DANGERS OF EXPECTORATION. The modern gospel of prophylaxis teaches taken before retiring that phthisis can be abolished from the face of the earth if only people will stop spitting. Says Dr. T. M. Prudden:

"If the vile and increasing practice well-nigh indiscriminate spitting goes on un-checked in nearly all assembling places and public conveyances; if the misguided wo-men who trail their skirts through the un-speakable and infectious filth of the street are to be admitted uncleansed into house and churches and theatres; if theatres and court rooms and school houses and cars are to remain the filthy lurking-places of contsgia which their ill-ventilation and their mostly ignorant and careless so-called cleaning aggessary entail; if in sleeping care and hotel bed rooms the well are allowed to followed consumptives in their occupancy without warning, or even the poor show of cfficial disinfection; if in ill-venti lated and ill-cared for dwellings the well must breathe again and again the dust-borne seeds of tuberculosis; if no persistent warning is to be given to the ignorant of the dangers which lurk in uncleanliness-then our task will be most complex as well as difficult in limiting the contagiousness of tubercu-Of course cleanliness and plenty of water are necessary, says the Medical Record, but after all it is the expectoration which car ries the germ and promotes the spread of disease. Spitting, it seems, is not only a v.le, but an increasing habit. This is an unfortunate social fact which reformers do not seem to have grasped, despited nextonsness. There is no mistaking the nervous and dyspeptiman or woman. There is a something in the counterance that betokens suffering, agony and grief. The sallow, hollow cheeks, the sunken and unsteady eyes, the nervous and irresolute gait, are all true indications of Could all such sufferers be reasoned with in a quiet and calm way, they would at once be convinced that, to go on in their present dangerous course, means sure death. When physical strength is nigh worn out by sufferings of the nervous system, the end is not far off; the yawning gulf that separates us from death, comes nearer to view every day. Happily there is escape-rescue-deliverance, if the true path is followed. There is a road that leads from present misery to health, joys and blessings. This road is open to all who have decision and stability of character. This safe, sure and life-giving avenue is Paine's Celery Compound. NEW DISCOVERY by ACCIDEN

In compounding a solution a part was accidently spilled on the hand and on washing afterward it was discovered that the hair was compietely removed. We at once put this wonderful preparation, on the market and so great has been the demand that we are now introducing throughout the world under the name of Queen's Anti-Hairing IT IS PERFECTLY HARMLESS AND SO SIMPLE ANY CHILD CAN USE IT. Lay the hair over and apply the mixture for a few minutes, and the Lay the hair over and apply the mixture for a few minutes, and the hair divappears as if by magic without the slightest pain or injury when applied or ever afterward. It is unlike any other preparation ever used for a like purpose. Thousands of LADIES who have been annoyed with hair on their FACE, NECE and ARMS attest its merits.
