Found After Muny Years. INDIANAPOLIS, May 30, - Thirty years ago John Easton, then seven years old, and his mother were slaves of Wm. Hobbston in Kentucky. The boy was sold to Dr. Henderson, of Oscesols, Ark., and was then to Indianapolis. He told his story to C. G. Limiar, and that gentleman undertook the task of finding Easton's mother, As near as he could remember the name of the town where Hobbston lived, was something like Lovelabe. Kimler assertained there was a Lovelaceville in Kentucky and that a V. S. Lovelace lived there, He wrote to Lovelace, who in reply, sail that he knew Easton's mother and son going to see her she said that if John was her son he could be identified by a double thumb, Easton showed that be had been born with a double thumb, but had one of them cut off as it interfered with his work. He has gone

Money In the Cellar, Saginaw, Mich., May. 39 .- Two theusand dollars in gold and silver was found, yesterday, in the cellar of a house of Midland that was once occupied by Hank Ferrington. It is supposed the money was concealed by him in 1870. Ferrington was a jeweller in Saginaw and neighboring towns for many years, and was suspected of being connected with a gang of counterfeiters. In October, 1874, a man named Stewart, living in Au Sable, Mich., was murdered and robbed of several hundred dollars. Farrington was convicted of the crime and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. After serving some years he was par-poned and went back to AuSable where another judictment egainst him was rewived. Being warned he embarked on a small boat with the intention of escaping to Cadada, but the craft was capsized in a storm and Farrington was drowned, Hisson, a printer.

He quickly pulled off his cost, jumped into an old boat near by and after a heavy pull of ten mindrowning man. Both we'll soon on land. This makes the seventh rescue for the gal-

It is desirable that recognition of the sergeant's work should be made, and we strongly urge upon J. H. Metcalfe, M.P., to bring his case before the attention of the Canadian government and the Royal humane society. The sergeant's rescues are thus epitomized Saved a ludy at Bath, who fell off a wharf,

In 1869, at Deseronto, Mr. Gordon fell off lumber pile into the water. Sergt Brough umped after him, pulled him to the wharf and held him up until help arrived. In the same year a man, who fell off a tug boat at Oswego, was similiarly rescued. In 1871 a lad, twelve years of age, fell off a vessel. There were plenty of men standing about, but none ventured to rescue the lad. Brough jumped in and succeeded in rescuing him. In 1870 an old lady tumbled off a Believille wharf, She was towed ashere by Brough. In 1887, in the teeth of a fierce gale, Sergt. Brough saved the life of a man who
