Thirty Miles Overtaken and Killed

Like Sheep -- The Story Denied by the Company

Lospos, Oct. 26.-An interview with a Matabele raid at Fort Victoria and alleged atrocities committed by the British, was recently published in the Pretoria Press. Davis declared that the yarns about Mashonas being assagated in the streets were unfounded. The Impi, he said, never entered the town, but Dr. Jameson summoned the Matabele head men, who were deferential, while Dr. Jameson brusquely gave them an hour in which to cross the Matabele border, 30 miles distant.

Davis thus described the pursuit : We overtook the Impi seven miles from Victoria. They were going at a jog trot. Many were unmounted. Dr. Jameson immediately ordered us to fire. Our men were mad and shot down the Matabeles like rabbits, shooting indiscriminately at the dead, the dving and wounded. Twenty five of the Matabeles were killed. Each body contained enough builets to kill a

The Matabeles never turned when we opened fire on them. Only one, an old man, fired a return shot, and he was immediately brained. Another Matabele was brained with a gun stock, which was smashed by the blow. It was sickening work, yet on returning to Fort Victoria we were cheered as though we had won a second Waterloo. The chartered company's officials in Capetown refer to Davis, statements as the calumnious charges of a disappointed colonist. Sir Henry Loch, the governor and commander-in-chief is investigating the story. He is also inquiring into the recent arrest at Tati of the three leaders of a small party of Matabeles who had entered the town. One of the leaders was Lobengula's brother Gubogubo, who says he was entrusted with a mission to Dr. Jameson.

Interference Absurd. Caperown, Oct. 25, -Despite the official denial made in London yesterday that Sir Henry Lock, Governor of Cape Colony, had been entrusted with sole charge of the operations against the Marabeles, interest ed circles here and in Joannesburg believe that instructions to that effect have been sent to Sic Henry by the Home Government. British interests in the Pacific by securing the first link in the Pacific cable. The Loudon Times yesterday urged the political importance of a cable wholly con. trolled by the British Government con-

The Canadian Gazette yesterday had an editorial on the subject with the caption "Outwitted by Our Rivals." It says the same fully is being committed in the West Indies, where the lacking of the Imperial support for the extension of the Halifax and Bermuda cable causes French aid to be sought for extension in a French cable from flermuda to San Domingo,

Two Years of Searching.

New York, Oct. 25,-Mrs. Jennie Beerman has for forty-two years looked under her bed every night for a burglar. Last Saturday she found him. Mrs. Beerman is the wife of Isaac Beerman who keeps a butcher shop on Second avenue. The family occupy a flat on the third floor of the same building. Saturday night a rush of business kept the husband late in his shop. Mrs. Beerman went out with her nine-year-old daughter to visit some friends. They returned at eight o'clock. Beerman was still at work. The woman and child proceeded upstairs to the flat. The gas was lighted in the dining-room and everything appeared as usual. † The pair waited awhile for the father, but Beerman did not come and the child fell asleep. Then visions of burglars fitted through Mrs. Beerman's brain. The nervous little woman determined to search the rooms. She armed herself dered Rear-Admiral Stanton to turn over with a rolling pin. He said she suffered from heart disease. Accused said he was in the baggage car when the woman complained of weakness and soon after fainted and died. He consequently made out a certificate to the effect that the woman whose name, he had been told, was Georgina Malo, had died on board the train from causes unknown, probably heart disease. When Hooper visited witness' house the second time he said: "You know it's my wife." He then showed me certificate, that it would not be sufficient to do away with the necessity of holding an inquest. Witness said that he presumed at the time that the accused was loth to say that the deceased was his wife | ing to $662, won the silver cup, valued because she was insane.

Joseph Beansoleil, undertaker, of Terrebonne, testified as to the facts which attended the pouring of alcohol into deceased's mouth. It was in the morning, shortly before the train going west was due. Hooper asked whether the body could be embalmed. Witness replied that he could not do that. Accused then asked if anything could be done to preserve the body. Wirness said that this might be done by pouring alcohol into the mouth, to which Hooper agreed and got half a pint of high wines and poured it into lasting from November 14th to Decemdeceased's mouth. Witness and his brother went to the door and asked who was knocking. The voice outside replied: "It is little Georgina." They then opened the door and admitted her. She was dripping wet. She said that a dark complexioned man had thrown her into the river and she saved herself from drowning by being caught by some branches. She was very much excited and was put to bed and towards daylight she became very furious. A telegraph operator, named Gustave Doucet, who was at Louisville, told her that a day before he had seen a man who said he was looking for a crasy woman. The stranger did not give Doucet his name.

The defence objected to any evidence being adduced as to the conversation witness had with Doucet, but the magistrate allowed witness to proceed. Continuing, witness said that on the following morning Mr. Desaultiers took the | of Patrons of Industry for Leeds was orwomen to the mayor of Louiseville, but | ganized by C. A.
