New York on the 15th inst. for Liverpool which sailed last week for St. Petersburg. Previous to his departure he dictated to his stenographer the following farewell sermon, to be read by the vast and widely scattered audiences whom it is his weekly privilege to address through the medium of the newspaper press. He took his text from II Timothy iv, 6, "The time of my departure is at hand."

Departure! That is a word used only twice in all the Bible. But it is a word often used in the courtroom, and means the desertion of one course of pleating for another. If some skillful surgeon should go into that dungeon where Paul is incarcerated of we might find out what are the prospects of Paul's living through the rough imprisonment.
