Mr. Barker, a farmer of Long Island, spoke in the same line, arguing that protection to the horticultural interests of this section was necessary.

Lives Lost in Forest Fires. ASHLAND, Wis, Sept. 19,-Since Sunday morning the country has been enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke and very disastrous forest fires are flercely raging. South and east of the city are hundreds of isolated homesteaders, and many of them have burned out. It is reported, but not verified, that one family left their clearing and started for the city with a yoke of oxen but were overtaken by the flames and suffocated. In the outside districts others may have perished. Rain Checked Its Progress. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 19.—Despatches from places in Wood, Marathon and Lincoln counties, where the fires were doing so much damage last week, say a heavy rain has fallen and the destruction by fire is checked for the present.
