TORY PREVARICATION. Mr. Whitney made a point when in the city by eaying that he liked the man, who, getting a favourable opening and desiring to exaggerate, did it boldly. That was the position of the man who, in Dr. Smythe's interest, told the meeting in Williamsville that the minister of militia had taken occasion, on the eve of an election, "to come up and tell the people that the government would build a new drill ehed here."

He was not posing as a truth-teller surely

Nay, he knew, positively, that he was tell ing an untruth. Ho knew that Dr. Border did not come to Kingston on any such WANTED-The address of errand. The drill shed had been deterevery sufferer in America. mined upon months before. At the last session of parliament, in the spring of 1897, an appropriation, a preliminary one, had been made towards it. During the summer the site was selected. During the fall the architect was selected, and the plans prepared. During the winter correspond. ence took place in regard to the opening of a street past it. And recently Dr. Borden was required to consult about it, and about changes at the Royal military college, and he cannot come to the city, as tory ministers did, without being lied

The lesson, taught by Mr. Whitney, has been well learned. The idea is, when extravagance has to be indulged in, to make it impressive. The Williamsville meeting was worthily the prelude to the scrapping at the Queen street school, and to the close of a week's terrible turmoil.

WHY CHANGE IS WANTED. It is dawning upon the minds of some people what all this rioting of the tories towards the officials is about. The represe chanics with it. It reminds us of a minding their own business, and in Kingston are giving no offence. But the orators at the ward rallies, led by Dr. Smythe nightly, pitch into the officials and indirectly threaten them with dismissal-when the Whitney party gets to power, which will not be yet a while.

The secret is out. There is a cause for all this tumult, and Mr. Corby, M.P., sent from Ottawa by the Tuppers to run VANCOUVER, BC, Feb. 19.-The Cahnne | the tory machine in the Belleville district, mining company has reduced its capital tells the story. THE ABBOTT DEAL IS OFF. An end has been reached in the Abbott that will provoke varied emotions.

The city solicitor, smarting under the remark of an alderman, that he had been somewhat negligent in his examination of papers, else the land muddle would not good Methodist, before the council, and from this is learned something touching the manner in which the city's business was transacted last year.
