LET QUAMODORE GO FREE. DID NOT KNOW THE IMPORTANCE OF THE AFFIDAVIT.

The Father of the Bride was Satisfied That the Young Man Should be Given His Liberty-A Mean Way to Get Married-What the Youth Had to Say, This morning Benjamin Quamodore colored, of Sharbot Lake, was tried a false affidavit, for the purpose of produring a marriage license to marry Margaret Jane Holliwood. The prisoner was charged with having sworn that he had the consent of the parents of the bride to the marriage, which was denied. J. L. Whiting, Q.C., charged the prisoner with perjury and he pleaded 'not guilty." Jesse Shibley, J.P., who issued the license testified that Quamodore swore to an affidavit, stating that the girl was sixteen years of age, and that the consent of her parents was secured. T. Holliwood, father of the bride, said
