Edison laughed. Then, with a jerk of "Rigged a weight up there. We know how fast a weight falls by the simple at traction of gravity. We put a brass scale beside the weight. The turning on of the current that killed the dog released the The current was turned on and off as quickly as possible. The dog was dead and the weight had fallen two one-hundredths of an inch. It took it one ten-thousandth of a second to do that. That's the time

It took to kill the dog." Then Mr. Edison talked about the protection of harbors by torpedoes. It would be very simple, he said, to construct torand the administration of justice cost, in pedo defenses for New York, or any other harbor, for that matter. It can be done quickly and at little cost. Accurate and careful surveys of all the important harbors on the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards are in the possession of the government engineers. They know the depth of water, the location of bars and the character of the bottom. Taking New York harbor as an illustration, he said: "Suppose you stretch an endless cable

AN IRISH SENSATION. An Heir to a Peerage Becomes a Home

Rule Candidate.

New York, March 23.—A special cable from London says :- Somewhat of a sensation was caused among both parties in parliament by the announcement that James Burke Roche had been chosen the home rule candidate for Killarney. East Kerry. His brother, Baron Fermoy, to whom he is the heir presumptive, is strongly conservative, as has been his entire family, and when elected as he is sure to be, Burke Roche will be the only heir to a peerage in the Irish home rule party. Baron Fermoy, it is said, cannot survive long, and he has no children. James Burke Roche married Fanny, unquestioned success, is fair proof that it is daughter of Frank Work, of New York, one of the Highest Grade Wheels on the and, on the death of the present baron, market. the elder of her handsome twin sons became heir apparent to the title.
