the original survey. A short time ago the pathmaster of the township removed the fences and carried them in some seventeen feet, whereupon Mr. Martin replaced them. The present indictment was the consequence. Mr. Walkem, Q.C., who appeared for the defendant represented to the judge that the matter was one of much interbeing awarded to the St. Mary's college est, in which the whole of the ratepayers on the line of the road in question were interested, and that it was unjust, and would lead to no satisfactory results to try the present case, when the township and power to have the boundary determined by a government surveyor under the statute, and therefore asked that the case should stand over so that this course.
