Parliament.

Election-Lieutenant-Governor Mack intosh's Visit to Ottawa.

Ottawa, Jan. 16.—(Special.)—In Senate to-day the debate on the address was continued this afternoon by Se- time nator Boulton, a Conservative, who denounced the Government's fiscal policy. He regarded preferential trade with in the empire as chimerical and impossible. He cautioned the Government on their school policy. They should take warning from the result of the general elections in Manitoba. predicted defeat for the school bill. Senator Perley, also a Northwest representative, said efficient schools were he had no objection to religious instruction of any kind. After others had spoken, Senator Fer-
