CLEAN UP THE CITY. The health of the city is at all times HOME, Toronto (Incorporated). A Prinamely, dirt. The inspector and the their house-to-house visitation should insist on the removal of filth. They have done well so far, but the inevery class of nuisance in back yards is made sweet and pure. It has been suggested, and we think it a good idea, that the water works department should rescind its charges for the use of water through hose for this year. Cleanliness can be well maintained by an abundant use of water. Those who pay water rates should be allowed to use the liquid for all purposes, whether forced through a hose or carried about in pails.

to the removal of obstructions from that portion of the street occupied by the boulevard. It has to go a step further the sidewalk and the houses shall be kept in a proper condition. The property owners petition the council for the boulevard, promising, when old sidewalks are changed, to meet the necessary expenses theroof. They should be required to go further and assume the responsibility of sodding or sowing with grass seed that part of the street which has been cut off from public travel. The boulevard is permitted in the interest of the property owner, and he should see that it is a credit to himself and the city. The absence of any regulation the question, of any power that can be city, is made manifest by the neglect of the people in respect of these-boulevards all over the city. Kingston could be considerably improved by the exhibition of a little more taste publicly, by the care of lawns and boulevards and removal of fonces which are not a protection to property, but a positive eyesore. Why should some grounds and gardens be enclosed as they are and shut out from public view, especially when they are well-kept and pleasing to look upon? Other cities are vising with each other on this point, and let us hope that Kingston will not be behind any of them.

ARE PREACHERS A DRUG? Rev. Dr. Burns, of the Hamilton ladies' college, a regularly ordained minister though not a pastor after a call marks to his brother ministers. Ho thinks the money and the energies of the churches are misdirected. Too many are preaching and contending in the narrow field already christianized, while millions in other lands have never heard the name of Christ. In a letter to the "Globe," Dr. Burns says "A lecturer in the university of Edinburgh said not long ago that Scotland was overchurched and over-ministered So is England, so is Canada, so is the United States, and the same is true of some other countries. In such lands piety seems to be in inverse proportion to the number of ministers. They are simply in the wrong place. They ought to be somewhere else. are thousands of gifted laymen, whose talents are rusting out through inactivity, abundantly able to conduct every interest of the church. But I would not send every minister. Many have no aptitude for acquiring languages. Age and health would prevent others. Taking all things into consideration it is quite within bounds to say that of the seventy or eighty thousand ordained ministers in North America fifteen to twenty thousand could and should take their places in the mission field.

The Time to Detect the Virus of Protection Was Long Ago.

Dr. Grant has joined forces with Dalwould be sufficient. As a political weawith the "virus of protection." But it required some foresight and some education in economics to see through all his fallacies when it was first presented to Canadians spection should be made frequent, until as a new policy in 1877. Dr. Grant is a clever man. He is also an educated man. It is at such a crisis as this country passed through in 1878 that a country has need of men of ability, men of education, men of political courage. Mr. Grant saw all the fallacies of protection then as clearly as he does today. He knew that the so-called national policy was merely the old wornout humbug of protection that had.

He knew all these things, and being an educated man and a man to whose utterances people attached some weight, it was his duty manfully to stand up and defend the truth. He could see and admire the admirable stand for the right that Mr. Mackenzie was making. He knew how clean and economical and upright that minister's government had been in every particular. And he knew perfectly well the character of the men who only five years before had been convicted of the infamy of the great Pacific scandal. DYSENTERY

ing elimination) and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any state-ment to the effect that a compound is identical of EVERY KIND, affords a calm, refreahing sleep, WITHOUT HEADACHE, and invigorates with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false. This caution is necessary, as many persons toceive purchasers by false representations. DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

-Vice Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; the whole story of defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he re-gretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The
