

MEDICAL

THE KINGSTON DISTRICT
WHAT OUR INDUSTRIOUS STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS WRITE.

The Events of the Week that concern the Residents of the Midland District Little Europe, Notice, and Each Local - Find Something of Interest.

MORNING, March 13.—The revival meeting at the Lutheran church closed on Friday evening. The young people's supper meeting, J. Fralick's on Friday, was well attended and a pleasant evening spent. Mr. Fralick moves to Napanee.

MORNING, March 16.—The Sons of Temperance held their annual meeting on Saturday evening. Miss Victoria, sister of the Delta Point school the remainder of the year. On account of the soft weather our horse races are declared off. W. L. Kelly, Brookville, gave us a call last week.

RALTON, March 13.—The recent temperate weather has caused the farmers to make preparations for sugar-making. Residents are making the most of the last of sleighing and are busily engaged hauling bass wood to Murvale station and have a long log to Sydenham.

MORN. E. DOMINICK, of Kingston, visiting friends here the past few weeks. Visitors : L. Byrnes, Tamworth; Mrs. J. Murphy, Wolfe Island.

DESMOND, March 15.—Grazing birds have made their appearance.—W. H. Henderson is in his midst again. He intends spending a few weeks and then return to Watertown. N.Y.—Mrs. Miller, Tamworth, was the guest of Mrs. J. W. Bell last week. Mrs. A. P. Bell attended the funeral of her mother last Thursday at Centerville. Anton Collier and mother left for home last week after spending a few days with relatives and a friend in this place.

LAVANT STATION, March 14.—The six month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lavant died from the effects of a severe cold, Saturday night. Funeral took place yesterday afternoon. The body was buried in Mr. Watts' field. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents.—Miss Janet Lee, for some time, is about again.—I. Allen, Mississippi, is here today on business. This man who has led the roads in bad conditions for many years will be unable to haul all their timber, this season if weather keeps soft.

CLAYTON, March 14.—Mrs. John Robinson passed away on the 11th inst. The funeral was largely attended to day. The departed leaves four sons and five daughters to mourn her loss. She was eighty-four years of age and has lived in this community over fifty years and was most highly respected. As seen by the Rev. A. G. Moore, she had a good record for the departure of his beloved mother. The funeral service was conducted by Revs. N. B. Topping and S. D. Chown.

PRESBYTERY, March 13.—Miss Gertrude Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wall, of last week with relatives here.—Rev. G. Wall had a bad last week drawing wood, and G. F. Ashley one for the purpose of drawing his pressed hay to the station at Gananoque.—Miss Atkinson spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Joyceville.—Mr. H. Henderson is preparing to build a barn in his lower place.—Mr. and Mrs. Bouchard, former guests of Mr. Maxwell, Mrs. D. McLennan is home again after having been ill in Ingonish.

CUNNINGHAM, March 15.—Everybody took advantage of the last remains of the snow to finish their teaming.—Rev. Mr. Plimpton had a bee for cutting up his wood last week. After the work was done all were hospitably entertained by a joyful repast of oysters.—The Epworth League in this place is progressing favorably.—Mrs. MacLean has returned from Ontario, where he was sick for several months. Other visitors : Rev. W. B. Tucker, Arden; and Rev. Mr. Harrison, Croyne, at the parsonage; Mrs. C. Godfrey, at S. Abbott's.—A large quantity of wood and timber being placed on the bank for shipment.

MOUNTAIN GROVE, March 15.—Rev. G. Byam will hold special services in the log room during this week. Rev. W. B. Tucker, Arden, will preach on Tuesday evening.—G. Flynn led a very interesting meeting on Sunday night, attending goodly numbers.—A shooting accident by a falling lamp ; no damage done except a reflector broken. T. G. Flynn, president, will lead next Sunday night.

SATURDAY, March 15.—Everybody took advantage of the last remains of the snow to finish their teaming.—Rev. Mr. Plimpton had a bee for cutting up his wood last week. After the work was done all were hospitably entertained by a joyful repast of oysters.—The Epworth League in this place is progressing favorably.—Mrs. MacLean has returned from Ontario, where he was sick for several months. Other visitors : Rev. W. B. Tucker, Arden; and Rev. Mr. Harrison, Croyne, at the parsonage; Mrs. C. Godfrey, at S. Abbott's.—A large quantity of wood and timber being placed on the bank for shipment.

SEELYE'S BAY, March 14.—Farmers are preparing for sugar making. Pr. spares are good for a good flow this spring. A large number of delegates will attend the district lodge of the Sons of Temperance.—Mrs. Hiram Moore presented her husband with a young son.—Dr. R. J. George Chouteau's house is surgery to Russell house. Mr. Tomlinson is a happy man, it's a girl.—Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Maxwell have returned to Detroit after spending two months visiting friends here.—Owing to the roads being in a bad condition the Kingston stage went out on wheels today.

HARROWSHIRE, March 15.—D. Graves, proprietor of the Albion hotel, is able to go again after a serious illness.—J. Johnson, shoemaker, has moved into S. Smith's stone house.—The Rathbone Co. will reconstruct its old sawmill building next Monday.—It is rumored that D. Wallace will soon be a resident of our village.—W. J. Sproule has a pony "Ned Hamlin," which stands thirteen hands high. It is a gay traveller.—Mrs. W. J. Sproule to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youthful visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

KINGSTON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

KINGSTON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.

ROBERTSON, March 14.—Waggoners are taking the blacksmiths' trade. Waggoners buy horses and cattle and bring them home to us as our iron bridges are going rapidly. A horse belonging to one of the islanders dropped in on Mon. day last and was rescued with great difficulty.—Moses, D. McLean and T. Shugihara paid us a flying visit last Sunday.—T. S. Purdy, a student to the grand council of Clinton Friends.—J. Lyons, Portland, is a visitor at his brother's, W. A. Lyons.—A youth visitor came to Elias Jackson's last week.