THE HOCKEY CONTEST.

The Limestones Won Easily From the Cadets-A Hockey League.

The exhibition of hockey put up by the Limestones and R. M. C. cadets in their match, on Saturday night, on the drill shed rink, was above the average. The cadets demonstrated the fact that they can turn out a better hockey team than a football a; egation. However, they were not swift enough for the civilians and suffered defeat, which is humiliating to every soldier. They accepted the matter goodnaturedly, and at the close of the game gave three hearty cheers for the victors. There was a fair attendance of spectators, ladies forming a large percentage. At 8:30 o'clock the teams lined up on the ice

Chamberlain Re-echoes The Noble Words

ply to J. P. GILDERSLEEVE, Clarence street.

Of Senator Walcott. LONDON, Jan. 27.—The Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, delivered a speech at Birmingham Saturday night. He congratulated the country upon having at the head of its affairs Lord Salisbury, those judg ment and resolution had placed him the very first among European statesmen. Referring to the Guiana boundary dispute, Mr. Chamberlain said it had been trivial until it was suddenly elevated to grave importance by the intervention of the United States. There seemed to be some misap. prehension on both sides. The opinion seemed to have prevailed in England that ' American statesmen wished to pick a quarrel, while the Americans seemed to have thought that the British impugned the doctrine which they rightly had foug held to be the most important to their own security. They also seemed to have thought the British were disposed to deal Group II-Rockwood vs. R.M.C., Feb. in a harsh and arbitrary manner with a smaller state. He believed that American people, and all that is best in the United 1 States would regard with horror an endless war with their own blood and kindred. He also believed that president Cleveland, whose acquaintance he had the honor of making while he was in America, and who had a high reputation for straightforward, honorable dealing, would never deceive and drive the two kindred nations to strife. On the other hand, the Americans could be assured from the utterances of Lord Salisbury and Arthur Balfour, the first lord of the treasury, that Great Britain had no desire for a single inch of American territory be yond what she already rightfully possessed. All that was necessary to settle the trouble was more time and fuller knowledge. Meanwhile he would re-echo from the Soutom of his heart Senator Wolcott's noble words, "blood is thicker than water. (Loud cheers.) That would always be the sentiments of every Briton. The two nations were more closely allied in sentiment and interest than any others, and while the British looked with horror on any thing approaching fratricidal strife, they looked with pleasure upon the possibilit of the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack floating together in defence of a com mon cause. Pinnos Tuned By H. Cunningham from Chickering's Leave orders at McAuley's bookstore.
