Scientific Drops. Electric welding has now become almost universal in large establishments. The use of a flux is necessary. Electricity is used for making forgings, angers, railroad spikes, ball bearings and other articles hitherto

A Frenchman has been experimenting with a new electric boat which has two side wheels with hollow rims to act as floats, and vanes like a mill wheel. At the stern there is a smaller wheel to steer by. The boat is driven by means of motors. The influence of forests in protecting the water supply is well illustrated in the case of Greece. In ancient days she possessed hardly 2,000,000 acres, and the scarcity of water and other injurious climatic effects are traceable to the destruction of the trees. Cyclones originated in the tropics, and are chiefly found in five localities: The West Indies, Bengal Bay and the Chinese coast, north of the equator, and in the South Indian Ocean, off Madagascar, and NOT the South Pacific, near Samos. In the Antilles there are not half a dozen on the 7,500,000 acres of forest. To-day she has average every season. The properties possessed by the metal glucinum, about which comparatively little is yet known, appear to render it valuable for the construction of electrical instruments. It is said to be lighter than aluminum, stronger than iron and of better conductivity than copper, besides resisting oxidation, while its cost is estimated at $1 an Humor of the Late Bishop Medley. With all his quiet, demusaor the late metropolitan was ready with a quick rejoinder. The head of a deputation that wished to bring something to his knowledge was so poor a speaker that he could only get as far as "My lord, your lordship is I in the specifications of the special work center ignorant -. " After a pause, the same words again ; and for a third time the same words once more, when the bishop remarked : "Well, Mr. Archde-con, we are all agreed on that point, let me take the next." Send for Illustrated Catalogue It was Bishop Medley who, when a somewhat violent partisan began his speech by ostentationally exclaiming, "My lord, I am a very low churchman," quietly interposed the remark : "I hope you mean a very humble.
