that was overwhelming, they declined the proffered honor. Dr. Smythe accepted it, and so loads himself with responsibility and anxiety and distress, and in turn loads up his party. There WM. NEWLANDS, ARCHITECT AND is no one in the conservative ring who really believes for a moment that Dr. Smythe can best Mr. Harty in the event of that gentleman consenting to appear to the people for re-election, but it would never do to let the election go by default. Dr. Smythe has been a fairly active citizen and has aspired to public life, but he has not been as fortunate as some others in some of his public acts and addresses. These may not be forgotten in the general resurrection of events which Mr. Metcalfe promised. LIBERTY OF SPEECH.

Valuing liberty of action, as the press of Ontario does, it has reason to protest against the seeming outrage which the supreme court of New Brunswick has lent itself to in committing John V. Ellis, of St. John, to prison for thirty days, and sent to mil. fining him $200 and costs for an alleged contempt of court.

The offence, or what passes for an offence, occurred six years ago, and grew out of the general election. In 1887 a majority of the electors of Queen's county, N.B., voted for George G. King, but the returning officer awarded the seat to the minority candidate, George F. Baird.
