A Little Boy's Troubles. thought when I'd learned my letters, That all my troubles were done, But I find myself much mistaken, They only have just begun. Learning to read was awful, But nothing like learning to write: I'd be sorry to have you tell it, But my copybook is a sight.

The lak gets over my fingers, The pen cuts all sorts of shines, And won't do at all as I bid it: The letters won't stay on the lines, But go up and down and all over,

As though they were dancing a jig. They are there in all shapes and sizes. Medium, little and big. There'd its some comfort in learning If one can get through; instead Of that there are books awaiting, Quite enough to craze my head; There's the multiplication table

And grammar, and -- oh, dear mel There's no good place for stopping When one has begun, I see. My teacher says little by little To the mountain top we climb. It isn't all done in a minute, But only a step at a time; She says that all the scholars.

A Christmas tree, with its branches loaded with toys and knicknacks, makes, when its tiny candles of various colors have all been lighted, a pretty obect. We have grown so accustomed to see it now that is hard to think that there ever was a time when Christmas joilifications were not adorned with a nicely decked tree. As a ica: It is said that the late prince consort who was the father of the Prince of Wales. introduced the custom of Christmas trees in England in 1840. There were grand fee tivities in Windsor castle, one of the home

This is significant in view of the fact that it has excited no special comment Fifteen or twenty years ago, while it would have been conceded that a girl might well of Queen Victoria, and he provided a handenough sit in the senate as a cierk, she some tree covered with beautiful present could not with propriety have obtained her that were afterward distributed among I place by active campaigning. The aprite took wing to join the cives. The hares sat down to cool themselves. And wonder where they were. -This seems the land of night to me. For there's the moon," cried one:

I really think at last that we Have got beaind the sun!"

The Jackson Reception.

The Melissa Manufacturing Co. have received many letters from all parts of the Dominion, asking if they intend manufacturing Melissa Cloaks for Labies, or Melissa Cloth can be procured for that purpose.

In answer to these inquiries, they desire to say that, although not ready to manufacture Ladies' Garments, they have decided to sell the Melissa Goods by the piece and are now preparing a choice range of patterns, which will be offered to the trade in January, 1892. Melissa Cloth is admirably adapted for women's wear, as it can be made in any weight desired, and in an infinite variety of patterns and shades. Women will no longer have to put up with the disagreeable odors, discomfort and danger of wearing the old, air-tight, rubber waterproof. The TRADE MARK which will be stamped upon every piece of Melissa Goods is an absolute guarantee not only that the Cloth is Rain-proof, Porous and Odorless, but that it is PERFECTLY PURE and FREE FROM ALL DELETERIOUS SUBSTANCES, neither SUGAR of LEAD nor any other poisonous ingredient is used in its manufacture, and ladies can wear garments made of the cloth with a sense of perfect security that both health and comfort will be assured.
