GLADSTONE'S HARD JOB

HE IS MEETING WITH TROUBLE IN HIS OWN PARTY.

The Scotch Said to be Disposed and Mr. Labouchere Dito.—The Irish Will Seal That Home Rule Is the First Measure for Action and as Soon as Possible.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Scotch Liberals members are dissatisfied at the appointment of Sir George G. Trevelyan as Secretary of State for Ireland, and the Scotch majority on the question of local self-government in Scotland. The Scotch Radicals, who said, will join the English Radicals in Parliament.

The following from Truth: Labouchere's party proposed to the Liberals, if they would give up their existence to the Radicals, to help them to a Radical triumph, are not prepared to use the weapons placed in their hands, than the people must properly decline to trust them, and will justly say that the Radicals are not fit to rule.

This disposed of another of the wild rumors that have been started regarding the intentions of the C.P.R. in the Niagara peninsula.

NIAGARA ELECTRIC RAILWAY.
It Will Not Be Under the Control of the Canadian Pacific.

HAMILTON, Aug. 19.—In regard to the report published in yesterday's paper to the effect that the C.P.R. has secured control of the tramway along the Niagara River Mr. William Hendrie, who is interested, was asked concerning it and promptly said it was an unfounded denial.

"It is a well-known fact that out of whole cloth," he said, "and manufactured in Montreal, too. That road is an electric railway. Our charter does not give us the right to use locomotives on it, and we do not intend to do so. We are going to run our cars into the Grand Trunk, and into the Michigan Central station and into the C.P.R. station, doing business with all, but remaining absolutely independent of each."

The fact that Mr. Oster has a large interest in the road and does not connect it with the C.P.R. My opinion is it is larger than his and the road will remain independent. It is my intention to do all the passenger business we can without concerning ourselves about other lines. You can get the statement the strongest denial possible."

This disposed of another of the wild rumors that have been started regarding the intentions of the C.P.R. in the Niagara peninsula.

THE WAR ON CONVICT CAMPS.

The Miners and the Soldiers Have an Encounter.

KENYONVILLE, Aug. 19.—Yesterday afternoon the convicts held bell rang the roll call. The excitement is intense.

The Times adds, that the Clerics, including Masses, Dillon and Davitt, would readily acquiesce in a postponement of the subject if the decision rest with them, but the Association of Friends. This finding affords the Parochials a dangerous instrument with which they will keep pricking the clerics.

It regards the meeting at Ogdon Grove to prevent dynamiting is still alive, and concludes: "Among the convicts now in jail there are many who are in favor of the British by O'Donnell, Rossa himself since his release. Are they to be sent back to assist fresh recruits who will be haled as heroes in America?"

Sir Algernon Borthwick has refused the permission to meet him in London, on condition that he transfer his seat (South Kensington) to Rt. Hon. G. T. Ritchie, who defected in the St. George's Division in the general election.

Labourer's Feeder.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The European editor of The Herald says: "The 'feeder' thrown out by Mr. Labouchere with a view to the shelving of 'Home Rule' has quickly produced a response. The Parochials themselves first. They protested that the clerics were being cowardly and that they would have nothing to do with it. The anti-Parochials had no choice but to follow suit. They have told the Irish people for years that 'Home Rule' is the one thing needed for them. To turn round and say that and declare that it may be postponed indefinitely is a little too much of a good thing."

Mr. T. P. O'Connor speaks out plainly. He declares that his party must and will have "Home rule" first. They "have to do with it." The Irish party will not be trifled with. J. M. Gladstone, trying his best to turn the tide, will turn upon him at once. What must happen then we all know. Mr. Gladstone will only be a tenant at will. At any moment he will be liable to "eviction" from his house. The Irish know how to work the machine. Before the "Old Man" knows where he is he may find hisself bundled out into the road.

We have never envied him his position, and it did grow more unenviable. For once he laid his hands upon the reins he rode the country into greater and greater trouble.

Crockery and glassware were broken.

London, Aug. 19.—A severe earthquake shook off in various sections of England, Wales and Scotland yesterday.

Crockery and glassware were broken.

London, Aug. 19.—At 10 a.m. another shock was felt which lasted about two seconds.

The last shock resembled an explosion and consternation prevailed among the people.

Many houses oscillated violently.

His MOTHER'S MURDERER.

He Was Suffering from the D. T.'s When He Did the Deed.

CARLISBARD, Aug. 19.—Young Crocker, who murdered his mother yesterday, was suffering from delirious terrors when he committed the deed. He had been watching over his mother.

Just before the murder, however, he seemed to be so much quieter that his mother relaxed her vigilance and sent the servant out. In Mrs. Crocker's pocket was found £2000.

James Baskerville entered the butcher shop of F. V. Wise, at 47 Parliament-street, about noon making playful remarks about the butchers, and then went to the bill poster, making a faint at the bill poster with a knife, "which he was using at the time, but Mr. Baskerville apparently not being able to hold it, it slipped from his hand and fell to the ground, and then he struck the blow and received many of the articles sought.

Then he admitted that in implicating Mrs. Moyer, he had done so, although he was not sure that she was guilty.

He was then sent to the police station.
