PORTLAND ARSON CASE.

BROCKVILLE, March 16. - At the spring assizes yesterday, before justice Armour, the grand jury brought in a true bill against Thomas K. Scovil and he was placed in the prisoner's box and pleaded not guilty to indictment charging him with setting fire to his dwelling house and barn, with intent to defraud, on Nov. 21st 1896. The chief witness heard was William Lung, who testified that on the night of the fire he had driven with H. Johnston to Scovil's residence in l'ortland. Johns. ton got out of the rig, and when asked to account for his action said it was only a tion tion put on the order paper a short matter of a few matches. Johnston went time ago and published in opposition toward the house while the witness drove around to the opposite corner.
