Pante and Tells Why There is Trouble-He Makes Some Vigorous Remarks Hegarding the McKinley Bill. PROVIDENCE, R. I. April 24,-(To the Editor): If news reports are true Canadian banks are fast becoming timid as regards the financial worth of the United States silver certificates, even refusing to cash them at a discount. One need not be surprised any moment now to hear that the credit of this great republic is in danger. While I do not believe that gold will go to a premium and while if I were in Canada I would not accept a discount of even two percent. on United States silver certificates merely to get rid of the money, I cannot but believe that the government of this country has placed itself in an embarrassing position, by passing the McKinley tariff and the Sherman silver laws. Whatever is an economic falsity will work itself out and reveal itself, the barron and maromantic lie which is, in | time. To-day the trouble with the United States treasury is that the one hundred millions of gold held in reserve for the redemption of treasury notes is endangered as the free gold above that sum fluctuates between one and six millions and every day a steamer sails for Europe. Wall street shivers at the drain of gold called abroad to balance the trade of this country with its transatiantic customers and to pay for American bonds dumped on the market here by foreign nvestors, who are bearish. With the reasury in such a pickle the great bankers are feverish and consequently stocks are being seriously squeezed down and it is quite reasonable to expect that general business will feel the depressing influ-It is not the secretary of treasury
