The Sabbath School Picnic was a choice affair. The wrecks at a baseball game.

ODessa, Aug. 15.—Thursday last, was the occasion of the Methodist Sabbath school picnic. A great many had been eagerly looking forward to the event and when the morning broke, the weather was going to say, but doesn't least of all, the weather was a good fair scattering of the parents, could be seen on their way to the church where a start was to be made. Five loads of young and old were filled in quick order, besides a large number from the church and village, who were in single file. The objective point was Nicholas' Point, a beautiful spot on the bay shore about two miles and half east of Millhaven. There must have been nearly 200 present to enjoy the day's outing. The youngsters enjoyed themselves playing on the grass and the older boys soon occupied a small gulf in a field close by. Swings were put up and a hammock hung, which were kept pretty busy during the day, the older ones being for the most part content to sit aside and watch the enjoyment of the party. The party grew more numerous as the day went on, the little ones all being served first. The energetic superintendent, P. A. Mabie, assisted by the pastor and others, spared no effort to make the day pleasant for all. Home was reached shortly after six o'clock, the children after a long and somewhat fatiguing day. The blinds of the Sunday school is due Mr. Nicholson who so kindly placed his grave at the disposal of the picnickers.
