Death of Jonathan T. Brown.

Death has again entered the home and taken therefrom Jonathan T. Brown, one of our most esteemed and beloved citizens. About eight days ago Mr. Brown was taken with grippe. Deceased was a great sufferer up to Tuesday when death released him from further suffering. He was born in Picton on Sept. 24th, 1827, and was the walk on his farm, near that village, this son of the late Thomas M. Brown and Deborah Bowerman. The father of the deceased was a U. E. Loyalist. Mr. Brown was a broad minded man. l'erson-Brown, (nee Baker) the daughter of the late | W old. For many I pay 25c. to $5.00. GRo.
