ADVERTISEMENTS. First insertion, five lines and over, per line, per day, 1 cent per word in daily issues.

JOHN EDWARDS, EDW. J. B. FERRE, Assistant Business Manager.

CUNARD STEAMSHIP COMPANY. RAILING from New York every Saturday.

THE DAILY WHIG. "Only one in Ontario."

THE CUSTOMS "DIVY". We read in a government paper that the customs account for the fiscal year amount to $245,000.

A VERY BAD EXHIBIT. The government has this year, as last, committed the wrong of holding back the trade and navigation returns until the Empire had had an opportunity to study them.

Another point—doubtless with tact. The Witness handles it pugnantly thus: "In 1891 the duties collected upon imports amounted to $23,441,609.31, or $4.77 per head."

But the people seem to be satisfied with this condition of things. To draw attention to the injurious effects of government is to run the risk of being called a traitor.

EDITORIAL NOTES. The British press of common has done as it was expected to do—killed the substance of preferential commercial relations with the colonies.

The Marston Outlook. Both says the progress are that progress in the United States will be much better next year.

A TRAIN ROBBERY'S BRIDE.

Magpie Hedgcock, the Wife of One of the "Glendale" Road Agents.

Mrs. Magpie Hedgcock, who has been married for twenty years, is a living illustration of the proverb that a woman is often willing to sacrifice in order to gratify her love of dress and jewelry.

A few years ago Magpie Hedgcock was a simple, innocent, and virtuous woman, who was every day a furnishing goods dealer in St. Joseph, Mo. At that time she was a young girl, and her mother, Mrs. Hedgcock, was a widow.
