THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

GLADSTONE'S MAJORITY WILL BE EXACTLY 42.

Thomas Boston Elected in County Kerry.

London, July 20.—Thomas Boston, M.P., has been elected to the House of Commons for the North division of County Kerry by 202 majority. His opponent was Mr. Parnell, who received only 771 votes.

POLITICAL ECLIPSES.

Notable Men Who Have Disappeared From the British House of Commons.

London, July 20.—In addition to the eclipses of the House of Commons, there are several prominent eclipses in the rank and file of the British House of Commons.

The Father of the "Parliamentary Stepladder."

Concerning the Conservative who came to grief at Ottawa, there is nothing unusual to say. Neither Mr. Maclean nor Mr. Elliot-Lewis can be described as aggressive.

A Warm Heart for the Poor.

Of a different stamp was Mr. John Kelly. Though this energetic gentleman surveyed mankind from the Conservative benches, there was nothing retrograde about him.

The Jostled Owner of Houghton Hall.

With regard to the enforced seclusion of Sir George Elliot, it will be generally deplored.

Parliamentary Reporter.

Of the unsuccessful candidates in England, Mr. Chris Grant will be best remembered for the Ontario district.

Also a Newspaper Man.

Another of the candidates who has failed to win the approval of a constituency is Mr. Bennett Hurlish.
