$50,000,000 FOR WAR

Congress Asked to Place It in President McKinley's Hands.

HOUSE SURE TO VOTE IT.

SAYS THEY ARE ON THE VERGE OF WAR.

The Democratic Party Will Sustain the President in All Proper Measures With No Thought of Political Advantage—A Crisis Postponed but Not Averted—Cuban Guerillas Should End at Once.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Chairman Cannon, of the appropriations committee, yesterday introduced a bill entitled: "Making appropriations for the national defense. It is as follows: "That there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the national defense, and for each and every purpose connected therewith to be expended at the discretion of the president and to remain available until June 30, 1899, $50,000,000."

It was referred to the committee on appropriations. The bill was the outcome of a conference held at the white house, at which Mr. Cannon, secretary Long, Mr. Dingley, senator Allison and general Grosvenor were present. The situation was considered so grave that it was deemed imperative that an immense appropriation of this character should be made at once to prepare for the national defense.

This bill will be pressed in the house at once. This can be stated on the highest authority.

New York, March 8.—Joseph W. Breyer, democratic leader in congress, has given the World a signed statement on the present national situation, wherein he asserts his belief that "this country is on the verge of war."

He further says: "I am very frank to say that ten days ago I would have spoken and voted against the bill, adding two artillery regiments to the army because I then thought them unnecessary and considered it merely an effort under a war excitement to increase the standing army of the United States in time of peace."

"But conditions have changed so that I shall now speak and vote for the bill, because I consider it a safe and proper precautionary measure. The men who have accused us of clamoring for war without being willing to prepare for it will find that the democrats in congress will be ready to vote both men and money long before this administration will be prepared to use either in war with Spain. If the worse comes, as it now seems certain that it will, the democratic party will sustain the president in all proper measures without any thought of particular advantage."

"We feel that he has moved too slowly. He has postponed the crisis without averting it. Nothing is more clearly written than that the island of Cuba is to be free, and while I believe a recognition at the proper time for the Cuban rights to fight for their own independence would have been sufficient, I fear that this time is passed and that the United States is bound in honor to take decisive action."

"If this is to be done at all it ought to be done at once. The cruelties which have shocked humanity throughout the world ought to end before the next rainy season begins."

"Spain plainly relies upon starvation to conquer the Cuban patriots, and no civilized nation ought to stand by and see that kind of warfare practiced almost without intermission in the West Indies."

"I believe that the United States is on the verge of a war. Certainly it is nearer a foreign war than it has been since our war with Mexico, and perhaps nearer than any nation ever was to escape it."

New York, March 8.—The Post has the following copyrighted cablegram from its London correspondent:

Special inquiries in official and financial circles to-day show that of the many grave international difficulties pending in China, Japan and West Africa, the Nile and elsewhere, the most serious view is taken at the moment of the American-Spanish tension.

At the United States and Spanish embassies the utmost reticence of course is observed. They pretend to know nothing, and it is noteworthy, in view of the reports that the Armstrongs have sold cruisers to Spain, that the Armstrongs' board has given express directions that no questions are to be answered respecting their dealing with British or foreign governments.

What cannot be denied is that the Armstrongs have had relations with Spain since 1886, have built several cruisers to Spain's order and now have vessels on the stocks that could be sold if money were forthcoming.

"Is French money helping Spain?" was asked of two of the first financiers. Their replies may be grouped thus: "Nothing of the kind has been definitely arranged and obviously, seeing the large French financial interests in Spain, French financiers will be anxious to keep Spain from war, but it is equally certain that if Spain should decide that war, however desperate, was the only escape from the growing financial muddle at home, Paris, and not London, would be the quarter whence money would be sought and beyond doubt, obtained. As yet, however, nothing has been definitely settled."

Instructions Recalled
KEY WEST, Fla., March 8.—Orders were received here yesterday rescinding the instructions given to send the Fern to Cuba with supplies and reiterating the original order naming the cruisers Nashville and Montgomery as the vessels to carry out that mission. There was some excitement in naval circles here over this sudden change in the programme, as no explanation of the matter was obtainable.

Romanes in Real Life.
WINNIPEG, March 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Torton, of Moose Mountain, have arrived here from Sioux Falls, S.D., accompanied by their daughter who was stolen three years ago by Sioux Indians. The appearance of the girl is much like that of an Indian, her entire body having been dyed by the Indians with one of their preparations. Since her romance has become known she has received two offers of marriage from American gentlemen.

The Massey-Harris works in Brandford are working until ten o'clock each night.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

A Lively Time Over the Action of the United States.

OTTAWA, March 7.—This has been an exciting day in the house. Sir Charles Tupper took occasion to call attention to the altered complexion of the railway question, as the outcome of congressional action, and naturally he urged that the government should amend its policy.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier claimed that Canadian rights of navigation on the St. Lawrence carried with it the privilege of transshipment at Wrangel, but he announced that, to guard against difficulties with the states, arrangements would be made to build the line to Observatory Inlet. Spies were added to the discussion by the speech of Sir Louis Davies, who charged the conservatives with lack of patriotism.

Mr. Russell, Halifax, said if there was authority for the statement of Mr. Haugborough, North Dakota, that "the committee on public lands was in possession of information that Canada would accept the conditions imposed by the section. He was firmly of the opinion that the dominion government would yield on the fisheries question, in view of the concession made to it in the bill." Sir Wilfrid Laurier said if the reported statement was correct then there was a serious misapprehension certainly in the mind and on the part of Mr. Haugborough. There have been no negotiations of any kind, official or unofficial, between the government of Canada and the authorities at Washington, except such negotiations as took place when I and my colleague, the minister of marine and fisheries, visited Washington in November last, and those negotiations have already been communicated to the public."

Sir Charles Tupper asked if Sir Wilfrid was aware of the action which the senate of the United States had taken, in the most forward and unmistakable manner, and whether in view of it he proposed to proceed with the bill now before the house? Then he made a long speech on the subject and looked to the government for the maintenance of the only policy which is the indefeasible right of Canada, but the preservation of a position which will show to that great republic, great and powerful as it is, that the dominion of Canada will never submit to have terms dictated to it which strike at the very root of the independence of the government and of the parliament of this country.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said Canada was willing to be on the most friendly terms with the powerful nation to the south, but that nothing should be given away of national dignity. Now, my hon. friend asked a moment ago, "Are you going to proceed with this bill?" I ask him, "Have you anything to offer other than this bill?"

Sir Charles Tupper—Yes.
The prime minister—Even if the action of the senate were to have the effect alleged?

Sir Charles Tupper—Yes.
The prime minister—Well, what will it be?

Mr. Sproule—Build from Edmonton. Then came a deluge of speeches by Messrs. Foster, Hibbert, Tupper, Davies, Davin, Montague, Fisher, Pope and Cartwright. The latter said:

"The proper line to be taken now," went on Sir Richard, "is not lightly or rashly to assume that a friendly government will violate their treaty obligations, but to insist, and to cause the British government to insist with us, on their performance of the treaty right which is solemnly guaranteed to us. As to the rest, we distinctly refuse to be flurried or hurried. We are charged, however unfit we may be, with the task of administering the affairs of Canada for the time being, and if we find that this unhappy course is taken and that we can obtain redress in no other way, we will know how to preserve and protect the rights of the people of Canada."

To Provide a Memorial.
LONDON, March 8.—At a meeting of the American society yesterday steps were taken to contribute to a fund for the purpose of providing a memorial to the dead of the Maine. Messrs. Newton, Crane, J. L. Taylor and Hyman Maxim made feeling speeches and a letter was read from the Anglo-Saxon club requesting permission to contribute to the fund as an expression of sympathy upon the part of all English speaking races. A letter was also read from Lord Vernon, captain of the honorable corps of gentlemen at arms, proposing a contribution of $125. It was decided, however, to limit the contributions to Americans and a committee, including Messrs. Crane, Taylor, Maxim and consul general Osborne was appointed to look after the matter.

Probable Senate Vacancy.
OTTAWA, March 8.—Senator Macfarlane's seat in the senate is likely to become vacant. He did not attend last session, and this year is detained at his home in Wallace, by illness and is not likely to come to Ottawa while the parliament is sitting. This absence for two successive sessions would vacate the seat. Mr. Macfarlane represents one of the senatorial divisions of Cumberland county, N.S.

Elected to Office.
DUBLIN, March 8.—Gen. John Howard Darnley, brother of the late Charles Stuart Parnell and nationalist member of parliament for South Meath, has been elected city marshal of Dublin. The post is worth £1,000 a year. His election was due to his representations that unless he obtained such a remunerative post he would lose Avondale, the Parnell family residence and estate at Rathdrum, county Wicklow.

French Officers With Derivates.
LONDON, March 8.—The Cairo correspondent of the Daily Mail claims to have reliable information that three French officers have been at Omdurman, the stronghold of the derivatives in the Sudan, for three months. Omdurman is across the Nile from the site of Khartoum, now in ruins.

Arrived at Halifax.
HALIFAX, N.S., March 8.—The SS. Mongolian arrived this morning with sixty-five intermedials, eighty-one steerage and twenty cabin passengers.

Brantford is agitating for increased and cheaper means of city lighting.

THE FORWARD POLICY.

On the Indian Frontier is Asked For.

ADVANCE OF BRITISH RULE

ACROSS THE MOUNTAINS IN ORDER TO FORESTALL RUSSIA.

No Official Intimation Received of Russia's Occupation of Deer Island—Joseph Chamberlain Says That Until Reciprocity Negotiations Between the United States and Canada Were Concluded, He Could Not Tell What the Position of the West Indies Would Be.

LONDON, March 8.—The house of lords was unusually crowded yesterday; the peeresses' gallery was full and there were many members of the house of commons present, when Lord Roberts, commander of the forces in Ireland, made his expected speech in favor of a forward policy on the Indian frontier, putting forward the Russian peril and declaring the policy of long suffering with the frontier tribes had been a complete failure. The speaker advocated the advance of British rule across the mountains, and traced the advance of Russia, saying that if she once crossed the Hindoo-Kush an attack upon India was only a matter of time.

The earl of Osovol, under secretary for India, replied, pointing out the enormous cost of Lord Roberts' policy, which he said would imperil the internal progress of India. He thought the grand Russian specter hardly justified it. The ultimate destiny of the tribes was civilization, but the moment was inopportune to hasten it. The marquis of Lansdowne said the government's policy was to keep the main passes open and to establish control over the tribes with a minimum interference in their domestic concerns. After further discussion the house adjourned.

In the house of commons yesterday George N. Curzon said the government could not confirm the despatch to the London Times from Peking, published yesterday, saying, among other things, that Russia had demanded that China surrender to her all sovereign rights over Port Arthur and Ta-Lien-Wan for the same period and on the same conditions as in the case of Germany at Kaio Chou bay. The government had no information of the report that Russia had occupied Deer Island, Corea, nor could the government confirm the reports setting forth that Russia was strengthening the forts at Port Arthur.

The secretary of state for the colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, in the house of commons yesterday, explaining the delay in present action of the government's West Indian proposals, said that until the reciprocity negotiations between the United States and Canada were concluded, the government could not tell what the position of the West Indies would be.

Russia's Demands.
Peking, March 8.—Russia demands the settlement of the lease of Port Arthur and Ta-Lien Wan by March 26th. The Tsung Li Yamen (Chinese foreign office) has given full powers to Yang Yu, the Chinese minister at St. Petersburg, and the negotiations have been transferred there. The matter is practically settled. What will Japan do? England will do nothing. China has given Japan a written undertaking to pay the indemnity in May.

Peking, March 8.—Much uneasiness is felt in Chinese circles in consequence of the Russian demands. The Russian minister of finance, moreover, is reported to have urged these demands peremptorily and to have complained that the Chinese loan will be settled in spite of the disapproval of Russia.

Death From Pleurisy.
QUEBEC, Que., March 8.—Frederick Perchar, fifty-five years of age, for fifteen or eighteen years connected with the department of justice, Ottawa, and one of the best known figures of the federal capital, died here shortly after noon to-day in Jersey Hall hospital, of pleurisy, after only a few days' illness. His wife and son were with him, having arrived early this morning. Having been an old resident of Quebec he will be buried here.

Swedes for The Klondyke.
WINNIPEG, Man., March 8.—Yesterday's express from the east had on board several parties of Klondykers. Among the number were thirty Swedes, who intend engaging in fishing, lumbering and mining in Yukon. Their families follow them later on in the season.

Capt. Nellis Transferred To Winnipeg.
WINNIPEG, March 8.—Capt. Nellis of the Dragoons, Toronto, has been transferred to the Winnipeg squadron to fill the lieutenant's vacancy created by the retirement of Capt. Gardner.

An Immigrant Agent.
ST. JOHN, N.B., March 8.—Rev. Mr. Mainman, a Dane, sailed by the Lake Huron this week on route to Denmark, an immigrant canvasser for the provincial government.

W. C. McDonald, Montreal, who has already given in the neighborhood of a million and a half dollars to McGill university, has now given another $15,000 as an endowment fund to the department of architecture for the purchase of supplies and materials.

WHEN THEY MAY GET SENSE.

When The Balm Days Come—To Make Many Improvements.

MONTREAL, Que., March 8.—"When the balm days of spring come and the railway officials want to go fishing," said an official closely identified with the passenger rate war this morning, "perhaps they will get some sense into their heads and put a stop to the difficulty." The thought may be father to the wish, but he was compelled to admit that the prospects of getting away fishing are not very promising at the present time. The C.P.R. is the aggressive party in the fight, and has been expected to make a charge for several days past on the enemy. The Grand Trunk has been resting on its arms, waiting for the charge but it has not come and the defensive party is prepared to wait the way they are for the present.

D. McNicoll, passenger traffic manager of the C.P.R., is away in New York to-day attending a meeting of the joint passenger association. It is a regular meeting and has no connection with the rate war, but it is possible that the matter may be discussed informally. The railway people in the west are said to be looking to Montreal for news regarding the railway situation, as the next move is naturally expected from the C.P.R., the other lines having met all the reductions made by the Canadian road.

The management of the Grand Trunk is making arrangements to commence extensive improvements on the southern division of their line. On that part of the system which is now being jointly used by the Wabash and themselves, traffic will be much heavier than formerly on account of the change and it will be necessary to lay eighty pound steel rails and put in additional sidings. The work will be commenced as soon as the warm weather is sufficiently advanced.

W. S. Gage, representing New York capitalists, has purchased all the obsolete rifles and guns owned by the dominion government. It is understood the purchase is intended to be disposed of to the Central American republics which are frequently at war with each other.

Raoul Sauly, Paris, is in the city to make a proposition to the provincial exhibition authorities for holding in conjunction with that event an exhibit of French artistic and industrial manufactures. He promises that a million dollars worth of exhibits will be brought here representing twelve hundred exhibitors.

MAKE FURTHER CUTS.
This Is The Purpose Of The C.P.R.—Fined For Trespass.

TORONTO, March 8.—W. S. Doughty, one of the "No seat, no fare" crusaders, was charged in the police court this morning with trespassing on the street railway's cars. Doughty refused to pay his fare unless he had a seat provided for him and refused also to get off the car. The deputy-magistrate imposed a fine of $2 and costs.

G. S. Scroggie, an employee of the News, charged with a similar offence, secured a further adjournment for a day.

There is nothing new in the railway rate war, but it is understood the Canadian Pacific will issue a new tariff to-morrow, making a further cut in the rate to the coast.
