LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Letter From Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, April 26 - (To the Editor : The letter of the Rev. W. H. Barnes, in which he expresses "deep surrow" for hav. ing written his series of open letters to his. bop Lewis, and proposing a ratical change in his convictions, is very interesting ; a surprise to those acquainted with the gentleman's recent movements. It is readily con ceded that a man's opinion may change and the liberty to pass from one communion o the church to another is granted; but when this is done under circumstances that savors very much of false pretences, it is desirable that the truth should be known, Mr. Harnes' letter conveys the impression that he is seeking admission to the church of England because he has been convinced that he has been doing a very wrong thing in opposing the claims of the sacredotal section of that church and that it is his duty to array him. self for its defence.
