THE AMBULANCE LECTURES.

Dr. Garrett Made A Practical Demons ration of Bandaging, The ambulance lecture, in the junior philosophy class room at Queen's college yesterday afternoon, was more largely attended than was the one last week. Dr. Garrett treated his subject -"Bandages and Bandaging"-in a very interesting style, having with him a victim, Mr. Jaquith, upon whom he illustrated the way in which bandages should be put on. A table, supplied with bandages varying in size from the one used for a sore finger up to the "many railed" bandage, stood graduating class from the training school

Dr. Garrett gave much valuable informa-
