SUTHERLAND'S

"AFTER THE BALL."

A little maiden, climbed an old man's knee,
Begged for a story; do, uncle, please.
Why are you single, why live alone?
Have you no babies, have you no home?
I had a sweetheart years, years ago,
Where she is now, you will soon know.
List to the story, I'll tell it all;
I believed her faithless after the ball.

CHORUS—After the ball is over, after the break of morn,
After the dancers leaving, after the stars are gone;
Many a heart is aching, if you could read them all;
Many the hopes that have vanished after the ball.

STRENGTH OF THE CAMP.

THE MEN HAVE A WARM TIME TO TREAD STONES.

But They do Their Duty Without Complaint—The Orders of the Day—A Run Through the Camp—The Volunteers Are Fine, Sturdy Young Men.

Notwithstanding the military camp is situated nearly three miles from the city, a great many citizens visited the grounds yesterday. It was the first day, and the volunteers were given plenty of manual exercise. All in the camp, except the orderlies, were on parade and given courses in squad drill. In the wheeling and marching the infantry, while a little awkward, were not as bad as might be expected. The artillery and cavalry did fairly well for the first appearance on the camp. The guns, harness and accoutrements were in an excellent state.

In the afternoon the band of the 59th battalion gave an open air concert under the shade of some large trees. The leader is C. H. Fleck, Brockville, taking the place of the leader proper who is ill. The band is a strong, efficient organization with sixteen pieces.

The strength of the camp as reported yesterday: Officers, 63; non-commissioned officers and men, 853; horses, 157. Divided as follows:

Staff.—6 officers, 5 non-commissioned officers.

3rd regiment of cavalry, Cobourg.—19 officers, 163 non-commissioned officers and men, 145 horses.

42nd battalion, Brockville.—22 officers, 222 non-commissioned officers and men, 4 horses.

45th battalion, Bowmanville.—20 officers, 242 non-commissioned officers and men, 4 horses.

59th battalion, Cornwall.—21 officers, 226 non-commissioned officers and men, 4 horses.

The commandant, Lt.-Col. Straubenzie, D.A.G., is a great favorite. He is a thorough soldier and understands the wants of the troops. Yesterday he could not say whether Major-General Herbert would review the troops. The commandant had no orders to that effect; he intended to inspect the troops from time to time by battalions and regiments.

The campers are in a good state of health. None were reported sick yesterday. This year the rations are reported better than have been served at camps in this district heretofore.

One particular feature of the camp is that the corps are composed of sturdy young men. Very few old men have enlisted.

The orders for to-day are:

Field officer—Lieut.-Col. Cubitt, 45th batt. Next for duty, Lieut.-Col. Deacon, 45th batt. Captain of the day, Capt. Rower, 45th batt. Next for duty, Capt. Wilkins, 45th batt. Surgeon, Surgeon Turner, 3rd cavalry. Next for duty, Surgeon Boyle, 45th batt. Veterinary surgeon, Surgeon Bradley, G.F.B. Next for duty, Veterinary Surgeon Morgan. Band, 45th batt. Next for duty, 59th batt.

Commanding officers are reminded that daily parade states must be sent to the brigade office not later than 10:30 o'clock.

Returns will have to be made at once of the creeds of the men in camp, whether they are Episcopalians, Roman Catholics, Methodists or Presbyterians. Infantry corps will parade with arms from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Rifles to be piled for one hour and sentries of companies placed over them.

The water supplied in barrels must be used for drinking and washing and cooking purposes for officers and men, and must not be used for watering horses.

Staff-Sergt Newnham, the brigade clerk, is the hardest worked man in camp, but he carries on his duties in a cheerful way and is a great hustler. He seldom gets annoyed because the work comes faster than he can attend to it. All the staff officers have plenty to do.

The third regiment of cavalry, Prince of Wales Dragoons, is composed of a fine body of daring young men. The commandant is Lieut.-Col. Boulton, assisted by Col. Rogers, who has just recovered from a severe illness. Col. Boulton is the senior officer of the dominion. He was captain of a company in a regiment raised by Col. Kingsmill, in 1837, and served three years during the Mackenzie rebellion defending the frontier from the attacks of rebels.

When evening comes the men who are not for duty are given passes until ten o'clock. There is no guard at the bridge, but they are intercepted at the front of the grounds, and made to show proof that they have been absent in accordance with the discipline of the camp.

Armor sergeant Worth is located in the artillery department and his duty is to repair the guns when they get out of order.

While getting his horse out of the drill shed at Peterboro Lieut. Loucks was kicked on the groin and received injuries which caused the physician to order him to go to bed for three days. He did not give in to his feelings and is still in active service.

The camp is supplied with meat by Messrs. Reid and Walsh. Over 1,200 lbs. are consumed daily.

There is no water for the horses and they have to be driven to the lake, a distance of about a mile. They are thirsty when they get back to camp. Water for cooking, drinking and washing is brought in tanks from the lake, but two tanks are not sufficient to supply the demand.

The marquees provided by the young men's christian association are proving a great convenience to the soldiers and are presided over by F. Hassold, a courteous gentleman, and very popular with the patrons. There is a reading room filled with choice literature; correspondence room, where letters are written to friends at home, and a refreshment booth.

Those who will take part in the meetings at the camp grounds under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. are: Revs. J. Boyd, Dr. Griffith, D. Laing, J. R. Black, C. O. Johnston; Messrs. F. Hassold, A. H. Howell, Dr. Isaac Woods, George Mills, A. Shaw and Dr. Anglin.

The company in the 42nd batt., from Carleton Place, is made up of smart soldierly fellows. B. Rosamond, M.P., gave Capt. Williams $10 to give the lads a time. The company has a baby bugler, he is not nine years old and only thirty-six inches high.

Another Trial Will Occur.

The case of the Queen vs. Dandy, for robbery, has been before the courts for over a year and this was the third trial. The result was the same as that of last court, no verdict owing to a disagreement of the jury. The evidence presented was much the same as given in the last court. The refusal of the judge to allow the late Martin Staley's deposition to be entered as evidence on account of irregularities making it non-conformable to statute materially weakened the case for the crown. The jury was out for two hours and could not agree, two of them remarking that they would not consent to an agreement if they stayed out six months. The judge expressed his regrets at their inability to reach a decision, thanked them for their attendance and sent them home. The failure to reach a decision will involve another trial.

Dr. Albert G. Allen Not Dead.

Dr. Pyne, at the medical association, Toronto, reported that Albert G. Allen was a Kingston doctor in good standing, whose name was formerly on the rolls, but erased because he was reported to be dead. His name will go on the rolls again.

The Body Arrives.

The body of John Campbell Clow, killed in Chicago by falling off a roof, arrived in the city this morning and was removed to Sunbury for burial.

At first the unfortunate fellow was said to be John Campbell. The authorities were merely mistaken in not getting hold of all the name.

He Was Intoxicated.

A drunken, soldier tried to raise a racket on Princess street about 10:30 o'clock last night. A guard had been sent from the camp to look for him and upon coming up with the fellow he showed fight. He ran into Dillon's boot store, grabbed a stool and encircled the air with it before he was taken.

Good News For Invalids.

Almoxia Wine gives tone to the system and protects the organization against debilitation; is the surest element to enrich the blood, and the base of a nutritious agent and above all is the restorer of health. Sold by all druggists. Gianelli & Co., 16 King street west, Toronto, sole agents for Canada.

Not To Be Fooled With.

A drunken Indian went into the electric light works the other night and when ordered from the place, pulled an ugly looking knife out of his pocket and said he would stick the first man who attempted to order him about. No one interfered with Red Eye again, and getting tired soon he went away of his own accord.

A Horse Broke A Leg.

Last evening while being ridden on Princess street a valuable horse owned by M. Welsh, butcher, slipped and broke a leg near the hoof. The animal had to be shot afterwards. It was purchased six years ago from Mr. Coyle, who was then in the grocery business. The horse had considerable speed and won several races on the Cataraqui driving park. It was valued at $100.

Wonder Where He Is?

Rev. C. O. Johnston, in noting the time spent in visiting, told his congregation, last night, that he was often delayed by other engagements. He gave an instance: "I was waiting all this afternoon for a young man who had arranged to be married, but he has not turned up yet. If you see any young fellow wandering around looking for the parsonage direct him to it. We can all sympathize with him in his dilemma."

Back For The Summer.

Mr. Clark and wife, Springfield, N.J., arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. They will take possession of their island on the river St. Lawrence in a few days. Rev. Mr. Gezner, who lived with them for many years, is unable to come this season. He is in the Adirondacks taking care of a sick son. During the past winter Mr. Clark and wife spent some time in the West Indies. More snow fell in Springfield last winter than was ever known to fall before.

The Major's Presence of Mind.

Tuesday evening, while Major Mayne and bride were driving on Ontario street, the horse became frightened at the soldiers who were getting off the train in front of the barracks. The animal shied and canted the buggy on one side. The major and wife took advantage of this and stepped out. He kept control of the horse, and on getting a chance got into the buggy again. After the animal had run a short distance he was got under control.

Married Last Night.

Last evening a marriage took place at the residence of W. McNamee, William street, between his daughter, Aggie, and R. Coffee, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. R. Black, and witnessed by a large number of friends, after which all partook of a sumptuous repast. The bride was handsomely attired and was assisted by Miss A. Quail, Inverary, while T. Sherman did similar duty for the groom. The presents were numerous and costly. They will take up their residence in the west end.

Read The "Whig" And Prospered.

James Mulvin, of Westport, has been in the city for several days. He is a great admirer of the weekly BRITISH WHIG saying it is the best paper that comes into the district. He has been a subscriber for thirty years and members of his family are subscribers. Mr. Mulvin is a well-to-do farmer. He started with very little capital but is now on the high road to fortune. He owns four farms of 700 acres stocked with the best cattle in the section. He raised a family of thirteen children all living but one. Five are married and doing well.

The Orphans' Home.

There are sixty little children in the orphans' home at present, twenty-seven of whom are girls. Within the past two months twenty have come in, and the latest arrivals are two little children from Gananoque to-day. There were over seventy children in the institution all winter, the largest number at one time being seventy-three. The children began their examinations this week. The matron and superintendent, two most obliging and courteous officials, cannot but be loved by the children. Yesterday afternoon they were showing the children new games in the yard.

They Come Highly Recommended.

F. S. Rockwell and Miss Annie Louise Tirrell will draw a large house at their dramatic and musical recital, city hall, June 19th. Read the following: "Highly grateful were those who had the pleasure of listening to the talented young reader and artist, Miss Annie Louise Tirrell. We predict a brilliant future for the young lady, and wish her every success the coming season, and trust her reception will be highly deserving, and a most cordial one."—Cape Cod Item. At Paxon hall, on Friday evening, Mr. Rockwell filled the title roll in "A Woman Hater" most admirably.—Weymouth "Gazette."

There was not as large a crowd as the occasion warranted at the athletic association grounds yesterday afternoon. The Athletic and Park Nine baseball teams are pretty well matched apparently, and the playing was good.

Dr. Philip moved that a committee be appointed to enquire into the advisability of taking charge of the examination and granting of certificates to graduating nurses of hospitals. This was agreed to.

The Attack Not Fair.

Mr. Donnelly, J.P., Harrowsmith, was in the city to-day. He says that he is not deserving of the criticism heaped on him by John McIntyre, at the county court, on Tuesday. He does not consider Mr. McIntyre's attack very commendable as he (Mr. Donnelly) was not present to defend himself.

Will Come Down.

The county property committee have had Dr. Spankie look through the turnkey's quarters in the basement of the jailer's residence and have now agreed to write inspector Chamberlain and ask him to meet the committee in Kingston on a certain date to talk over the matter.

OPPOSED TO THE GRANT.

SYDENHAM HIGH SCHOOL SAID TO BE TOO EXPENSIVE.

The Midland Fair Association Given a Grant—No Special Allowances Made For Township Shows—The Sydenham High School Grant Again Up.

The council met at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Robert Dunlop and A. Shaw were present to ask for a grant for the Midland Central fair. Mr. Dunlop stated that about $700 had been collected from the merchants of the city. Mr. Shaw said the fair last year was held too early in the season. At the time the dates were chosen for this year, the latter part of September, it was not known that the dates would conflict with other dates. When Montreal and Ottawa exhibitions were over the Midland association hoped to be able to secure additional attractions. There would be no side shows, etc., this year.

Mr. Hogan moved, seconded by Mr. Whitney, that the Midland fair be granted $300.

Mr. Rankin spoke for the grant and Mr. Hogan said it was quite essential that farmers should get together once a year and ascertain what advancement had been made. He thought the fair this year would be a great success.

Mr. Pringle thought it would be a disgrace to the county of Frontenac not to have a show.

The motion carried by a show of hands. Mr. Trousdale asked for yeas and nays. The vote stood:

Year—Campbell, Corkell, Coxe, Davis, Donaldson, Foley, Gibson, Hogan, Knight, Knapp, Munro, Pringle, Rankin, Spoor, Tomer, Whitney—16.

Nays—Bertrim, Trousdale, Taggart, Truscott—4.

Moved by Mr. Avery, seconded by Mr. Munro, that the council grant $50 to each of the townships, viz: Barrie, Bedford, Clarendon and Miller, Hinchinbrooke, Kennebec, Olden, Oso, Palmerston, Howe Island.

It was moved by Mr. Corkill, seconded by Mr. Toner, in amendment, that no special grants be made to the roads.

On yeas and nays being taken the amendment carried, 12 to 9.

Moved by Mr. Bertrim, seconded by Mr. Truscott, that the Addington county fair be granted $100. The motion was lost.

Moved by Mr. Corkill, seconded by Mr. Rankin, that a grant of $25 be made to the farmers' institute of the county of Frontenac. Carried.

It was moved by Mr. Spoor, seconded by Mr. Rankin, that the council ask the various county councils throughout Ontario to co-operate and memoralize the government to pass an act empowering the county councils to appoint all officers that are paid by the county.—Carried unanimously.

Mr. Avery gave notice of a by-law for the granting of $50 each to the back townships for roads.

Mr. Bertrim will introduce a by-law to grant the Harrowsmith fair $100.

Mr. Rankin gave notice of a by-law to give the Kingston street railway company power to erect the line to Cataraqui under the supervision of the committee on county property.

Ernest E. Hunter, son of Alfred Hunter, Portland, applied for admission into the Ontario agricultural college on Oct. 1st, 1893. He will be received.

It was moved by Mr. Avery, seconded by Mr. Munro, that the warden and Mr. Rankin be a deputation to wait on the board of the house of industry on the second Monday in October to arrange for rates for the poor of the county.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Corkell, seconded by Mr. Trousdale, that an additional grant of $800 be made the Sydenham high school.

Mr. Corkell said the application last year had been for $2,800, the council had granted $2,000. Mr. Lacey, chairman of the high school, wrote that a grant of any less sum would be no use. The $800 was needed.

Mr. Pringle wanted to know how many farmers in the county sent children to the school?

Mr. Corkell stated that the school either had to be supported as a county school or else be shut down.

It was moved by Mr. Spoor, seconded by Mr. Pringle, that the pupils of Sydenham high school be taxed $1 a month.

Mr. Donaldson asked if the county council had the power to tax the pupils or was this in the jurisdiction of the trustees? He thought the school was becoming a burden on the county.

Mr. Knapp said that if $1 a month was charged the pupils the school might as well be closed up. The school had done a good work but it was too expensive. The teachers were paid too high salaries.

Mr. Campbell said $1 a month was too much; 50c would be enough. He argued that the farmers who were able to send their children to the school should be made pay for it. Poor people who could not send a child there had to contribute to the cost of education of some other person's child.

Mr. Avery spoke against the tax, and Mr. Corkill said the county of Frontenac had very few wealthy farmers in it.

Mr. Pringle said there were few pupils from the back townships who attended the Sydenham high school. Those who could afford to attend a high school came to Kingston.

The warden said the common schools were being neglected.

Mr. Hogan claimed the Sydenham high school was only a benefit to a very small portion of the county.

Mr. Foley, Howe Island, stated that he had sent children to the Sydenham high school and had to take them away and send them to the Kingston collegiate institute.

Mr. Hogan would favor giving $300 of a grant.

Mr. Donaldson moved a resolution that the committee appointed to examine the auditors' report also examine the report of the trustees of Sydenham high school, and that the matter be laid over for the present, the committee to report at the present session. Carried.

The committee on equalization, after examining the last revised assessment rolls, thus equalized the valuation of the respective municipalities:

Barrie, $20,624; Bedford, $280,814; Clarendon and Miller, $57,400; Garden Island, $25,000; Howe Island, $101,022; Hinchinbrook, $211,225; Kingston, $1,409,145; Kennebec, $57,072; Loboro, $518,367; Oso, $100,277; Olden, $135,594; Palmerston, North and South Canonto, $25,258; Pittsburg, $1,024,866; Portland, $732,082; Portsmouth, $115,000; Storrington, $798,845; Wolfe Island, $237,400.
