

MEDICAL.

A Female Jekyll and Hyde.

BY NANCY NUGENT.

"Good then, I will go as a simple student..." "You will not be a belle tonight, Mr. Graydon, if you go as a simple student."

"I am going home," said Graydon. "I am going home to rest this afternoon, I shall be fresh this evening."

"You are always that, my boy, you are always that. You don't need to take a rest to make you fresh, but go on and have your rest."

"I would go and rest but Nurse has ordered half a pint of milk and she will not let me go without it."

"I do not know whether I love you or not. I am a sad trouble to myself, I have no one to listen to my queer notions."

"I often think of you and when you came to-day I had just made up my mind to write you a long letter."

"I have never had a trouble come to me but on the first of July, I was laid up with a complaint."

"I have never had a trouble come to me but on the first of July, I was laid up with a complaint."
