Composed by Miss Maisie Hanley on the death of Rosie McKenzie, died June

And everything in nature smiled, When down the mighty angel came And took from us our darling child. We knew the time was drawing near When we must forever part. Our Rosie, who was soon to go And live within her Savious's beart. For six long years ahe suffered,

And nothing sould be done To relieve her, till her Saviour said, "My child, your time has come." A child who had not spoken, Nor walked for this length of time. Was then to walk with too angels And speak of God's lovediving.

Our Rosie now has left us And gone to another land, Gone but a while before us. To join the angel's band. fier place in beaven was vacant And waiting for her to come,

When God would sound the trumpet Then the angels would welcome her home. She is gone, but not forgotten. To those bright realms above, Far beyond the clouds where reigneth Nothing but peace and love.

n the graveyard we have laid her, Where the sun shines bright and clear; The spot we cherish fendly. For there lies our Rosie dear Successful Revival.

INDURATED FIBRE WARE imparts no taste or smell to its contents, and is the lightest, tightest, sweetest and most durable ware ever made.
