LONDON, Oct. 17.-Joseph Chamberlair M.P., the Liberal Unionist leader, address showing a protty lot of Japanese goods ed the Unionist conference in Durham yesterday. He held that the Unionist party was growing in strength at the expense of the Gladstonians and he insisted upon the importance of having a definite policy of social reform. He defended in detail the bill which he has prepared for introduction. at the next session of Parliament, providing for the furnishing of State aid artisans in the purchase of homes of their own, for the granting of old age pensions for the limitation of the hours of labor in shops and factories for the restriction of pauper alien immigration, and for a new employers' liability act embodying a conracting out clause

Referring to the adverse opinions of certain Unionist papers on this bill, he said that if he thought the criticisms were approved by any considerable section of the Unionist party he would resign the responsible position which he now holds in the party's councils. The party would never succeed, he declared, with a barren policy of negative criticism or cynical in-

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 17.-The Politiken of this city publishes a statement that the Czar intends to change the succession to the throne, naming his youngest son Michael as heir, in consequence of the Czarewitch's political views, George's succession being considered impossible owing to his had health. The story is regarded London, Oct. 17. - Grand Duke Vladimir. brother of the Czar, arrived in Paris yesterday and visited President Casimir-Perier as the Palace d'Elysee. The Paris correspondent of the Daily News says that the Grand Duke declared that Russia's pacific policy has not changed and that the Czar's condition has improved in the Crimea and is not considered hopeless. Protest Against Turkish Outrages, LOSDON, Oct. 17 .- A meeting to protest against Turkish outrages in Armenia was held in London last evening. Francis Stevensen, M. P., chairman of the Anglo-Armenian Association, presided. The speakers complained of the apathy of the British foreign office and of the Church of England in the Armenian's, sufferings. A resolution was adopted to invoke the aid of the Government to induce the Porte remove the restraint placed upon Azarian, which is declared to be a violation of the Berlin treaty. Other resoluilons protest against Turkey's preventing Armenians from emigrating to the United tates and other countries, and against ther restrictions.

Princess Alix's Backbone BERLIN, Oct. 17 .- The Kreuz Zeitung says the Russian holy synod has made an extraordinary and highly important concession in the case of the adoption of the Greek faith by Princess Alix of Hesse, The Princess refused to declare her former religion accursed or that her conversion was due to the conviction that her, own religion was not founded upon truth, as is required by the law of the Greek Church. had joined the Greek Church in order that she might be of one falth with her future husband, and the holy synod accepted her declaration as sufficient.
