The force and truthfulness of all this will be made apparent at the trial of the protest, which cannot be long delayed. Meanwhile we do not hear of any conservative objecting to the methods by which the goverament is carrying the bye-elections. principle governing is, "Anything to get there," and "Anything to stay there." dismissal of Mr. Abbott and an impartia examination into departmental affairs would simply astonish the people.

In marked contrast with Woods and the MERCIER'S FAREWELL.

There appears to be something in the report that the attorney-general of Quebec gave Honore Mercier a chance of retirement from public life or the alternative of arrest and prosecution for a gross misuse of the public funds. On Tuesday he was re-elected for Bonaventure ; on Wednesday he resi, n e i his coat and issued the following letter : "Mr. Angers is victorious; his coup d'etab' has received the approbation of the electors. Calumny has got the better of the constitu-
