Kingston, by the Rev. W. B. Carey.

The wedding was a very quiet one, the only ones present being Miss Lillie and bride. Miss Jones was one of our most popular young ladies and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends here. For the last couple of years most of her time has been spent in Toronto, where she now will take up her residence permanently. We congratulate Mr. Wollard on his choice and wish the couple years of unalloyed enjoyment.

Miss Mills, the teacher of the third department of the public school, has been very ill for the last week and unable to fulfil her duties. She is now considera-to resume work. Her place at school has been acceptably filled by Miss Sidanna four miles northwest of the village, Mrs.

Isaac Clark, an old respected resident of
