Delta Deluge.

DELTA, Aug. 30.—The recent heavy rains must have injured grain of which a large quantity was standing out. Mr. and Mrs. O. Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Copeland have returned from Montreal, Quebec and St. Anne, much pleased with their trip. O. Carse, of Smith's Falls, is here on a visit to his brother, H. Carse. The band gave an out door concert last night. J. Russel and A. Wilts are still on the sick list. The measles are making a tour through the place. G. Stevens is scoring a point this time in getting the streets in good shape. The train did not arrive here last Thursday, owing to a washout on the track. Parties from Brockville, Montreal, and Lyn put up at the hotel de Brown last Tuesday for a day's sport on our beautiful lakes. They said they never had a pleasanter time. They caught a number of pike and bass, which, when dressed, weighed 247 lbs. Several young men from here took in the Anglican picnic at Seeley's Bay last week and report a pleasant time. The prize offered for jumping was won by Guy Curtis, a Delta boy. Miss Ella Joy has gone to Brockville, where she will remain for a while. Wm. Adair, of Ingersoll, representing the firm of Nexon Bros., visited R. J. Stevens last week. A. J. Flood is selling new varieties of potatoes and corn for a Rochester firm. The parties from here who attended the Catholic picnic in Westport, last Saturday, are delighted with the time they had. Visitors: M. Kaley and W. McCrea, Toledo; Miss Jennie Simmons, Long Point, and W. Simmons, Grindstone Island. The directors of the S.L.A.S. are arranging the fair grounds and race course, and everything will be in first-class style for the exhibition on Sept. 20th and 21st.

Chasing A Murderer.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 31.—A thrilling race after a murderer occurred in the Cincinnati southern yards yesterday morning. Officer Roach saw Frank Ramey, who is wanted for fatally shooting Wm. Johnson, Monday, attempting to hide in some box cars with the intention of going south and gave chase. The man sprinted across the yard and just as Roach was about to nab the fellow he caught the rear of the last coach of the rapidly moving express for Chattanooga. Roach caught the last car and was about to seize the fugitive when the latter sprang off the train going twenty miles an hour. Roach jumped after the fleeing man and chased Ramey through a "B" line, train also going out. Ramey climbed to the roof and ran to the tender. Roach followed, Ramey climbed past the engineer to the side boards, thence to the cow catcher with Roach just behind him. Ramey again jumped off but was caught finally a mile away in a cellar.

Suffers Intense Pain.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 31.—Patrick F. Keegan, North Andover, who, a few days ago, was assaulted and severely bitten on the face by police officer Hinman, of that town, is in great danger of losing his life. Blood poisoning has set in and Keegan has been obliged to give up work and take to his bed. The side of Keegan's face, where he was bitten, has become terrible swelled, one eye being closed and his head abnormally large and the glands of the neck puffed up. The wounds have been reopened by Dr. Weil and everything done to render Keegan's condition more easy but he still suffers intense pain.

A Candidate in Trouble.

GOLDSBORO, N.C., Aug. 31.—Dr. W. P. Exum, the third party candidate for governor, was arrested, last evening, for using profane language in the post office in the presence of ladies. He was brought before Mayor Hollowell and although postmaster Smith testified, under oath, that certain ungentlemanly remarks were made the vindicative sworn positively that he did not make them. A fine of seven dollars was imposed upon him, after which he departed for Raleigh. A warrant for perjury is now out against him and will be served upon him when he returns.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Trolley System.

KINGSTON, Aug. 31.—(To the Editor): The electric railway men are after the streets of Kingston, and, apparently, the council have no thought of any system save the dangerous trolley wire.

But before this death-dealing wire is strung on fresh poles through our already disfigured streets it is just as well that Kingstonians should know what it will mean.

The Star, of Aug. 29th, gives the records of accidents in Boston and Toronto on the previous day. They are six horses killed, one woman probably dying through injuries from a runaway caused by trolley cars, and another runaway which did not do "much damage." This is only one day's record in only two cities.

The Star also gives in the official record of the trolley system's victims in Boston during twelve months, viz., 15 killed, 239 wounded. At the same average Kingston might expect fifteen cases of serious personal injury each year. Even this is not all. The adoption of the trolley system would render practically useless our present telephone system, owing to the induction from the single trolley wire. It would be necessary to make use of the metallic circuit for every telephone in order to overcome this. But the metallic circuit not only means doubling the number of overhead telephone wires, but also an increase in the cost of service, amounting to $5 for each telephone, if not more.

The trolley system is almost unknown in England, and is arousing determined opposition in nearly every city where it is used, as in New York and Philadelphia.

On the other hand the storage battery system, with all its defects, has been used successfully in London for years past, and it is now so far improved that Prof. Trowbridge, professor of physical science in Harvard university, a man with large experience in electrical matters, thinks it "could be operated as economically, certainly, as the overhead system."

If this is the case our aldermen ought certainly to hesitate before saddling Kingston for thirty years with a system which endangers life, increases the cost of telephones, hinders the fire brigade, is highly dangerous and often useless in thunderstorms, and is moreover very unsightly.—ROBERT W. RAYSON.

A Talented Kingstonian.

Glasgow Herald.

Grant Allen is especially interesting to Canadians, not only from the circumstances of his being Canadian by birth, but also because he claims a family descent closely interwoven with the history of Old Canada, or "New France." Grant Allen's birthplace was Alwington, Kingston, Ont., where his father lived. Grant Allen was prepared for Oxford at King Edward school, Edgbaston, near Birmingham. He distinguished himself at Merton college, taking the highest honor in the power of that college to bestow, "the post-mastership," which gave him for several years £100 a year and certain valued privileges of university status. One of his finest poems, "Magdalen Tower," dates from his undergraduate life at Oxford. Another, on Herbert Spencer, is a noble tribute to a philosopher whom he has constituted his master in the great domains of thought. After taking his degree at Oxford, Allen became principal of a college newly established at Spanishtown, Jamaica, where he had an opportunity of observing the wonderful vegetation of the tropics, and also the peculiar features of West Indian life, both of which he has since turned to good account. His popular novel, "In All Shades," is one of the fruits of his tropical experiences. His earliest work of permanent interest is his "Physiological Æsthetics," in which he applies his favorite philosophy to our æsthetic faculty. Another interesting volume on the color-sense soon followed it. His popular scientific essays "The Evolutionist at Large," "Vignette From Nature," "Colin Clout's Calendar," and "Flowers and Their Pedigree," have given him an assured reputation and multitudes of readers. Not satisfied with this success in popular science, he began to write short stories and serial novels, under the pseudonym of "Cecil Power." "Philistia" and "Babylon" were the first of his novels published semi-anonymously. Since then his prolific and indefatigable pen has sent forth many stories published serially and in book form. Of these "This Mortal Coil" and "In All Shades," have been perhaps the most popular.

Drowned in the Cedars.

Montreal Gazette.

It is said that one of the men employed on the wrecked steamer Columbian was drowned on Sunday night. It is said that a party of four of them left the island in a skiff for the village of Cedars. The current proved too strong for them, and the skiff was carried down towards the rapids. Two of the men knew how to swim and threw themselves into the water, but only one of them reached shore. The other sank and was drowned. The two men who stuck to the skiff descended the rapids in perfect safety and reached the shore below. The name of the victim is not known.

GIVEN A GOLD WATCH.

RICHARD ATKINS REMEMBERED BY PORTSMOUTH FRIENDS.

An Interesting Gathering at the Residence of Mr. Halliday—The Address Tendered Along With a Watch and Chain—Mr. Atkins Will Not Forget Them.

Richard Atkins, a guard in the Kingston penitentiary for eight years, left to-day with his family for Westminster, B.C. He has been appointed a keeper in the penitentiary there. He was very popular in the Kingston institution and his comrades regret his departure. They furnished a token of their esteem in the shape of a gold watch and the presentation took place last evening at the residence of Mr. Halliday. There were present chief Hewton, T. Pugh, R. Appleton, A. Atkins, C. Bostridge, F. Smith, J. Kennedy, W. S. Mooney, P. Moncrief, P. M. Beaupre and E. E. Davis.

The addresses were read by W. S. Mooney and the present handed to Mr. Atkins by Mr. Moncrief. The address read:

"Dear Sir,—After a service of nearly eight years it is with regret that your brother officers in the Kingston penitentiary meet to bid farewell to you on the eve of your departure for similar duty in a distant portion of the dominion.

"The exigencies of the public service demand that at the call of duty old and valued friendships must be interrupted and, whilst bowing to the inevitable, we cannot allow you to depart without carrying with you some token of our regard and esteem.

"In order, therefore, to show that your many kindly acts towards your fellow-officers are not unappreciated, permit us to present you with the accompanying testimonial. It is a slight one, we admit, but it is freighted with some good wishes for your continued success in the years to come in your new sphere of action, and we trust that in the far distant province, which in future will be your home, you will raise up to yourself as many honest and loyal friends as you leave behind.

"Signed: Chief Hewton, Thomas Davidson, John Kerr, Thomas Conley, C. McAvey, R. Young, John R. Darragh, Thos. Thompson, W. S. Mooney, W. C. Ball, John Donnelly, Frank Tracey, P. O'Connor, John Given, W. Ryan, A. McMillan, C. Monroe, James Evans, R. Payne, Peter Moncrief, James Rutherford, Thomas Smith, E. B. Davis, C. Bostridge, R. McCormick, John Kennedy, G. B. Amey, E. Mooney, B. McGeein, J. Doyle, W. Coffey, N. P. Wood, P. O'Donnell, James Adams, W. Newman, P. M. Beaupre, C. McConville, R. McCauley, Thomas Pugh." Other officers who had not an opportunity to sign also joined in the presentation.

Mr. Atkins made a very appropriate reply thanking the donors for their handsome gift. He would never forget his kind friends in Portsmouth.

DIVISION COURT CASES.

They Were Heard by Judge Price Yesterday Forenoon.

The division court met yesterday morning before Judge Price; cases considered:

Henry Taylor vs. George A. Spotswood,—Account of $25; adjourned till next court.

Mills & Mills vs Charles VanHorne, et al. Note for $153.58; judgment for plaintiff.

There were eleven judgment summonses, three carpenters, one butcher, one cheesemaker, one boarding house keeper, five laborers. Four ordered to be committed for ten days; one for fifteen days; two to pay $2 a month; one $4 a month; and one $5. One adjourned and one dismissed.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

The Things That Are Talked About by the Lively Boys.

A young man says he has $50 to put up that a team of tinsmiths can be gotten up to defeat the team in McKelvey & Birch's.

A baseball match occurred on the cricket grounds, yesterday afternoon, between the Athletics and Young Earls. The former won by a score of 15 to 2.

J. Elmer, representing Glen Park, has completed arrangements with the Watertown lacrosse club to meet the Watertowns, at Glen park, on the 5th.

The first annual meet of the Kingston bicycle club was not as great a success as was expected. After paying expenses the club is "in the hole" to the extent of $80.

The management of the dog show would like all intending local exhibitors to enter their dogs at as early a date as possible so as to give the officials a better chance to attend the outside entries.

The cricket club claims it has right to the grounds on the Barrie street side of the cricket field. The council gave it control, and a large expenditure of money has been entailed in keeping it in order. When baseball teams want to play on it the privilege should be sought from the cricket club.

The Princess street nine backed out at the last minute and would not go to Belleville to-day to meet the Osbourg team, merely on account of S. Ried, first baseman, being unable to get off. This is not the first time manager Martin has retired after all advertising, etc., had been done for a game. The condition of affairs was laid before manager Cochrane, however, and that gentleman at once proceeded to get his team together so as not to see the management in the lurch. He succeeded in this, with the exception of two men, pitcher Fitzgerald and Conley, left field, both of whom were unable to leave on account of duty. Callaghan willingly offered his services, and with McRae on third bag and Dehaney first, the asylums left for Belleville on the Here with a very strong front.

Special To The Whig.

The display of ladies', misses and children's mantles, Spence & Co are making this week, is the finest and largest assortment ever shown in the city, we would advise all who can to call before the rush of the fair, and when all sizes of the different lines are in stock, as they cannot be repeated.

To Forbid Foolhardiness.

TORONTO, Aug. 31.—It is understood that at the next session of the Ontario legislature a bill will be submitted forbidding parachute jumping in this province.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Are Back At Work.

The Chown & Cunningham foundry company has many orders on hand, and employ about seventy men. The strike seems to have been satisfactorily settled and most of the men who were out have gone back to work.

Appointed Principal.

At a special meeting of the Carleton Place school board W. J. Patterson, B.A., of Clinton, a graduate of Queen's, was engaged as principal for the high school at a salary of $1,000. Mr. Patterson is highly recommended.

He Lost The Door Key.

An old resident, of Wellington street, between Princess and Brock street, had a funny experience last Sunday afternoon. He lost the key of the door and had to walk about half a mile for a ladder to use in climbing through an upstair window.

Big Attendance Expected.

Over 1,000 calendars advertising the woman's medical college have been issued and a great many ladies have made application for information respecting the institution. It is expected that the attendance at next term will be large.

A Drop In Interest.

The manager of the Bank of British North America is issuing circulars to depositors, notifying them that the bank interest from and after Oct. 1st will be 3½ per cent. This is a sure indication of desperate times. There is much idle capital because there are no channels by which it can be invested to pay fair dividends.

A Pretty District.

I. H. Breck, sr., and son have returned after a two weeks visit in northern Dakota and parts of Manitoba. Mr. Breck says he did not hear of settlers leaving the section of Dakota he was in and going to Manitoba. He says everything looked bright and prosperous in Dakota. The farms are kept tidy and the reports of the crops are encouraging. He thinks northern Dakota is a very pretty district.

Band Programme.

In Victoria park at 8 p.m., to-night, (weather permitting) the 14th P.W.O. rifles band will render this programme:

March—Bravura.....
Valse—Dream of Flowers.....Dalby
Selection—Der Freyschutz.....Weber
Polka—Echo du Mont Blanc.....Julles
Lo! Here the Gentle Lark.....Sir H Bishop
Valse—Die Internationalen.....Gungl
March—Red Hussar.....Algernon
W. CAREY, Bandmaster.

Something Must Be Done.

The streets committee should as soon as possible consider the condition of the North street drain, and by prompt action a repetition of that which occurred during a heavy rain storm recently may be prevented. The drain has been given too much to do. It is expected to carry all the water that comes from the western part of the city besides that which flows in from side drains. The sewer cannot do this and when heavy rains come it fills quickly and overflows lands and cellars along its course. A drain is necessary on Beverly or Victoria streets to counteract the water flow.

To Go Across The Continent.

Dr. M. Lavell, warden of the Kingston penitentiary, Mrs. Lavell and Miss Nellie Lavell, leave to-morrow for a trip across the continent. They go via C. P. R. to Vancouver, B.C., stopping at various places en route. At Vancouver Miss Nellie will leave the party, a ceremony in a church giving her another name. She will be married to Dr. Fred Sparks, of Alameda, Cal. The young folks will go off on a tour while the warden and wife will proceed to Victoria, Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco and return home by the southern route calling at Salt Lake City, Omaha, Chicago and other great centres. They will be absent for about two months. Their numerous friends wish them a delightful outing.

At Hymen's Altar.

A happy event took place in St. Mary's cathedral yesterday morning, when George Draper, a well-known farmer of Glenburnie, led Miss Nellie Fowler, of the same neighborhood, to the altar. Rev. Fr. Carey performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride is the daughter of Michael Fowler, an old resident, and is well and popularly known in that district as one of the leading young ladies. The bride was assisted by her cousin, Miss Alice McGarvey, and the groom by his intimate friend, James McGrath. The presents were handsome, numerous and costly. After the ceremony the bridal party and friends repaired to Mrs. M. Grady's, Wellington street, where breakfast was partaken of, after which the couple left for Toronto, Niagara Falls and Rochester. Upon return Mr. Draper will take up residence in Glenburnie.
