ST. JACOBS OIL. TRADE MARK. THE GREAT REMEDY FOR PAIN.

NEURALGIA.

Every one of the thousand fiber nerves has a latent power to inflict excruciating pain, the limit of which is simply the limit of human endurance. Neuralgia is a pain in those nerves, [illegible] torments, all pulling at once, from which St. Jacobs Oil [illegible]

EVERY APPLICATION GIVES RELIEF.

Characteristics. Nothing is susceptible [illegible] as acute and distressing, and, [illegible] yet discovered so completely soluble to ravages and so permanently conquers its pangs as St. Jacobs Oil, the

EVERY BOTTLE CONTAINS A CURE.

Symptoms. Neuralgia is defined to be a nerve disease, the chief symptom of which is an acute pain, intermitting, which follows the course of the nerve branch affected, and St. Jacobs Oil cures.

PROMPTLY—PERFECTLY, PERMANENTLY.

How To Use It. Apply St. Jacobs Oil frequently, gently rubbing the afflicted parts; apply to the whole course of the nerve; keep up a gentle friction until a burning sensation is produced. Once cured, always cured.

THERE IS NO RETURN OF PAIN.

Ashley and Ryder will likely form a partnership to run a feed mill in the city.—Mumps and diphtheria abide with a few.—Rev. Mr. England occupied the pulpit Sunday.—The school has opened with B. B. Bridge as teacher. A good start has been made.—It is good weather for the woods. Those who have wood cut are busy drawing it to the brick yards.

HOWE ISLAND.

Jan. 11.—Our popular teacher, Miss Mary A. Cox, having resigned, her position has being taken by Miss Maggie Cassidy, belonging to this place. Our other school teacher, Miss Mary McAllister, for the last two years has proved herself so satisfactory that she has been re-engaged.—Miss Fannie Lavis spent her New Year's with her friends here.—J. Shughrue has left for Chicago again.—A pleasant evening was spent at Mrs. Wilson's, the light fantastic was tripped until quite a late hour. Another surprise party was held at S. Lavis'.

COLEBROOK.

Jan. 12.—T. O'Connor had a sheep worried by dogs. We need the dog tax here. This is not the first time that sheep have been attacked by dogs.—Miss Bean is convalescent.—Mr. Wilson preached in the C. M. church last Sabbath, Rev. Mr. Tomblin is not able to be around yet.—Visitors: Will Warner and wife, Trenton; Fred Miller, his mother and Miss Burley, Bath; and Stewart Garrison and sister Emma, Morven at A. C. Warner's and F. S. Wartman's.

BALLANTYNE'S STATION.

Jan. 13.—The young people took advantage of the sleighing Sunday evening.—J. McGee, Regina, is on a visit to his parents. Miss Nellie Free has also returned from Peterboro.—The widow Forsythe's bee drawing wood, was largely attended.—G. McGee is seriously ill. Dr. Saunders, Kingston, is attending him.—Miss Hammond has returned to Sarnia.—W. Free has gone to Chicago to wait on his brother Samuel, dangerously ill with typhoid fever.

DUFFERIN.

Jan. 14.—M. Tighe's blacksmith shop was burned to the ground, the loss was considerable. A new one is being erected on the same site.—J. Lawless's richest holiday gift is a live doll.—The comfortable quarters just completed in the rear of Wesley church, will no doubt make the horses feel more piously inclined.—A gay party of young Kingstonians visited Jas. English's, Tuesday night; such a visit is quite a ripple in our country life.—Robert McLean and family have removed to the city.—James Tobin a former resident is visiting his sister Mrs. Redmond.

RAILTON.

Jan. 13.—E. O'Reilly after spending his Christmas holidays at home, has returned to Ottawa university.—Our school trustees have engaged Miss M. McOwel for S. S. No. 2.—F. Ackroyd has been engaged as teacher of Head of the Lake school.—The surprise party at P. Ryan's on Friday night was well attended by young folks.—The hay pressers are at work in this vicinity. The hay is being shipped from Glenvale Station.—The funeral of P. Ryan took place on Sunday. Deceased was a resident of Yarker and was much respected by all who knew him.—Visitors:—L. Burns, Tamworth; Miss A. McManus, Kingston.

BARRIE.

Jan. 12.—Business is improving since the snow came last Saturday.—About fifty teams passed through here on Saturday for the lumber shanties, and numbers are passing through every day since the snow came.—Assistant post office inspector, from Kingston, was here on Friday last on important business.—Miners have arrived after their holidays for the purpose of opening up the Meyers silver cave, recently located. Numbers of persons have visited the cave of late.—Mr. Pipe, formerly of this place, is here on a visit.—The parties who left here last fall, bound for Kansas, it is said have arrived there safe, having travelled by road with team that distance.

PERTH ROAD.

Jan. 11.—Mr. Sears has returned home.—One year ago last Saturday night the I.O.G.T. lodge was organized. It is now in good condition for running another year.—W. Raymond, jr., met with a severe accident, last Thursday, while working in Lake Opinicon mines. He was working with a pump when his right hand became caught, cutting every finger completely off.—School has opened with Miss Nichols, Lake Opinicon, as teacher.—L. Corbett had a bee last Wednesday. The young folks had a party Thursday night.—The funeral sermon of the late Wm. Buttermore was preached on Sunday by Rev. Mr. Sproule, Inverary.—Rev. S. Snowden is on the sick list.

MOUNTAIN GROVE.

Jan. 11.—John Godfrey, quite ill for a few days, is recovering. Several are suffering from severe colds.—Mrs. James Sanderson is home again. While absent she attended the marriage of her brother, A. D. Allen, to Miss A. Clare, of Moira.—Maggie Coulter has returned to Sydenham to attend high school.—The teachers are settling down to duty. Miss Orser, Kingston, is teaching No. 6, Olden. R. Martin, Florida, arrived on Saturday to teach the Union school.—Miss F. Sanderson is visiting friends in Napanee and Marlbank, and Miss Ryan supplies her place as infant class teacher in the Sunday school during her absence.—The young folks are determined to keep the sleigh bells jingling.

MORVEN.

Jan. 12.—A great many people are suffering from grippe.—Revival services will commence in the White church next Sunday evening.—Mrs. J. Gordanier has returned from Napanee, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Bell.—Bert Smith has returned to Toronto to resume his studies.—F. Kayler received the sad intelligence of the death of his son, Thomas Kayler, Pullman, Washington. The deceased leaves a wife and two children.—Visitors: Walter Thrasher, Yarker; F. Hill, Belleville; Mrs. Ferguson and daughter, Ella, Philadelphia.—Mrs. S. W. Perry is still in a critical condition.—J. Perry has returned to Philadelphia.—The Sabbath school has been reorganized. Mr. Davey resumes his position as superintendent.—Amos Robinson, Ernest, Dakota, is the guest of his father, J. Robinson.—B. B. Vanslyke having resigned his position as secretary-treasurer of the Brick church, the trustee board, on the last night of the old year, elected Nelson Irish and John Webster to fill the vacancy, the former as treasurer and the latter as secretary.

MABERLY.

Jan. 11.—The village has been quiet for the last few weeks.—Our blacksmith is kept busy. [illegible] complain of dull times but [illegible] of short nights.—Messrs. Bowes & Bissonette, Kingston, have purchased the store now occupied by John Manders and intends putting in a stock.—Dr. Parsons is doing a good business here.—A wedding party came here last week the parties being John Sargent and Miss Donald, both of North Sherbrooke.—George Hughes and family are about to move to Toronto.—David Morrow is back from Perth and is going to live in the house lately occupied by George Hughes.—Mrs. R. Popplewell is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. J. Monroe.—Our cottage prayer meetings are well attended by both old and young.

LYNDHURST.

Jan. 12.—The weather is soft and sleighing getting thin, but the farmers are improving the time hauling logs to James Roddick's steam mill.—Mrs. Green, wife of the late Henry Green, has been appointed postmistress.—Grippe is visiting our village; mumps, also, have made their appearance among the little ones.—Joe Wetherell has left for New York city. His many friends wish him every success. Ransom Percival, who intended accompanying him, does not go till Monday next, as the school he is to attend does not open until the 18th.—Mrs. R. C. Struthers, spending the holidays with her parents, is about to return to her home in Gananoque.—Mrs. Alvin Wiltse is on the mend.

PETWORTH.

Jan. 12.—The election times are past and every one is again settled down to individual interests and the winners and losers are seldom referred to.—All are rejoiced over the fall of snow we have at last got. The roads are in a splendid condition for business.—Miss Maggie Black has recovered from her attack of the mumps, and no more cases have yet appeared.—Thomas Carr and Samson Hogle left this morning to attend Sydenham high school.—The friends of the Rev. Mr. Tomblin, Yarker, in this part of his circuit, regret his illness, and wish him a speedy recovery.—Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Martin, of Ernesttown, at Mrs. Youmans's; Mr. and Mrs. Wales, Napanee, at W. Clarke's; Miss Phoebe Garrison at her father's, Elias Garrison.

HARLOWE.

Jan. 8.—Our little village is still growing. We have two stores, post office and a blacksmith shop, and strong talk of a carriage shop and cheese factory.—Our school has been efficiently carried on for six months by Miss M. F. Daly, of Glenburnie; we regret she could not be re-engaged.—The Christmas tree and Sunday school entertainment on Christmas eve was a grand success, realizing over thirty six dollars; proceeds in aid of repairs on church. The pastor, Mr. Butler, filled the chair and the best of order prevailed.—Visitors: Mrs. M. Hawley, of Hay Bay, at her son's, L. Hawley; Mr. Perry, at his sister's, Mrs. Jerome Bott; Mr. Bonard, of Michigan, at his father-in-law's, Mr. Connors.—Miss Fryen, of Arden, is visiting in this vicinity.

PARHAM.

Jan. 7.—After an absence of a month your correspondent resumes his pen.—The sleighing about Parham tantalizes the farmers very much.—Christmas day was very dull here and so was New Year's day. A quiet service was held in St. James' church on the morning of the former day. On New Year's eve a watch night service was held in the Methodist church. A cottage meeting was also held at Mrs. Howe's on New Year's eve.—The people are anxious to know if their genial friend, James Shields, is going to stay in Parham.—Tom Howes, suffering for two weeks from a cut in his foot, is mending now.—Joseph Goodfellow came home from the West last Thursday. He went to Kingston to attend lectures at Queen's.—Rev. Mr. Squires had a New Year's call from his brother of Ottawa.—Miss Mary Godfrey, of Bedford junction, is staying with Mrs. Geo. Howes.

WESTPORT.

Jan. 12.—Thomas Hoban died on the 6th, aged eighty five years. He was an old resident and highly respected. His funeral, on the 8th, was largely attended.—Larry Provost is ill with grippe.—Alex Boice is seriously ill; Mrs. A. Barnes, Mrs. J. P. Ryan and Mrs. Ted Warren are ill.—The convent school opened last week with a large attendance. Miss Doyle is teacher of the male department.—Hugh Hogan, jr., and Miss Agnes Bennett were married on the 13th.—It is reported that a new town hall will be built here next summer.—Mrs. James Porter, sr., died on the 11th, aged eighty-five years. She was ill only two days. She was an old resident, a good neighbor and a charitable woman. Her funeral to the Westport vault was largely attended.—Rose and Maggie McCann, visiting in Ottawa for some time, returned home on the 11th.—Mrs. Patrick McCann is ill.

LAVANT.

Jan. 12.—Teams are going daily to Messrs. Mackey and McLean's shanties.—G. W. Dawson got a large supply of freight from the station here.—W. Mackey received a car-load of sloops last week for his shanty at Grindstone Lake.—Our blacksmith has resumed work after a week's absence.—Our sick ones are recovering rapidly.—Card Bros. are busy hauling lumber and shingles from their mill at Plevna to the K. & P. siding at Lavant.—The shooting match and ball on New Year's day and night, held at the Iron City house, was a grand success.—Joseph Armstrong, of Cochrane & Cassels boot and shoe firm, Montreal, paid us a flying visit this week, also E. H. Haskins, of the Singer Manufacturing Co., Kingston.—L. H. Burnham and family left for Britt, Iowa, last week, to take up their home there.

SEELEY'S BAY.

Jan. 12.—The tea-meeting held in the Methodist church was a decided success, eighty-eight dollars and fifty cents was taken in at the door, and $150, in subscriptions. The proceeds were in aid of the parsonage fund. The ladies of this vicinity keep up their reputation in furnishing good things.—Mrs. J. Moore, Ompah, has returned home after paying her friends a flying visit.—Miss Ann Eliza Tait has returned after an absence of several months.—Samuel Jamieson and wife, New York state, are visiting friends here.—Mrs. Rev. G. S. Reynolds was presented with a purse containing twenty-five dollars from her friends of Seeley's Bay, and Olivet at the tea-meeting.—Alva Chapman is getting the saw-mill ready for a good season's trade.—Saw logs are beginning to come in.—Miss Minnie Chapman, starts to-day, for Havelock, to visit her brothers Jefferson and Edward Chapman.

HARTINGTON.

Jan. 12.—The pulpit here was very acceptably filled by Rev. Mr. Orser, on Sabbath, in the absence of the pastor Rev. J. S. Lidstone.—A great number of the people here attended the re-opening services at Verona on Sabbath. They report the church as being very neat and comfortable and a credit to the village. The sermons by Dr. Griffith were very helpful and eloquent. The young people are practising for a temperance entertainment to be given at Colebrook.—S. Brown was off to the east on a trip last week.—Our sick folks are getting better.—W. Patterson has made an improvement in the post-office.—Quite a load of the Camden East young people visited this division of S. of T. on Friday evening and two members from Verona.—Miss F. Purdy, Kingston, paid us a flying visit last week.—J. Taylor has purchased the farm owned by J. Bell, Glenvale, and intends to remove from our midst some time during the year. We regret very much the talked of move.

HARLEM.

Jan. 8.—Winter has set in good and strong. Well, we cannot have five months sleighing this winter in this section sure.—Rufus [illegible] Stevens has returned to his home in Hammond after a two weeks visit at his father's.—Smith & Knapp have been holding milk meetings in the limits of their combine and, met with some opposition, at Chantry meeting, on account of raising the price of manufacturing from 1c. per lb., and the patrons pay all necessary running expenses, 1c. per lb. and the proprietors pay all expenses leaving a fraction in favor of manufacturers. The cry is monopolies. We feel safe to say our business men of these townships can show just as clean a record in regard to integrity, honesty and fair dealing as the same proportion of farmers with whom they deal. With any person, that has watched the cheese board, they will remember that the salesman who can parcel from five to two hundred fine uniform cheese at a time, will command a better price and more ready sale than the isolated smaller factory of from seventy to 100 cheese be they ever so fine.

SUNBURY.

Jan. 12.—Evangelistic services conducted at the White church, by A. Maitland, are successful.—The daily attendance at No. 3 school has increased, since the opening of the present year, and now a goodly number is regularly registered.—A large number of the temperance party met in the Presbyterian church, Friday evening, to properly organize and arrange working committees to act, to win the coming contest and have the majority vote on polling day which is near at hand. Revs. Messrs. Laird and Watts made special remarks regarding the object in view and encouraged those interested to boldly push forward and work for the good of those deep in sin caused by the demon drink.—Capts. Tracy and Baylor will shortly leave for a new field of labor. Since their brief stay amongst us, many friends has been made, and the corps has been prospered and blest in many ways.—B. Jackson had the misfortune to sever a toe last week. The church shed, erected, has been well patronized by the driving public and was a long felt want.

BETHEL.

Jan. 11.—Miss Evans was elected trustee at our annual school meeting. W. Curl opposed him, but was defeated by a slight majority.—Grippe is among us again.—Ira Salsbury, ill with fever, is some better.—John S. Galbraith is getting out stone for the erection of a root house.—J. W. Galbraith, while splitting wood, received a severe cut on his hip by an iron wedge jumping out of a log. Dr. Vrooman dressed the wound.—D. Smith has sold his steam threshing machine.—Henry Salsbury has fully recovered from an attack of quinsy.—Cattle buyers have been through here. James Hamilton sold a few head of beef cattle.—The congregation that assembled at the school house, on Friday evening, were disappointed, as the minister failed to appear.—Mr. Cook, the Israelite, preached in the school house yesterday to a large congregation.—Visitors: David Stitt, Westbrook; Samuel Hamilton, Millbrook; Miss Frankie Snider, Harrowsmith.—Rev. Mr. Williams, Camden East, will preach in the school house on Friday evening.

SHARBOT LAKE.

Jan. 12.—The Oso council meets on Monday, the 18th, at the town hall to organize.—The annual meeting of the Oso agricultural society will be held at the town hall on Thursday, Jan. 14th, at one o'clock. This society is in a flourishing condition. The total receipts for the year 1891 were $411.40; total expenditure $368.77, leaving a balance in the treasurer's hands of $42.63. There is also a paid membership to commence with of 50c. The assets of the society, including live stock, amount to $234.01. Too much praise cannot be given the officers and directors for the energy and work done in bringing the society to its prosperous condition.—We tender Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Armstrong our deep sympathies in the loss of their beautiful little daughter, Sophia Nettie, two years of age. Her loss to them is very severe, but the Master doeth all things well and He says, "Let the children come unto me," "for of such is the kingdom of heaven."—The ice is good on Sharbot Lake and teams are crossing it.—At a meeting of the school trustees of S. S. 9, Jerome Thompson was appointed chairman of the board and Melzar Avery secretary-treasurer.—The division court was held on Friday. Judge Wilkison president. Avery vs Watkins, judgment for plaintiff, for $10 and costs; Storr vs Craig, judgment for $15 for plaintiff; Flynn vs Cox, account, judgment for plaintiff. There were several other small suits without public interest.

It Is a Very Sad Thing

To see young and beautiful people die when they might just as well live and enjoy health and strength. Many who suffer with coughs, colds and lung troubles, leading to consumption, imagine there is no hope for them, when in reality there is every hope if Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is taken regularly. Spread the news everywhere that this great emulsion will make flesh and blood, cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throats and lung troubles tending to consumption. In big bottles, 50c and $1. Wade's drug store.

Elginburg Events.

ELGINBURG, Jan. 12.—John Bearance was elected trustee by considerable of a majority. It is claimed by some that he cannot legally act, but John being a good man and true is going on the even tenor of his way, discharging the duties incumbent in that important office. And as he has been regularly elected he purposes to continue in his well-doing until regularly unseated. Just so! On New Year's morning, Mrs. Castell presented William with a rare gift, and at the same time one was added to the male population of our village. School opened with a good attendance. Mr. Gage, our new teacher, has made a very favorable impression. Rev. J. M. Tredrea preached a very encouraging sermon on Sunday night on the subject of "Christian Work" based on the unlimited power, and promised presence of Christ. Collections were received for the "sustentation fund." The rev. gentleman will be remembered here most tenderly, as he gave the congregation credit for a good collection. F. J. Pope, M.A., after spending Christmas with his parents, has gone to take his place as teacher in Seaforth collegiate institute, where he receives a good salary. Miss Laura Lawson slipped and fell on the verandah steps giving her side and arm an ugly jam. Miss Bella McFarland recently spent a few days here. F. Bell is also with us again visiting at Mrs. Jackson's. Lewis Richard's youngest child is recovering from a serious illness.

Kid mitts and gloves for ladies, boys or men, will be sold at cost price at R. McFaul's. Everything reduced.

Kennebunk, Me., claims the youngest grandfather in the state in the person of David Parent, who is only thirty-six years of age.

Count Taubenheim, of Wurtemberg, who has just retired from the public service, was known in the seventies as the recipient of more medals, decorations and orders than any other man in Europe.

Eddie Gould is the tallest of all the Gould family. He is of slender physique and fonder of the enjoyments of life than George is, though not given to dissipation. He is the most popular member of the family.

Rev. Augustus Tolton, of Chicago, is said to be the only colored Catholic priest in the United States. He was born a slave in Ralls county, Mo., in 1854, and for twelve years worked in a tobacco factory in Quincy, Ills.

The Beau Brummel of New York's middle aged millionaires is D. O. Mills, who follows the fashions in male attire very closely, wears his clothes well and is altogether a model for a metropolitan Croesus to pattern after.

Frederick Gleason, an inmate of the Old Men's home in Boston, is said to be the father of illustrated journalism in the United States. He was rich and prosperous less than forty years ago, with an income in 1851 of $50,000 a year.

Senor Romero, of the Mexican legation, has a mania for collecting clocks of all countries. Every room in the legation building has a fine specimen, and one of the senor's special concerns is to see that they are all perfectly in order.

Congressman William M. Springer is a tall, wiry man, with thin hair and an iron gray beard and mustache. He always wears a Prince Albert frock coat, carefully brushed, tightly buttoned and ornamented with a buttonhole bouquet.

Mark Hopkins, the California millionaire, over whose millions a legal contest is going on, and President Mark Hopkins, of Williams college, got their names from the same grandfather, who was a Congregational clergyman at Great Barrington, Mass.

President Harrison is so good a pedestrian that there is scarcely a street in Washington with which he is not familiar. He is also fond of driving some distance into the country and then ordering the driver to set him down for a tramp over the hills.

General Peixotto, the new Brazilian president, is a soldierlike man, past the middle age, of dark or swarthy complexion and wearing his gray hair close cut. Courteous and pleasing in manner, he is courteous and nervously polite and has a good, sympathetic voice.

Lieutenant Governor Chase, of Indiana, who succeeds Governor Hovey, is a native of New York and fifty-seven years of age. He was educated for the ministry and once ran for congress from Indiana, to be defeated by Mr. Matson. One of his ancestors, Samuel Chase, was a signer of the Declaration of Independence.

GREAT YOUNG MEN.

Charles James Fox was in parliament at 19.

The great Cromwell left the university at Cambridge at 18.

John Bright was never at any school a day after he was 15 years old.

Gladstone was in parliament at 22, and at 24 was lord of the treasury.

Lord Bacon graduated at Cambridge at 16, and was called to the bar at 21.

Peel was in parliament at 21, and Palmerston was lord of the admiralty at 23.

Henry Clay was in the senate of the United States, contrary to the constitution, at 29.

Judge Storey was at Harvard at 15, in congress at 29 and judge of the supreme court of the United States at 32.

Martin Luther had become largely distinguished at 24, and at 36 had reached the topmost round of his world wide fame.

Washington was a distinguished colonel in the army at 22, early in public affairs, commander of the forces at 43, president at 57.

Webster was in college at 15, gave evidence of his great future before he was 25 and at 30 he was the peer of the ablest man in congress.

Maurice of Saxony died at 32, conceded to have been one of the profoundest statesmen and one of the best generals Christendom had seen.

Napoleon at 25 commanded the army of Italy. At 30 he was not only one of the most illustrious generals of the time, but one of the great lawgivers of the world. At 46 he saw Waterloo.

The great Louis X was pope at 38. Having finished his academic training he took the office of cardinal at 18—only twelve months younger than was Charles James Fox when he entered parliament.

William Pitt entered the ministry at 14, was chancellor of the exchequer at 22, prime minister at 24, and so continued for twenty years, and when 35 was the most powerful uncrowned head in Europe.—Young Men's Era.

FLOWER AND TREE.

Cloves used for flavoring are the unexpanded buds of the clove tree dried in the sun.

In an English coal mine plants have grown at a depth of 1,000 feet. They were perfectly erect and their foliage was blanched.

The flowers of the Judas tree are made into fritters, with butter added, or mixed with salads, or sometimes the flower buds are pickled in vinegar.

One of the largest hop growers on the Pacific coast got a growth of 5,582 pounds of hops on an acre of 816 hills. A yield of 1,000 pounds to an acre in the average yard is considered fair.

Peter Henderson, of New York, has a standing premium of $10,000 for a blue chrysanthemum and all the hybridizers are persistently at work trying to develop or originate that novelty.

The pineapple grows upon the upper part of a stem which rises two or three feet high from the center of a cluster of leaves growing close to the ground. The upper part of this stem becomes covered with the flowers of the plant, the flower cluster becomes enlarged, its parts uniting and forming the pineapple.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

Sudden change of temperature sorely try all persons prone to rheumatism, sciatica, tic doloreux, and many in ladies scarcely less painful, though of shorter duration. On the first attack of stiffness or suffering in any muscle, joint, or nerve, recourse should immediately be had to fomenting the seat of disease with hot brine and rubbing in this remarkable Ointment, which will assuage the uneasiness of the part, subdue inflammation, and reduce the swelling. The Pills simultaneously taken, will rectify constitutional disturbances and renew the strength. No remedy heretofore discovered has proved so effective as the Ointment and Pills for removing gouty, rheumatic, and scrofulous attacks, which affect all ages, and are commonly called hereditary.
