Attempted Wife Murder and Suicide. MATDSTONE, June 8. - Frederick Marra, shoemaker, Strood, is alleged to have attempted to murder his wife by making a ferocious attack upon her with a bammer whilst she lay in led. Her check bones were smashed in and she received other serious injuries about the head and body, and her life is despaired of. After the woman had become meensible the man is alleged to have made an attack with the hammer upon his son, aged 15, who, however, managed to escape by jumping from the top to the bottom of the staircase, after which he gave information to the police of what had occurred. Marra was arrested and taken to the police station, where later he attempted to commit suicide by strang-ling himself with his handkerchief.
