MEMORIAL WREATHS LAID

UPON THE GRAVE OF THE LATE SIR JOHN A MACDONALD.

This Morning's Ceremony at Cataraqui Cemetery — The Tributes Were From Two Conservative Clubs And One From Baroness Macdonald—Appropriate Remarks.

In commemoration of the second anniversary of the death of Sir John A. Macdonald hacks containing the following gentlemen proceeded to Cataraqui cemetery at eleven o'clock this morning to place flowers on the chieftain's grave and utter words of respect to the memory of the dead: Joseph P. Jacobs, representing the Macdonald club, Montreal; Dr. Herald, president of the local club; J. Morgan Shaw, vice-president; James Swift, Prof. Williamson, J. Donnelly, Dr. Ryan, Robert Baird.

A delegate from Ottawa was expected, as was also a wreath from the cabinet ministers, but through some delay neither were on hand. Hats were doffed at the tomb and Prof. Williamson first called on to speak. Taking the beautiful anchor of lilies of the valley, roses and maiden hair ferns, with the inscription of "At Rest," sent by Baroness Macdonald, he laid the widow's contributions on the grave and said amid emotion, that he had been desired by Lady Macdonald, in her name, to place upon the grave of her departed husband, whom she loved so well, the floral decoration. He would write to her soon and take the opportunity of mentioning to her the presence of the gentlemen from the city the deceased represented so long, and also the delegate from the Macdonald club, Montreal. She would surely feel very grateful, particularly to the representative from Montreal and the Kingston clubs for the beautiful wreaths they proposed to place on the tomb as an expression of the love they entertain for his memory. For his own part he wished to thank most sincerely the Montreal and Kingston gentlemen present for this manifestation to the memory of the leader who had been privileged to accomplish so much good. He felt all the more thankful that he was so long and intimately connected with him, not merely as a brother-in-law, but as one who loved and respected him dearly. He had seen by the paper that it was the intention of Sir John's colleagues to have sent an offering on their part, and he was sure there must be some mistake in the wreath not arriving. Sir John was always supported by a band of the most eminent men of his time, attracting to him their admiration and esteem. This inspired him in the wise choice and selection of his associates in the government whose services he retained to the last. His life showed the sense his colleagues entertained for the high statesmanlike abilities of their leader. Here we have a tribute to his domestic virtues and at the same time a tribute to the great good and the leading part he took in promoting the ever-growing progress of Canada.

Mr. Jacobs then spoke. He wished to place the wreath, bearing the words "In memory, Sir John Macdonald club, Montreal," on the grave of the lamented premier as a tribute of respect from the conservatives of the commercial metropolis of Canada. His memory lived in the minds of the people of Canada. This tribute showed that the young members of his party had inculcated in their minds the policy of their leader. Before another year had passed there would be erected on the finest site in the greatest city of the dominion a monument that will fittingly show the pride and esteem in which the young conservatives there hold the father of their country.

The wreath was composed of lilies of the valley, Easter lilies, yellow rosebuds and maiden hair fern. It was a very large design.

President Herald laid a pillow of white begonias, roses, lilies and ferns, and spoke eloquently regarding the memory of the statesman. The leader was enshrined in the hearts of the citizens of Kingston, exclusive of class or creed. By the words "Our Chief" the club wished to emphasize that the late premier was still the chief of the young conservatives. It had been denied that Sir John Macdonald was the father of our country, but no matter what claims were made pro and con the fact remained that he was the father of the conservative party of this dominion. He was the origin of the party and was at its head as long as he lived and to the present day. Without disparagement of our present leader or of the wisdom of those conducting the affairs of this country we feel that we should look upon the policy of our dead leader as a headlight. It was said by a great poet that: "The evil that men do lives after them; the good was often interred with their bones." He did not think this was so with Sir John Macdonald. No one would claim that all his acts were the acts of All-seeing wisdom, but the good he did far excelled the evil he may have done. Whatever work he performed it was with the desire to promote the interests of his country. In his very early years he took a prominent part in our country and was one of those who brought about the foundation of the dominion. Having formed the dominion and bound the provinces together by acts of parliament he set about to introduce a good system of intercommunication among the provinces. He recognized the fact that in this country there were people of various nationalities. If there was one thing for which deceased was distinguished more than another it was for his faculty of bringing together, in a homogeneous manner, the people of Canada. The people of British Columbia, Ontario and maritime provinces were brought into co-operation and the result attained was due largely to his energy and wisdom. Might his memory be kept green as are some of the great works he accomplished, such as the C.P.R. He made the people not to feel that they belonged to this particular section or mother, but to the dominion of Canada. Long might his memory be honored as affectionately as to-day.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The Movements of People—What They Are Saying and Doing.

Rev. J. R. Butler, of Plevna, is in the city for a few days.

John Albertson, spinner at the Kingston cotton mill for ten years, has left with his family to take a similar position in Lewiston, state of Maine.

The well-known Israelite named Cook, who travelled up and down the country peculiarly attired and who believed he would never die, recently entered into rest at his farm in the vicinity of Tamworth. He was a good man but possessed of remarkable fancies.

Chief Justice Armour, who owns the Arlington hotel, Cobourg, says he will not open it for business after the current year unless it goes into some other hands. He says he has carried on the resort solely for the benefit of the town and the people are evidently tiring of it.

Rev. G. R. Beamish and Dr. R. S. Minnes left for England yesterday to take post graduate courses. They sail by Dominion steamship line and take in charge two patients from the general hospital, James Black and James Laxon, both incurable and desirous of reaching their old homes. The Kingston public subscribed $30 for Black's passage.

Physicians in cholera districts state that where there is no indigestion there will be no cholera. K.D.C. will cure your indigestion and make you cholera-proof.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Sound Sense.

It's a nice thing to be clean; it is also a nice thing to look clean, and you can if you buy a white lawn at Laidlaw's. They have them at 15c, 20c and 25c.

The Mail Robbery.

A G.T.R. employee stated to-day that the company's detectives were under the impression that the recent mail robbery was the work of tramps. The employee, however, does not think this can be the case. No common tramp could do such a neat job.

A Very Pleasant Party.

A contingent of French tourists, numbering twenty-four, arrived last evening at 8:40 o'clock and engaged rooms at the Hotel Frontenac. They left this morning for Montreal on the steamer Corsican. They are a happy family out for a good time.

No Purchaser Yet.

A. Chadwick says he has not got a purchaser for the piano factory, but that several manufacturers have been corresponding in respect to it. He says he will do all in his power to dispose of the property to a company likely to employ a great number of men.

To The Consumer.

If you wish a cup of good tea at a modest price we would invite you to try a pound of black mixed or Japan tea at 35c a pound. Remarkable value, fresh and fragrant, gives good satisfaction to all who have tried it, and will please any who have been in the habit of paying 50c. Try it. Stroud Bros., 109 Princess street.

Kingston a Little Livelier.

Mr. Hannaford, engineer of the G.T.R., is in the city. About twenty-six years ago he was a resident of Kingston and thinks that the limestone city may be a little livelier than it was then or even brisker than it was five years ago when he was here. Montreal is an exceptionally busy city. Things are bustling there just now. Railway circles are quiet.

Excursion To Picton.

The attendance at Creighton's ramble was very large, and the excursionists enjoyed the trip. A short stop was made at Glenora, and Picton was reached at 2:30 o'clock. The tourists were allowed until 7 o'clock in the evening to take in the sights. Many drove to the far-famed Sand Banks and others strolled about the town. Some of the horses were driven so hard they may die.

The Montreal Club.

J. H. Jacobs, honorary secretary of the Macdonald club, Montreal, is the representative here to decorate the grave of the late chieftain. Mr. Jacobs is also secretary of the memorial fund. The Montreal club was organized three years ago by Sir John. The premier was made honorary president and there are now 300 members. Mr. Jacobs is a very genial person and has the qualities which make a popular man.

Police Court—Tuesday.

Charles Oliver, jr., and Archibald Reilly were up for being disorderly on the street. Witnesses were examined and it proven that Reilly was drunk and that Oliver fought with him in self-defence. Reilly was fined $5 and costs or one month in jail, and Oliver discharged. Mary Ahern, vagrancy, remanded till the 8th. Elsie McIlroy, assault, dismissed. This was a case of a couple of school children quarrelling.

The Business Has Been Improved.

A damaging statement has been going the rounds to the effect that the cheese business in the Kingston district has not been improved. R. Rowlins, milk inspector, well versed in the progress of the cheese business in the Kingston and Napanee district, denies the charge. He says that in three years over $15,000 have been spent in the district in improving the cheese business. In this period there has been a greater improvement in the Kingston section than there has been in any other district in the same time.

A Serious Accident.

Wright McIlroy, travelling agent for W. J. Crothers, met with a serious accident, yesterday afternoon, at Prescott. When starting out with the waggon he either fell or was thrown in front of the wheels, and the horses being fresh, started, when both wheels passed over his body. The two doctors in attendance think that Mr. McIlroy has sustained serious internal injuries. His son went to Prescott last night, intending to bring his father home if it was safe to move him.

Bail Granted.

Justice Falconbridge, after due consultation with the attorney-general, made an order admitting to bail Tommy Shipman and Albert Joels, two of the three persons charged with aiding and abetting Charles Shipman in the murder of John Fitzsimmons at Darling's Landing, on furnishing securities to the satisfaction of the crown attorney, which will be themselves in sureties of $500 each and two securities of $200. No application for bail for C. Shipman and Mrs. Joels was made, so they will be compelled to remain with jailer White until next October at least.

A Veteran's Death.

John Lee, octogenarian, of Odessa, died last Friday night after a long and wasting illness. Mr. Lee has had a varied experience and has seen many changes in this province. He served in the interests of his country in the Mackenzie rebellion of 1837, being a member of a company raised in Ernesttown and garrisoned in Kingston during the absence of the regulars. Mr. Lee was interested in the efforts of Mr. Merrill, of Belleville, in presenting the claims of the veterans before parliament. Politically he was a supporter of the reform party, and in religion a Methodist. The funeral on Sunday was largely attended. Mr. Lee was married twice, and leaves a widow and several children.

A Runaway Accident.

Yesterday afternoon an accident occurred which might have resulted in loss of life. Mrs. S. Birch, Mrs. L. B. Spencer and Mrs. L. H. Henderson went out in a carriage and called at a house on Johnston street. In turning away one of the wheels collapsed. The occupants were thrown to the street, the driver falling upon Mrs. Henderson. The horses started to run away, and the rig caught the ladies and dragged them a considerable distance. Mrs. Henderson was quite seriously injured. Numerous wounds were inflicted that will cause the patient to remain quiet for several weeks. The elderly ladies were only slightly hurt. The vehicle collided with a telegraph pole and when the horses got free they stopped.

Military Matters.

J. Graham, color-sergeant of the 14th batt., will go to Minneapolis next week to settle.

Staff-Sergt. Long, of "A" battery, will be instructor for the Toronto field battery at the Niagara camp which opens on the 14th.

"A" and "F" companies have three or four men over the number allowed. Both companies are well drilled and the boys seem to take a pleasure in turning out, other companies should do the same.

The drill shed was packed to the door last night. The band had new music to march to and adjutant Galloway gave the battalion a good drilling. The boys are turning out better now and a first-class battalion should go to Montreal.

Give The Ladies Welcome.

To-day there will arrive in Kingston a devoted band, the representatives of the auxiliaries to missions in the diocese of Ontario. Within a few years these ladies have converted the Anglican church in Canada by united action from a spasmodic, indifferent worker for outside missions into a live, active and generous body, having a central board managing the missions over our scattered dominion, with consummate tact, and sending to England annually besides a large sum for foreign mission work. They are adding to the foreign mission field also individual workers like Miss Smith, lately sent from Kingston. They have been so successful in aiding foreign mission work that the diocese of Ontario struggling with its own mission work, is looking hopefully to the ladies to undertake that branch of church work also under their patronage. A letter from an old missionary worker in Saturday's WHIG places this subject so fully before these ladies that we need simply call attention again to the subject to receive for it profitable attention.

Those suffering from indigestion are the first to be attacked by cholera. K. D. C. is the greatest cure of the age for indigestion. It is the best cholera preventive.

GENERAL PARAGRAPHS.

In obedience to the orders of the French resident, the Siamese have withdrawn from Camonon, the principal military post of northern Anam.

The statement that Cataraqui cemetery was locked on Sunday is denied by Mr. Nicol. The cemetery is never locked, and people without rigs are allowed to visit the graves of friends on any day in the week.

James Nosworthy, a leading citizen of Belleville, fell dead on the street on Monday from heart disease. He was seventy-eight years of age and has resided in Belleville for fifty years. He was at the front in 1837.

Canon Ellegood, of St. James' church, Montreal; Mr. Hannaford, the noted engineer, and wife, and Miss Hannaford, of the same place, and Mrs. Ponton, New York, are at the British American hotel. They will visit here for a couple of days.

Burglars visited the village of Marmora on Sunday night, and broke into Gladney & Co's store and Pearce's woollen mills, but they secured very little booty. A good watch and chain were stolen from the room of Patrick McCambridge, of the American hotel, Frankford.

The tenth annual encampment of New York division of the Sons of Veterans will be held in Clayton, June 20th, and continue throughout the week. There will be patriotic addresses by prominent members of the order, interspersed with musical selections. A championship race will be sailed by racing skiffs from Kingston and other places; also second and third-class fishing-skiff and rowing races, and other athletic sports. Search-light excursion around the islands on Thursday night. On Friday, the last day of encampment, there will be an excursion to Kingston. The programme throughout will be interesting and memorable in the history of Clayton. Special excursions will be run to Clayton from different points.

THE PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

The Cottages Are Being Put in Shape For the Occupants.

THOUSAND ISLAND PARK, June 5.—According to the extensive preparations going on here it would seem that the world's fair would not affect the park whatever. Building, repairing, etc., are being carried on with a rush and there is every appearance of a big season. J. P. Billings, Rodman, N.Y., is fitting up his fine large cottages on Garden avenue, one of the finest locations on the park, and a great resort of Canadians who stop here over Sunday. Everyone seems pleased over the final decision of the trustees that there will be no more gate fee. Messrs. Holden, Kennedy, Warner and Frost, all situated on Coast avenue, are giving their cottages a thorough good painting.

Mrs. Skinner, of Mexico, N.Y., is adding a wing to one of her fine cottages on East Coast avenue. The beautiful large cottage on the corner of Central and Coast avenue, belonging to the Hon. Peter Mitchell, Montreal, has lately been sold to an Ottawa clergyman and will soon be fitted up for its new owner. Edward Gardner has traded his farm at Fine View with J. R. Van Epps, of Watertown, for real estate in that city. A wedding occurred at Grand View park on Friday, when Miss Childs, daughter of the proprietor, was married to a New York gentleman. A number of new cottages will be built at Grand View soon, and several more at Murray Hill park. If the Spanish caravels lay over a day or so at Kingston there is no doubt but immense crowds will go to see them. Quite a number of cottages are occupied now and many people are coming daily.

Burial of An Old Resident.

PERTH, Ont., June 5.—The funeral of the late John Manion, yesterday, was the largest that ever came to town, the cortege being composed of 170 vehicles, the Perth company of light infantry, two companies of Perth firemen and the two brass bands. Deceased was the son of an old soldier, and himself shouldered a musket as a loyalist in 1837. He was born in Ireland in 1804, and since 1815 lived in Bathurst township, about three miles from Perth. He was a man of great activity and hardihood, was thoroughly well versed in the bush, in mineral deposits, and knew every foot of the county. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Fr. Duffis, and the remains were laid in the Roman Catholic cemetery here, the volunteers firing three volleys over his grave.

The Council Meeting.

Previous to the meeting of the council at Portsmouth, last evening, the court of revision was held. All the members of the council were present except Scally. The owner of the Moyle property claimed the assessment of $1,750 was too high and it was lowered to $1,500. The request of John Payne for a reduction of $50 on the assessment of his property was granted. The council then met for general business, and a petition was read from ratepayers, asking for the removal of the dog tax. Owing to the absence of Mr. Scally action on the petition was deferred until the next meeting of the council. The inspector for the board of health reported that the premises of residents were in a satisfactory condition as regards cleanliness. A number of accounts were passed.

May Get The Office.

WINNIPEG, June 6.—It is rumored that Hugh John Macdonald, M.P. for Winnipeg, may be appointed lieutenant-governor of Manitoba. It is a choice between Mr. Macdonald and A. W. Ross, M.P. The fact that the latter is an ex-liberal will probably leave him little chance in the race.

Thrown Out Of Court.

This morning the appeal case of Owen McGinnis against the decision of the police magistrate on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday was heard before Judge Price who decided there was no action because proper notice of the case had not been given to the inspector.

THE VICE-REGAL PARTY.

THE EARL AND COUNTESS OF DERBY IN THE CITY.

They Came in Over the Kingston & Pembroke Railway And Were Conveyed to Bishopsleigh Where They Are the Guests of the Metropolitan And Mrs. Lewis.

It is not often that Kingston is favored with a visit from the highest dignitary in the land and had Earl Derby's arrival been a couple of hours later he would, no doubt, have been welcomed by a good representation of the citizens. Nevertheless, despite the fact that the hour was 4:30 o'clock, a goodly number congregated on the platform of the Kingston & Pembroke railway station. Among them were Bishop Lewis, John Mucklestone, Isaac Simpson, John McIntyre, Q.C., Col. Cotton, Col. Smith, city treasurer Ireland, Allan Jones; Mrs. Lewis, Miss Mucklestone and others. The train was about fifteen minutes late, but the people waited patiently and felt fully repaid when the K. & P.R. special car rolled into the depot. Every eye was directed towards the coach as some had never seen the governor-general before and few had seen him as Earl of Derby, a title but lately acquired.

The countess was attired in silk and smiled as she was being conducted to the carriage by the bishop. The earl took the arm of Mrs. Lewis and the four were soon speeding out to Bishopsleigh. Capt. Walsh, aide-de-camp, followed later. A pleasant trip was made from Ottawa.

The earl leaves for Toronto to-night. From there he visits London, and before leaving for England, spends a few days fishing at Metapedia, Que., his favorite resort. With the exception of a deeper gray hue to his beard no change is perceptible in the earl. He keeps his years well as does also the countess.

A reception was tendered the vice regal pair at Bishopsleigh, last night, and was attended by many of the leading citizens. It was a time of very pleasant enjoyment. This morning the earl and countess visited the royal military college and were well received. They were much pleased with the institution.

Their excellencies the governor-general and the Countess of Derby will be present at St. George's hall this evening at eight o'clock, when Mrs. Lewis will give an account of the home in Paris which she founded as Miss Ada Leigh, and which benefits many Canadian young women. Admission on presentation of address card.

KINGSTON GENERAL HOSPITAL.

Monthly Meeting of Board of Governors—A Number of Resolves.

The board of governors met on Monday afternoon. Present, E. J. B. Pense, chairman; Principal Grant, Revs. W. B. Carey and M. Macgillivray; Drs. K. N. Fenwick and H. B. Saunders; Messrs. Smythe, Walkem, Robertson and Chown. Accounts amounting to $1,067 were passed. Over sixty patients are under care. The committee regarding Mrs. Doran's request for further allowance out of her husband's estate reported the unanimous decision of the committees of the three beneficiary institutions that they could not accede to the request. Upon application of the committee of management twenty four mattresses were ordered, and with this action the straw bed days are over in this hospital, for this completed the furnishing of mattresses. Sunday services are hereafter to be held at 9:30 a.m. by regular ordained ministers and not by voluntary laymen. Ministers of the city are requested to take these services in turn, as they do at the asylum of the insane.

It was also resolved that nurses, before being accepted for training, shall pass a satisfactory medical examination. The investment committee was authorized to dispose of the mortgage securities of the board and place the proceeds at the disposal of the chairman and secretary to pay contractors for the Doran building. On motion of Mr. Carey a committee was struck to take into consideration the multiplication of hospitals and homes giving trained nurses' certificates. It is felt that, for the protection of the public, only hospitals having 100 beds or more and having varied systems of treatment should issue such certificates; nurses trained in hospitals of a few beds are not in a position to be thoroughly qualified.

The visiting governors for the ensuing month are Rev. M. Macgillivray and R. T. Walkem, Q.C. The visitors for last month, Rev. W. B. Carey and Isaac Simpson, made thorough inspections, and several suggestions for improved table service will be at once carried out.

THE MEN DISCOVERED.

Those Who Robbed Thompson's Bottling Works Are Known.

The robbery of Thompson's bottling establishment, late on Saturday night, was a daring piece of business. There are twelve persons implicated, two of whom are adults, and the rest boys under twenty-one years of age. The men planned the robbery and the boys carried it out. In order to get into the building they had to pull a staple which held a large padlock. They carried away two kegs of bock beer. The men had a team of horses and band waggon ready and received the kegs. The party drove into the country, and on the way tapped the vessels. The boys and men soon got hilariously drunk. Bock beer, being stronger than the ordinary article, operated quickly, and when the party got to Odessa they worked into a fight.

On the way back to the city the kegs were thrown into a ditch. Officer Aiken worked up the case, discovered the thieves, and what they did after they got the beer. He and Thompson drove to Odessa yesterday expecting to find the kegs but failed. One of the men interested in the robbery, gave away the particulars this morning and the participants will be arrested.

Death Of A Venerable Lady.

Yesterday Mrs. Glassup died at her son-in-law's residence, Toronto. The remains will be brought here for interment. She was born in Kingston eighty-eight years ago, her father, Mr. Darley, owning property on part of which the piano works now stand. When she reached womanhood she was married to the late Thomas Glassup, who conducted one of the first loan associations in this city. Deceased is survived by six daughters, Mrs. J. E. Clark, Mrs. Allan Rees, Kingston; Mrs. S. Fairfield, Collins Bay; Mrs. A. Amey, Ernesttown, Mrs. (Rev.) A. Macgillivray, Toronto; Mrs. (Rev.) J. Leishman, Angus. Mrs. Glassup was a member of St. Paul's church, a true christian woman whose name, in earlier days, was identified with all objects, having the advancement and amelioration of mankind in view.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Westerly winds, fair weather, a little lower temperature.

AN ABUSE —OF— LANGUAGE.

The old saying, "Fits like a glove," is often an abuse of language. Articles are produced in this line that were never meant to fit or to wear, but to sell. The hand has to accommodate itself to the glove and not the glove to the hand. This is an exceptional state of things, but it happens too frequently. A completely equiped Glove Department where it never occurs is, also, exceptional, but it may be found. In fact, ladies of the city who are deeply skilled in shopping require no guidance in the matter; long experience has fully assured them that this valuable desideratum exists
