as the man in the moon. He is repeating what somebody told him, and that somebody, as

. Whitney has been challenged to produce then folks do not know Dr. Borden Jet. one score of letters, or even one, of the kind referred to, and he has been silent. Toronto Star. Was that statement a misprint. If so, why has it not been corrected?

the soldiers should remember the govern. Good; the principle is good. The muniment that deprived them of votes. Then cipal officer, the provincial officer, the passing the offensive legislation being conpaid by the people's money, should rememand the lip, but there is only one benut up $25 towards necessary expenses. home of the Rev. Dr. J. R. Paxton. Dr.

does not go a little more into detail in his tunately, legislation, or at least control, is make a successful book agent. discussion of public school affairs. In necessary, and in the absence of it we have every address he makes it is announced the unseemly spectacle of a herd of public I that he is out for school reform. The employees taking the stump whenever ophigh schools will do. They are about perpublic service the practice should be 'At ever I have heard. fect. At all events, no fault is found with stopped, and the proud-stomached public I wish 'at 'u'd go away, them. But the public schools, in which servant who proclaims his determination ninety-five per cent. of the children begin to "exercise his rights of citizenship," and end their education, what of them? Mr. Whitney is going to do something—if he is given a chance to form a government, which is most improbable. Supposing he man named Mrs. Smith, hailing from Col-

to the end that there may be higher edu- magistrate. cation or technical education? Yes, he can do that and interfere with the high schools, and increase the burdens of the We import the best bean in the market, people beyond limit. It's easy to croak, roast and grind it on the premises, so that Cleveland Leader. to express one's discontent, but it takes you are not one of our coffee customers you He slyly looked at me: intelligence to act and discriminate. In should become one. The very best coffee Kingston the classes were adjusted so that only 30c a lb. McRae Bros. Golden Lion. the courses in the high and public schools would not be duplicated, and that the people's taxes would not be wasted.

Mr. Whitney would have the economy stopped. The public school system must be lengthened at any cost. If that is the desire of the people in Kingston they can McRae Bros. be served without making Mr. Whitney year in addition to the $25,000 now spent in public school education. The people can Virginia Woodward Cloud in October have anything they want. It's a question of dollars and cents. How much do they want the public schools to cost?

MONEY IN ANNUITIES. thought was fast disappearing from the figurer. He leaves the financial end of his British parliament and the German reich- policy to Col. Matheson, and that gentlestag, and that there was no room, man has such a confusion of ideas that he any more, in any enlightened country, hardly understands them himself. His. to impress upon its readers. And in his and in order to make that appear he adds efforts to combat that idea Mr. Haycock all the annuities together, despite the fact has been worsted, eh? So was McGinty, that some of them will run for thirty years who went out organizing for his party, and more, and the interest accruing upon and reached home, late in the night, them all these years, and calls this a preminus his wig and the tail of his coat. sent debt. There is not a man who knows Is there no road now to Leisurely He had met the enemy, and realized that it anything about finances who will endorse organ, in the days of its independence, em-

But, says Mr. Whitney, the province ing to be a liberal, is supporting the Whit- cannot have any money, any surplus, or it ney party. This gentleman was given a would not borrow. He may imprees the And there was a gate by a white rose chance to speak, and his reason for strad. innocent by that sort of talk, but he addling the fence, as stated by him, was a vertises himself as a tricky politician, as very funny one. He had gone into one of one who is deliberately perverting the the mining districts of Ontario, and pro- facts. The annuity system was adopted It hath no part with this fierce, wild ceeded to develop a claim. He had done in connection with the railway debt of the this without authority. While prospecting province, which debt, by the way, does not another, who had the right to work amount to $10,000,000, or half of that sum, it, came along, and "the party of as some people may infer by hearing these the first part" was obliged to leave. tories prate, but to $2,769,358. "The gov. He made a fuss, and because the crown ernment," says the Hamilton Times, "has lands depatment could not let him have been selling annuities, realizing the pur his way, because it would not let him play chasers about three per cent. It gets five Is there no road now to Leisurely the neurper, he joined the Whitney party per cent. on its investments. The purand vows he will smash the government. chase money of the annuities pays the rail No circumstance could advertise the gov. way subsidies as they fall due, and by the ernment's impartiality and fairness better | time the accounts are squared the governthan this. The man who wanted to own ment's profit on the interest pays off the the earth and run the government ought annuities and leaves the government's capito be put in a glass case and sent down tal untouched. The tory cry, 'Why sell annuities if you have a surplus?' is a very chicago News.

The secret of rities bringing him five per cent. when he pocket. can get money at three per cent., thus to Star to put into the mouth of Col. in forty years will amount to the original

The answer is complete, but it will not stop the misrepresentations of the conservatives. They know the truth, but they will not bell it.

rumours and reports go, was talking will visit Kingston to-morrow. He is a remedy lives on the fat of the land. | 22nd, at Cartersville, Ga. print" that Mr. Whitney was receiving ed by nearly every department of the scores of letters daily from liberals who dominion government, his own included. Will hear a great many things he disvery little delay. were with him in the election. Mr. If he does so and is not a surprised man likes.

Public Servants Avoid Politics.

city council there will be submitted a re- | gentleman. should be given a chance to do so somewhere else than in a public job.

She Wants Law. At the police court this morning a wo. And "don't you spread your stock had the chance, what would be do? That lins Bay, sought to lay information against her husband for abusing her. She claimed And "don't you dare play in the He should go into particulars. There be had thrown her down and in other ways are a good many in Kingston who are another woman whom her husband had familiar with the public school work, and | taken in to keep house for him. The mathey know, too, that the curriculum is gistrate informed the complainant that crowded, that it is absurd to talk of she must lay information before a county It seems to me I've never found enlarging it. What can Mr. Whitney do, plied to a justice in Portsmouth, and was But that there's some one else around then, to improve it? Add to the system by him directed to apply to the city police premier. The Board of Education can coal available at Singapore and at Chinese make the system as expensive as the elec- and Japanese ports for the British fleet.

Coffee. Coffee. Coffee. You cannot get better coffee in Canada.

Special matinee at the Grand to-morrow.

Fresh codfish, 5c a lb. Fresh haddock, 5c. a lb. Eine Labrador herrings, 20c. a dozen.

CAPT. HEMEIIS IS ON DECK. Attorney Frank M. Hugo and His Wilent Are on Ice.

Watertown Times.

Sackets Harbor, Feb. 9.-This mornmove a steam pump which Mr. Meyers claims to own. Capt. Hemens was out of town and Mrs. He mens went to justice Parker, telling him that her husto go on board the woat and forbid them taking the steam pump. Mr. Parker, and said he would surely take he advised Hugo to get off the boat. The captain, on learning the situation, threw off his buffalo coat, jumped aboard the Gilbert and ordered Meyers'

Ladies' Home Journal. othere no road now to Leisurely Lane?

We travelled it long ago; A place for the lagging of leisurely Mr. Whitney does not profess to be a There were rims of restful hills beyond, steps, sweet and shady and slow. and fields of dreamful wheat, With shadows of clouds across them blown, and poppies asleep at our for an independent party. hat, great feat, however, is to make out that There lads and maids on a Sunday met at least, is the idea the News wants the province is in debt, hopelessly involved, The leaves they laced in a roof o'erhead and only the sun peered! through;

And there was time to gather a rose, and time for the wood-bird's call, And plenty of time to sit by a stream and harken its ripple and fall.

Lane? God knows we have hurried that contention. The Mail, the party's There was once a lamp through the brooding dusk, and over the tree

> There was once a breath of the clover bloom (sweet Heaven, we have hurried so long!)

> clasped, and our of the dust a song. That song . . . the echo is strange and sweet, the voice it is weak and > rush, and this hard, mad fight for It hath no part with the clamor and din, and the jarring of wheel and get that we reap the bread we have That the Busy Reporters Caught on the Lane-where, lingering, one by street. The summoning bells of twilight time out his business and leave for the Klon-May find us strolling our homeward way, glad of the evening star? there no road now to Leisurely Pointed Paragraphs.

The secret of a woman's dress is her new sheds. Some men are self-made, and some rifles will be reorganized on Monday night. women are tailor made.

It is always the self unmade man that I lays the blame on others. A man always has a cold in his chest after the ice man fills it.

Whiskey may improve with age, but age dosen't improve with whiskey. No young man is quite as good as his! best girl thinks his picture looks. It is probably the stare-way that some Hon. Dr. Borden, minister of militia, people have that makes them flighty. the wedding of Nathaniel Nelson Granger and Miss Cora Alexander Graham, on Feb.

fair politician and an estimable gentleman, as to have some woman blow him up. after running the snow plough over the The News is great at correcting mis- and it is hoped he will make some enquiry as to have some woman man gets in the K. & P. road for the past two weeks. Not-

Misery likes company, but it is better to have rheumatism in one foot than

The Whitney organ has intimated that shall take an active part in politics. running for office the less he has to say sesses a letter received from a prominent attending the Young Ladies' Preparatory the better might have just the mostest fun But I'm afraid it won't; I s'pose 'at it'll always stay-

That awful word of "don't." It's "don't you make a bit of noise," And "don't go out of door;"

About the parlor floor;" And "don't you tease the cat;" And "don't you get your clothing. mussed:"

'At's got a "don't" or two. . [And Sunday-'at's the day .'at "don't' Is worst of all the seven.

And "don't" do this and that.

The Old Sinner. He slyly looked at me; "Yeth, I have drunk and chewed and Through all my life," said he. He was a hundred and a day,

And he was sturdy yet-Prices 25c. and 50c. to all parts of the But, gentle reader, it was in The poorhouse that we met. Paul Cazeneuve. To morrow evening at the Grand, Paul

CASA COUPONSI

Ing attorney Frank M. Hugo, of Water-town, and his client, Prof. Meyers, of Everybody Wants Them and Everybody Should Get Them

And what is more, Everybody will have them as soon as they get to understand the value of CASH COUPONS.

Parker went on board and forbade them touching the pump. Mr. Hugo NEVER FAIL TO ASK FOR CASH COUPONS.

The most intelligent people of this city are availing themselves of the advantages this most wonderful advertising medium the pump. About this time Parker saw affords them, as everybody who knows the value of money is taking hold of the CASH COUPON SYSTEM. Capt. Hemens coming up the street, profit by collecting CASH COUPONS.

Thousands of Dollars Has Been Paid to People For Returned Coupons.

classes in the public schools, and special over the rail. Meyers first, followed PRINCESS STREET. He will be pleased to see you and give you any information you might wish to know concerning the CASP

If you wish a few dollars extra for spending money collect CASH GOUPONS. Books will be furnished Free on application at MR. E. C. MITCHELL'S DRUG STORE. Call and get one. They will procure it for you. Ask the following Merchants for CASH COUPONS. They all have them:-

GROCERIES.

JAMES McCULLA, Corner Montreal and Bay Streets. ANDERSON BROS, 210 Division Street. E. F. SEARS, Corner Montreal and Charles Streets. E. F. SEARS, Corner Gordon and Johnston Streets. N. E. RUNIANS, 224 Princess Street. H. SHARPE, 526 Princess Street E. W. MULLIN, Corner William and Division Streets. A. BROCK MEREDITH, 383 Johnston Street.

W. H. KEENE, Corner Sydenham and Ordnance Streets. MRS. NESBITT, Corner Barrie and William Streets. T. J. LEAHY, Market Square. G. H. WILLIAMS, 494 Princess Street. BUTCHERS.

WADDINGTON BROS., King Street, Market Square. JAMES BLAKEY, 264 Princess Street. JAMES SCRUTON, Corner Montreal and Charles Streets. ANDERSON BROS, 210 Division Street. JAMES McCULLA, Montreal and Bay Streets. G. H. WILLIAMS, 494 Princess Street.

DRY GOODS. CRUMLEY BROS., Corner Princess and Bagot Streets. TAYLOR & CO., 88 and 90 Princess Street. CLOTHING.

GRAND UNION CLOTHING CO., 122 Princess street. GENT'S FURNISHINGS.

E. P. JENKINS, 174 Wellington Street. GRAND UNION CLOTHING CO., 122 Princess Street.

WHIG'S WIND WAFTS.

C. McDonald and wife, Syracuse, are the guesos of Mr. and Mrs. L. Turcott, Plum dyke this spring.

Sir Sandford Fleming returned to Ottawa to day after being in attendance at the Lane?-God knows we have hurried ennual conference of Queen's college alu-

> B. Burdeau, engineer for the Queen City oil company, Toronto, yesterday to secure portions of machinery for the company's The bugle band of the 14th P.W.O.

Splendid quarters have been secured at the artillery park. The Queen city oil company will run pipes from their sheds to the water front as soon as the frost leaves the ground.

The oil will be pumped from boats to the stationary tanks. Mr. and Mrs. W. McCammon, Queen street, have received invitations to attend prints. But it has not touched the "mis- into the way Kingstonians have been treat- world the nearer the roof you wil! find withstanding the heavy fall of snow, the road was kept open and trains ran with

A Lawyer's Generous Offer.

The time limit for protesting the passage | about 40 years old and had been a widow of the Abbott Bros. bonus by-law expires All the world's a stage and to the on the 13th inst. Any action which may At the first meeting of the Kingston tramp is assigned the part of walking be taken in the matter must be on record Cyclists evidently have a poor opin- that he will give his services gratuitously in years old and will soon make her debut. What a pity it is that Mr. Whitney sense and common decency should decide sive powers are sufficient to control ing that the mayor should protest the bythe matter. But in this country, unfor. the affairs of a nation wouldn't even law, but in reply it was shown that such there was a bond stronger than friendship action would not be consistent with the between Dr. Talmage and Mrs. Collier.

council's past conduct in the matter. Five months ago this romance culminated reality a Kingston syndicate.

All Parties Worked Harmonionsly.

At the close of registration of voters in has received many flattering offers of The Excellence of the Artillery Force in the council chamber on Tuesday night the | marriage, but as she had always refused presiding chairman, John Mudie, thanked | them her friends were so much the more the workers of both parties for their surprised over the event. She is reputed courtesy towards him. He found them to be wealthy in her own right. perfect gentlemen, with whom it was a pleasure to be associated. In accepting | age, was married the first time in 1859. the office of registrar he did so with fear and trembling, anticipating wrangling and informing those whose business it was to attend the registration that he was agreeably disappointed, and he warmly thanked them for the support they accorded him.

In reply Frank King testified to the pleasure the workers of both parties experienced in sitting under so impartial and fair a judge. The different representa tives could not be otherwise than courteous since Mr. Mudie set the example for Oh, goodness! but I hope there won't them to follow. Mr. King's remarks were cheered by all present, thus showing that be merely voiced their sentiments.

> We have without exception the finest stock of cannel fruit in the city. Crawford peaches, 3 lb. tins, 20c. Crawford peaches, 2 lb. tine, 124c. Bartlett pears, 3 lb. tins, 20c. Bartlett pears, 2 lb. tine, 124c. Lombard plums, 2 lb. tins, luc. Strawberries, 2 lb. tins, 14c. Raspberries, 2 lb. tins, 14c. Bros Golden Lion.

At McRae service, is investigating a freight robbery their motion. at Bowmanville

DR. TALMAGE'S BRIDE.

celebrated divine, is an attractive brunette, tall and stately, of fine culture and an ac-

MRS. TALMAGE. tive member of the Presbyterian church. She has long been, a prominent figure in buttons, 50c and 75c. the best social circles of Pittsburg. She is ghany county bar and the only son of and 50c each.

mage's most intimate friends were ap prised of the coming marriage. Within the last few years Mrs. Collier

Dr. Talmage, who is now 66 years of Luetgert's Counsel Given Time days in which to fyle his metion for a new ial and Canadian troops, not merely in was never healthier than now, adding that trial. Mr. Harmon declared he had re- Canada, but when some of the excellent foreign barriers were less danger George Asmbly, a Swede laborer, was ceived information to the effect that Mrs. Canadian field artillery would go to Eng- the barriers exected among Cazeneuve will present for the first time here D'Ennerry's Don Caesar De Bazan.

Nelsh 3 tins salmon for 25c.

Cazeneuve will present for the first time night between Oil City and Petrolia Junction, Ont. He was instantly killed.

Detactive Helman of the Grand Temps of the Grand Detective Holman, of the Grand Trunk the defence until Feb. 19th to prepare military secretary, an old brigade major of doning Great Britain's front artillery, to see the excellence of the artil-

She Is a Stately Brunette Who Had Been a Widow For Seventeen Years. This is a Dry Goods Say Store.

but we gather and sell Men's Furnishings as well. Suits a great many people to buy Furnishings along with Dry Goods, and what the people want is here. In order to sell good Furnishings as they should be sold —at popular prices—we go to the makers direct for the goods, make sure of the value, the materials, the quali-

MERCHANT TAILORS.

PHOTOGRAPHER.

OYSTERS, FRUIT AND FISH.

JEWELLERY.

HARDWARE.

LAUNDRY.

CHEMISTS.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

PICTURES AND PICTURE FRAMING.

GRAND UNION CLOTHING CO., 122 Princess Street.

THOS. LAMBERT, 157 Princess Street.

A. D. WEESE & CO., 121 Princess Street.

E. F. SEARS, Montreal and Charles Streets.

JAMES McCULLA, Montreal and Bay Streets.

W. A. MITCHELL, 85 and 87 Princess Street.

. HOAG, Corner Princess and Barrie Streets.

R. F. F. ROWAN, 208 Wellington Street.

E. C. MITCHELL, 124 Princess Street.

A. ABERNETHY, 127 Princess Street.

N. E. RUNIANS, 242 Princess Street.

A. D. WEESE & CO., 121 Princess Street.

H. JENNINGS, 356 King Street.

M. OHLKE, 109 Brock Street.

E. P. WALKER, 274 Princess Street.

F. W. COATES, 158 Princess Street.

H. SHARP, 526 Princess Street.

W. H. PRITCHARD,68 Princess Street.

These lines as a hint as to money saving:

Men's 4 ply Belfast made Linen Collars, stand up three heights, 11, 2. 24 in., 2 for 25c. Men's 4 ply Belfast made Linen Cuffs, link or solitare, Men's White Laundried Shirts, 50c and 75c each.

Men's White Laundried Shirts, Envelope backs, $1.

Men's French Cambric Shirts, negligee fronts, 75c. Men's Shirts, Colored Fronts and seperate Colored Cuffs, white body, made of strong fine cotton. $1. Men's Unlaundried Shirts, Linen Fronts and Cuffs, double backs, reinforced facings, extra heavy cotton, 50c each. Men's Black Sateen Shirts, full sizes, reinforced cuffs and vents, pearl Men's Unlined Gloves, Perrin's & Fowne's make, $1, $1.25, $1.50 pair.

Men's Handkerchiefs, Silk, Linen, Lawn, Tape borders and hemfor 17 years. She was the wife of Charles stitched, special line. Tape border Linen at 3 for 50c. Silks at 25c, 85c solution to the effect that no city official He who runs may read, but if one's day limit. Armstrong McCormack post by this union, Miss Rebecca Collier, now Strings, 4-in-hand, Puffs, Lombards, 25c, 50c and 75c each. Men's Neck Wear-All the best Styles and Colorings in Derby, Bows, local lawyer in which he states positively school at Bryn Mawr. Miss Collier is 17 Men's Furnishing Department and see if you can't save money on exclusive it discovered its mistake. The government is discovered its mistake is discovered its mistake. The government is discovered its mistake is discovered it berthat he is servant of the whole people and not of any particular political party. If he does not remember it of his own accord his memory should be jogged. Legis The reference to it was a "misprint?" But it has not been corrected. Why? If he does not remember it of his own accord his memory should be jogged. Legis Town and the sidewalk. After some men pray to be delivered such as subpouning witnesses, etc. Mr. Talmage is many years his wife's sentior, but friends say it was a case of love at first sight. The couple saw a great deal of each other while Mrs. Collier was in the servant of the whole people tween a man and the sidewalk. After some men pray to be delivered such as subpouning witnesses, etc. Mr. Talmage is many years his wife's sentior, but friends say it was a case of love at first sight. The couple saw a great deal of each other while Mrs. Collier was in the fully persuaded that the "Toronto" syndifully persuaded that the "Toronto" syndidays before the correspond that Mrs. Tal. 118-120 Princess Street.

FORMERLY RICHMOND & CO.,

EXCHANGE OF TROOPS.

Kingston.

Gen. Moore in an address at the dominion artillery association meeting in Ottawa Business In The Imperial Parliament said he had some time ago suggested interchange between the Canadian militia and His wife was Miss Avery of Brooklyn, the imperial forces, and such an inter- mone yesterday, the motion of Michael She bore him two children. She was change had been made between a company Davitt, moved as an amendment to the unpleasant scenes, but he took pleasure in drowned in the Schuylkill river, Philadel- of the Royal Canadian force and the Berk- address in reply to the speech from the phia; in the early sixties. He was mar- shire regiment at Halifax. It was the in- throne, calling attention to the distress in ried the second time May 7, 1863. His tention to continue that system by ex. Ireland and the failure of the potatoe crop. second wife was Susan C. Whittemore. changing next spring a battery of Ca. was rejected by a vote of 235 to 153. She had five children. She died at Dans- nadian artillery for one of Royal Col. Howard Vincent, conservative memville, N. Y., in August, 1895. She left artillery. If in the future the troops of ber for the central division of Sheffield, the motherland and of Canada should re- moved an amendment praying the govern-Dr. Talmage will continue his relations | quire to fight beside each other, these ex- ment to turn its attention to the stimulus with the First Presbyterian church of changes would be of great value in en. given foreign competition with British Washington, and Mrs. Talmage is pecul. abling the troops to become familiar with trade by tariffs and bounties resulting in a iarly adapted to meet the requirements as the wife of an illustrious and successful pastor of a large congregation. On their that return from their bridal tour the newly use the modern guns there, so countervailing duties. married couple will take up their residence that they might become acquainted The Right Hon. Charles T. Ritchie. in Washington, at 1400 Massachusetts av- with them. It really was a waste of time president of the board of trade, announced enue, where Dr. Talmage several years ago firing with the old gunsatfixed targets. He that the government was engaged in enpurchased a most desirable and attractive agreed that Canada, in rearming, should deavoring to convene a conference of the purchase nothing but the best weapons to powers with a view of securing the abolibe had, and not condemned and discarded tion of sugar bounties. He said the govones. As to the exchange of forces, he be- ernment was also making representations CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Attorney Harmon, lieved general Gascoigne first suggested it, to Germany to secure more favorable rates counsel for Luetgert, appeared before and he looked forward to the day when ex- for British trade over German railways. Mr. judge Gary yesterday and asked for thirty change would be made between imper- Ritchie declared his belief that British trade that they would go to England. There was a strong feeling there in favor of such

AMENDMENTS REJECTED:

Free Trade Policy. LONDON, Feb. 11.-In the house of com-

lery there, and had expressed the hope a division