BARRIE, Ont., Feb. 18 .- J. A. Stratby, manager of the Bank of Toronto, here, for the past fifteen years, was shot and mortally wounded at his home at 10:30 this and asked for him. When Mr. Strathy appeared the man drew a revolver and

Details Of The Murder.

BARRIE, Feb. 18. - About 10:80 o'elock this morning an ex-hotelkeeeper, named Michael Brennen, called at the residence of J. A. Strathy, late manager of the Bank of Toronto, and one of Barrie's most proitizens, and asked for Mr. Strathy The servant invited the man in but he sai he would remain in the porch. When Mr. Strathy appeared at the door, the man, without speaking, drew a revolver from his pocket and fired, the shot entering his victim's left breast just below the

The family hearing the report, rushed to the hall and found Mr. Strathy lying on the floor. Physicians were telephoned for ments after the fatal shot was fired. Although everything was done to prolong We are already showing some the murdered man's life he died at 11:25. The murderer, after firing the shot, passing sleigh and rode down to the marasked the constable to go with him to the cember. If more candidates are nominated He told Marrin he had shot Strathy and wanted to give himself up. When they reached the sheriff's office A Fancy Black Goods for 27tc Brennan asked for sheriff Drury, and when the sheriff appeared he said : "Mr. Drury, I have shot John Strathy and have come to surrender myself to you." Pulling the revolver from his pocket he handed to the sheriff saying: "This i what did the deed."

When asked why he committed the terrible crime, he said: "I have had financial and family troubles and Strathy was at the bottom of my trouble financially. I could not get the courts to take it up, so now l have shot him and the courts will have to deal with it. The motive given by the murderer is not
