"Optior ver Orben Dion."

WHAT DOES HE MEAN?

In his lecture before the Club National, Montreal, Mr. Farin is reported to have said: "When George III. undertook to follow the advice of irresponsible councillors, the consequence had been the loss of the American colonies. He did not wish to pose as a prophet, but he could say that if they could not find under existing institutions the protection and liberty which they had a right to expect they would seek elsewhere. He could say: If you wish that we should live contented and in harmony do not treat us as pariahs." There is a good deal of mystery about this talk and it requires explanation. Is it intimated that rebellion is probable? That it will follow the crisis precipitated by Lieut.-Gov. Angers? We hope not. The country is afflicted sufficiently with misrule without adding to its misfortunes, and the people will have no need to rebel. They can settle constitutional issues with their ballots.

PRINCELY OCCUPATIONS.

There is a good deal of philosophy in what the Hamilton Times says, when, nothing that Prince George of Wales is dissatisfied with his position in the navy and will seek promotion in the army, remarks: "Is there any necessity for educating our young kinglings in either a land or water killing school? The majority of Englishmen have higher aspirations than the murder of Frenchmen, Dutchmen or Russians. Why doesn't Prince George go to work on a railway, if he wants to risk his life, or, look for a job in a dry-goods store or a newspaper office if he merely shrinks from a life of idleness? The existence and prosperity of England depend upon the army of workers whose labor produces wealth, and not upon the army that studies the trade of war, to attain expertness in the destruction of life and property." The Times may appear to be frivolous in its remarks, but it touches a line of serious thought. The royal representatives of the people are more deeply concerned in the affairs of state than in anything else, and as the stability of monarchical institutions depends upon the wisdom with which the head of government acts, how essential it should be that those in succession to the throne should be schooled in statecraft rather than the science of war. The study of political ethics and diplomacy and finance may not be so attractive as military and naval manœuvres, but they call for attributes which those in power ought to possess.

MAYOR'S ADDRESS.

What is to become of the mayor's address? If it is not to be acted upon—if its various points and suggestions are not to be referred to committees and approved or rejected—the labor of writing it has been in vain. Nay, more, it will have stirred up a deal of feeling in some quarters to very little purpose. On one point the echo of the mayor of Detroit, speaking in his inaugural, will be of some interest. He, like Mr. McIntyre, was discussing the pavement question, and said:

"No pavement should be laid in this city unless it has an indestructible foundation. A wood pavement is an improvement on a mud road, but unless very carefully laid upon a concrete foundation and filled with tempered gravel and a proper mixture of tar so as to make it absolutely water-tight, it cannot be considered as anything but a temporary device—a pioneer pavement, unpleasant and unhealthy."

To this declaration force has been added by the experience of London, Rochester and other places. Block paving has been generally condemned, but that is not a reason why we should go to the extreme course of estimating the cost of granite paving. There is another kind, asphalt, which has been extensively laid in Montreal and with great satisfaction. Why not enquire about it before falling back upon any kind of wooden, granite or otherwise.

THE EVENTS OF MONDAY.

Two circumstances are cited as an evidence of the magnanimity of the conservatives at the council meeting on Monday. First the election of an auditor, a pronounced liberal as A. McArthur is, showed (we are informed) how desirous those politically opposed to him were to do the fair thing and recognise ability above all else. Was that all and the correct statement of the case? Were not certain aldermen pledged to vote for Mr. McArthur, in the event of the mayor appointing a conservative auditor, as he before had alleged he would do? Was the unanimous support of Mr. McArthur a necessity—experience as well as ability being called for in the second choice—and was the conservative majority in a position to force it upon the minority any more than they were in a position to force a one-sided and unfairly divided committee list? Secondly, the reappointment of the high school trustees was according to the best judgment of the council, and cannot be taken as an evidence of confession on the part of anyone. The fact is magnanimity was not exhibited in anything that was done at the council meeting by the eleven aldermen in the majority. Had they, at an earlier stage than the striking of the committees, assumed to take advantage of a sick man they would have provoked resentment against which the mayor could not, with any desire for impartiality, protest. If there was anything indecent and indefensible about the whole business it was the act of casting to one side the labors of the aldermen who had met and undertaken a peaceful solution of the difficulty now experienced. They men acted with the knowledge, and presumably consent of the leaders on the other side, they had reached an agreement upon all points save one, and that all this should be ignored and a new programme projected, without opportunity for discussion and amendment, is too much for calm and reasonable men. The conference was the only hope of a reasonable settlement and, with all deference to the witnesses who think differently, to the conference it will have to go again.

LATEST FROM LANARK.

A New Mill is Now in Service—The Officers of the Lodges.

LANARK, Jan. 18.—The Lanark village horticultural society held its annual business meeting, last Wednesday week, of which a full report will appear in our next budget. Daniel McIntire has framed in a space 34x120 feet for a rink on the Clyde within two minutes walk from the post office. He will also erect a comfortable building for accommodation of patrons who are anxiously awaiting, in large numbers, for the opening of the rink the first fine evening. J. & J. Herron started up their new roller flour mills, three runs from here, last Saturday. This will give some help to the Clyde mills, into which the grain have been pouring as fast for the past six months as to render the company incapable to meet the demands, though running day and night all the while. New customers are continually being added to the already long list, and come from Denbigh, Calabogie, Oso Station, back of Perth, Smith's Falls and many other distant points. But besides their preference for dealing at the Clyde mills the customers take advantage of the general trading advantages to be had with Lanark merchants.

At the regular meeting of Stanley lodge, I.O.O.F., Lanark, last Thursday week, the following officers were installed for the ensuing year by Mr. McCallum, D.D.G.M., Almonte: James Watt, N.G.; J. M. Campbell, V.G.; John A. Watt, R.S.; Thomas Baird, F.S.; George Buffam, warden; J. D. McLaren, conductor; John James, R.S.N.G.; John Kennedy, L.S.N.G.; Alex. Buffam, R.S.V.G.; Able Cohen, L.S.V.G.; James McCurdy, R.S.S.; John Miller, L.S.S.; James Robertson, I.G.; James Young, O.G. At a similar meeting of Court Lanark, I.O.F., the following officers were appointed: John Manahan, C.D.H.C.R.; N. C. Lloyd, P.C.R.; John Smith, C.R.; Arch. Raskin, V.C.R.; Alex. McIlraith, R.S.; Wm. Young, F.S.; John H. Wilson, treasurer; Wm. Deurvay, chaplain; N. Kirk, S.W.; D. Headrick, J.W.; George Armshaw, S.B.; Alex. Easton, J.B.; Dr. Scott, physician.

T. B. Caldwell now runs the finest span of roadsters about Lanark. He purchased them at Montreal recently. A higher tax has been imposed on Alex. McIntyre's bread box lately by the addition to his family of a little girl. Jno. Dobbin, Dakota; H. Jiles and Wm. Mann, Grafton, Dak., and Walter Yuill, of Ardlock, Dak., are visiting friends about Lanark. Wm. Mann, previous to leaving home, sold eight carloads, about 5,000 bushels wheat, being part of his 1891 crop.

William, the lawyer, is in it again. Some time ago W. S. Miller, of this place, was brought before the council for trespassing on one of the corporation lines, having cut a quantity of firewood. The council let him off on payment of $5 for damage done and a promise that he would trespass no more, and further, that the wood he cut would be left for the council to dispose of. D. Arnold, also resident here, recently bought and paid for the wood, but when about to remove some found Miller hauling it away in face of orders to the contrary, by representatives of the council. Arnold now threatens to bring suit against Miller for the recovery of the wood. He stated at the council meeting, last night, that he would find it up as much, and if he could not get satisfaction from Miller he would hold the council responsible. The council promised to consider his case and see what could be done in the matter.

HE HAD GOOD GRIT.

He Walked Home With His Foot Badly Slashed by an Axe.

TAMWORTH, Jan. 18.—The new council for 1892 met to-day and transacted a large amount of business. The auditors for this year are R. Murphy and J. E. Perry; assessor, Thomas Donohoe; the reeve and deputy leave to-morrow for Napanee to attend the county council. The taxes are mostly all collected for 1891, something unheard of for this township. We are pleased to hear that Mrs. J. R. Fraser is out of danger. The funeral of Murray Bell passed through town on Saturday last. He contracted a cold last summer and never rallied from it. The remains of Mrs. Archie Stewart were also put in the vault at Erinsville this morning. She leaves a large family of grown up children; some are in Dakota and could not get home in time to share in the last sad rites. T. M. Barry and wife were down to the city last week making some purchases and calling on friends, prior to their departure for the North West.

Fred. Vandewater, while out driving a few days ago, let the horse run away and broke the cutter so badly that it cost $20 for repairs, but he did not have to foot the bill. John Floyd, jr., is having heaps of fun breaking in his colt. It affords lots of sport for the boys. A young man named Vanvolkinburg was chopping wood, about three miles from town, and accidentally cut his foot, completely severing one of his toes and making an ugly gash in his foot. He walked home before he got his foot off. Dr. Clark attended him and said he bled very little. He had good grit. L. D. Bartagar and family have returned from Belleville and settled down again among old friends. M. A. Jackson, photographer, from Tweed, has put out his shingle. Snow ten inches deep and still snowing.

Sons of Temperance.

The Leeds county division of the Sons of Temperance met in Morton, on the 14th inst. The delegates began to assemble early in the day. By noon it was found forty-eight delegates had registered. The afternoon session was attended by no less than seventy-five representatives from the different divisions. Special local work outside the division room was reported as being on hand by several of the divisions. Westport, the youngest of the divisions, reported a new division room, central, commodious and nibly furnished. Their membership is seventy. The following officers were elected for the term of one year, and installed by Rev. D. Y. Ross, a provincial deputy of the order: W. H. McGoire, W.P.; Mrs. P. Halliday, W.A.; Mr. Metcalfe, R.S.; Miss E. Taber, A.S.; Mr. P. Gilpin, treasurer; Miss Baker, F.S.; Rev. Mr. Moyle, chaplain; F. Taber, C.; Miss Leake, A.C.; Miss L. Ruddick, I.S.; David Gowan, O.S.; N. Hoskard, P.W.P. An evening meeting was held in the Presbyterian church. Addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Stewart, Morton; Rev. J. B. Hall, Westport; J. Judd, Morton; Mr. Hiscock, Delta, etc. Music was rendered by the Elgin and Morton choirs.

They Took Parts.

The young liberal club of Toronto had a night with Canadian authors on Saturday night. It was a fine affair. The Globe says of local personages: The first reading on the programme was a poem by Mrs. Mackay ("Fidelis"). Miss Mackay was present, but Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, a personal friend of the posters, read for her. The poem was called "The Mystic Singer," and was a mystical exposition of the idea that the truest and highest aim of poetry is to "touch those deepest feelings which are the divinest heritage of man." It was a strong and characteristic treatment of the profound, philosophical subject, and had in it a grace and melody which has given Miss Mackay her claim to be ranked as Canada's first poetess. A second poem by her "Our Father Land," which was to have been read by Mr. W. Nowell, could take on the programme and was unfortunately one of the numbers which had to be omitted.

The audience applauded the name of Charles Sangster, who was perhaps Canada's first important national poet. His letter, written by his daughter, had been signed by the old poet in characters which his 89 years have made unsteady.

THE DESERONTO BUDGET.

THE NEWS OF THE WEEK MADE VERY READABLE.

Counting it Now the Delightful Pastime—The Entertainment and the Success Attending Them—A Very Pleasant Time With St. Mark's Union—A Horse's Neck Broken.

DESERONTO, Jan. 20.—On Wednesday evening about twenty couple of young people gathered at the residence of M. Marrigan's and spent a jolly time dancing. James Whitton was elected councillor for Centre ward by a majority of nine. The young ladies of the town intend holding a grand leap year ball. Mr. and Mrs. T. Roach, Gananoque, are visiting friends in town. Miss Nellie Bowen has accepted a school at Bay Bay. Miss E. Norris, Napanee, has been visiting in town, as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Soil, St. George street. Coasting is all the go these moonlight evenings. Old and young alike enjoy the sport. J. G. Hamblin, superintendent telegraph office, has been in Campbellford the past week on business.

George Burtch, manager Uncle Tom's Cabin company, is in town again after doing up the towns in the west. The citizens' band intend holding a grand concert in the near future. On Friday evening a large party of young people went out for a drive to Rednersville. Miss Daly, organist of the Methodist church, rendered a solo, much appreciated at the sacred solo, held by the ladies of the congregation on Thursday evening. The sum of $15 was realized. C. Dougherty of the Rathbun company, Ottawa, is in town, looking after the interests of his department. Two banns were called at the Roman Catholic church, Sunday 17th, all of Deseronto. Eight sleigh loads of young and old took Napanee by storm, Saturday afternoon. You bet they made lots of noise. Herchmer Aylesworth has been appointed leader of the choir of the Methodist church.

The oyster supper given by St. Mark's union, proved a pleasant and successful affair. Mr. Hoppe efficiently discharged the duties of chairman, introducing the various items of an exceptionally strong and pleasing musical and literary programme. An instrumental overture by Prof. Johnstone; two songs by Mr. Dibb; two capital instrumental duetts by Prof. and Mrs. Denmark and Messrs. Rodney and Jay Huff; song, "At the Ferry," by Miss Fields; recitation by Miss Tottle Hall, succeeded by the pleasing vocal quartette, "Come Where the Lilies Bloom so Fair," admirably rendered by Mr. and Miss Miller, Mrs. H. Aylesworth and Mr. Fowkes; humorous reading by Prof. Johnstone, well received, as also the closing chorus by the choir, "Softly Falls the Shades of Eve," and of course the National Anthem. We cannot forbear to mention the hearty applause which greeted the appearance of Prof. and Mrs. Denmark, who, we trust, intend to make Deseronto their future home.

R. C. Calhoun, of the Rathbun company agency, Belleville, has been in town this week, looking after the interests of his department. While a load of ladies and gentlemen were returning home from a straw-ride, from Napanee, on going down Centre street the horses ran away, upsetting the sleigh. They ran into a tree, breaking one of the horse's necks. Several of the party were badly shaken up. The team belonged to Tom Gault's livery. Conductor Lindley, of the Bay of Quinte railway, has been sick the past week or two, but we are glad to say he is improving. W. R. Aylesworth is laid up with the grippe.

THE TOWNSHIP APPOINTEES.

The First Meeting of the Council—A Fake Exhibition Treaty.

ODESSA, Jan. 19.—Miss Marion Perry, Kingston, is visiting friends here. Rev. W. Limbert preached missionary sermons to the Baptists on Sunday. S. B. Clark occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday night. Mr. Clark has an ability for preaching that is considerably ahead of a great many ordained ministers. The anniversary sermon of the Y.P.S.C.E. will be preached on Sunday, Feb. 7th. Since the organization of the township Sunday school association the work has received an impetus not experienced in years. A convention is to be held at Violet on Tuesday, Feb. 2nd. It is expected that this service will be of an interesting and instructive character. The first session of the township council of 1892 was held on Monday. The following gentlemen have been appointed auditors for this year: Reeve's auditor, Dr. J. F. Mabee; council auditor, S. McKim, Switzerville. James Lewis, Wilton, was appointed assessor.

The first sitting of the division court for this year was held on Thursday last, whether it was the municipal "pot" or the current federal bonfire that enabled every one to square accounts is not known. The docket was very light, there being only one case for settlement. The sparring exhibition on the boards in the opera house here, on Wednesday last, was a fake. A couple of greenies appeared on the stage and in about two minutes demonstrated how little they knew of the science of boxing.

The first shot of the federal campaign was fired here on Saturday night, without doing any serious damage. The "Gatling Gun," an the conservatives term A. F. Campbell, of Brampton, held forth in company with Uriah Wilson, candidate for the commons. The usual arm swinging appeals on loyalty were made and greatly delighted the party hearers. They forgot, (accidentally, of course,) to mention that the premier, their leader, was the first man to attach his signature to a manifesto praying for annexation to the United States. The fiasco playing havoc in other ridings is being experienced here, a polished voters' list. There is in this township, from forty to sixty names wrongfully placed on or omitted from the list. Who is responsible for this; the revising barrister or the printing barrers? It is a farce on representative government. When will the people rise in their might and relegate the franchise act to the realms of "politics" oblivion. Sir Richard Cartwright will speak here, on Friday night, in the interests of D. W. Allison.

Westport Whispers.

WESTPORT, Jan. 19.—Thomas Kearns, son of George Kearns, Brockville, was drowned in the St. Lawrence on the 16th, aged fourteen years. Mr. Kearns lived here for a number of years and was highly respected. The body arrived here by the R. & W. RR. on the 18th, and was met by a large number of his old friends, who accompanied the remains to the vault. Frank Provost is seriously ill with grippe. Thomas Butler has bought the thiship and dwelling house on Church street from Theodore Myers for $700. Thomas Snowdon and John Mars have bought the farm, owned by the late A. F. McCann, for $3,200. James Speagle bought the farm, of fifty acres, owned by J. A. McCann, for $950. Mrs. Breakinridge has gone to Lansdowne to visit her parents. Miss Thompson is ill. The opening of St. Paul's church will take place on the 31st. J. B. Whelan is confined to his room with rheumatism. Wood is coming in in large loads. Our council met on the 18th. The appointed officers for the present year are: James Hopkins and A. D. Taggart auditors; E. McCaffery and George Durkin, assessors; Frank Curtis, Jas. Melvill and R. Bolton, board of health; M. J. McCann, sanitary inspector; Dr. Foley, medical health officer; F. Hall, collector of taxes. Rev. D. Y. Ross attended a public installation of the officers of Westport lodge, Carleton Place, on Friday evening the 15th inst., the proceedings consisted of the installation, a concert and a lecture on the principles of the order. Mr. Ross gave the lecture.

Kingsbury I.O.F.

At the regular meeting of Court Lyndhurst, I.O.F., the following officers were chosen for the ensuing term: James Young, P.C.R.; William Webster, C.R.; A. H. Singleton, V.C.R.; J. A. Sedlick, recording secretary; John Jackson, financial secretary; T. E. Sedlick, treasurer; M. H. Ayre, chaplain; C. F. Sheffield, S.W.; M. C. Smith, J.W.; S. C. The Prices Reported to be Given for Produce at Present Date.

KINGSTON, Jan. 19.—The markets during the past week have been fairly well attended, the display on Saturday being the largest since New Years'. Large quantities of poultry have been offered and the prices obtained, in most cases, were highly satisfactory. The amount of beef offered has been unusually large, and eventually a greater quantity was offered than found ready purchase.

Wool and lamb skins, 50c to $1 each; tallow, 3c to 5½c per lb; wool, 16c; deacons, 25c to 35c; hides, 3½ to 4c and 5c; veals, 40c to 60c each.

Long hardwood, $5; sawed hardwood, $5 50; Sawed and split, $6; soft wood, $3 50; slabs, $3; edging, $2 80; coal, $5.25 to $5.50.

The grain markets are quiet. A merchant stated, to-day, that the markets were very inactive and the prospects of better times had not yet been disclosed. Very little grain of any description has been sold in Kingston during the past week and what small amount was disposed of consisted largely in oats. Within the last couple of days rye has dropped two cents per bushel the other prices remained the same as last week. The English markets are lower and there is no telling how long the steady fall in prices will continue.

The quotations are: Rye, 80c to 83c; oats, 27c to 28c; wheat, 85c to 90c; peas, 58c; barley, 43c; buckwheat, 42c.

Markets in General.

There were about 500 head of butchers' cattle, four calves and no mention critters offered at Montreal, on Tuesday. The highest price paid was 4½c per lb. Pretty good stock sold at from 3½ to 4c per lb., large bulls at from 3c to 3½c per lb., common dry cows at from 2½c to 3½c per lb; milkmen's strippers at from $25 to $40 each, or from 3c to 3½c per lb. The few calves offered here to-day were one of the best, and sold at from $2.80 to $5 each. Live hogs sell at 4½c per lb., and dressed hogs at nearly 6c lb.

Cheese — Best September and October makes were firm at 11c, in Toronto, with a few sales at ½c advance on this figure. Summer makes are nominal at from 9½c to 10c per lb.

In Montreal a good round quantity of stock has been moved. Recent transactions comprise 1,000 boxes on spot, 3,000 boxes at Brockville and 1,800 to 2,000 at Ogdensburg, the figures in these instances running all the way from 11c to 11½c. Briefly, the market is strong at the advance, the high figures ruling in New York being another reason for stiffness with holders, and it is certain that if a buyer went out to fill an order for finest white he would have to pay 11½ to 11¾c. The cable is unchanged, 50s.

Hops—Canada hops are selling at from 18c to 22c; Bavarian freight and duty paid 41c to 42c, and Wartemburg at from 43c to 44c per lb.

Apples, dried—Trade is quiet and prices unchanged at 4c to 4½c for dried, and 7½c to 8½c for evaporated apples.

Beans—Unchanged and dull at $1.20 to $1.30 for large lots, and $1 40 to $1.50 per bushel for small lots out of store.

On Wednesday a pleasant party of relatives and friends met at the residence of N. S. DeMill, Sophiasburg, to witness the marriage of his youngest daughter, Blanche, to Wil. E. Moran, of Big Island. The bride was attended by her step-sister, Miss Gertie Moran, and the groom by his cousin, Eaton Moran, Crofton.

Reason and science admit that the irresistible craving for liquor, which causes a man to drink to excess, and makes him an habitual drunkard is a pathetical disease. The Father Mathew Remedy is the only specific that can cure such a disease.

Stage Robber and Ranchman.

Abe Jones is a tough citizen, and has done much to boom the stage robbing industry in California. When he and Bill Howard "held up" the Reading coach some time ago, however, they carried things a little too far, for not content with carrying off the valuables they maltreated a young woman passenger. A purse of $5,000 was hung up for the capture of Abe and Bill, "dead or alive." They were arrested, escaped and two days later Howard was killed.

ABE JONES.

A Modoc county rancher named Thompson tracked Jones to the mountains and made him a prisoner. Thompson is a giant in size and so "handy with a gun" that he can cut the spots out of a playing card at a distance of twenty rods. He gave Jones an exhibition of his shooting and then remarked:

"Now Mister Robber, I'm not going to tie you up. I'll let you go anywhere within fifty feet of me, but as my aim is a little uncertain beyond that and I might kill you instead of cutting off your ears I think you had better be careful of your distance."

It is almost unnecessary to add that Abe is now behind the bars, and that, as Mr. Thompson is not a patient man, he was promptly paid his share of the reward.
