

DESPERADOES WIPE OUT

THE NOTORIOUS DALTON GANG CAUGHT IN A TRAP.

The Citizens Caught Them Trying to Rob Two Banks and Fought Them—Death—But Before Being Given Their Deserts They Kill Several Bank Officials.

COPPERVILLE, Kan., Oct. 6.—The Dalton gang have been exterminated, wiped off the face of the earth. Caught like rats in a trap they were shot down, but not without infliction of pain. The place yielded up its last two heads of the tribe. Their raid had become known to the officers of the law, when the bandits attempted to escape they were overtaken by the marshals' horses. In the battle which ensued four of the desperados were killed outright and one was so badly wounded that he has since died. The other escaped, but is being hotly pursued. Of the attacking party one was killed, one fatally wounded.

The Dead.
Bob Dalton, desperado, shot through the head.
Gran Dalton, desperado, shot through the head.
Emmett Dalton, desperado, shot through the left side.
Joseph Evans, desperado, shot through the right side.
John Moore, "Texas Jack," desperado, shot through the head.
T. C. Connally, city marshal, shot through the body.
L. M. Baldwin, bank clerk, shot through the body.
G. W. Cubine, merchant, shot through the head.
G. J. Brown, shoemaker, shot through the body.

Thomas G. Ayers, cashier of the First National Bank, shot through the groin and cause of death.

A. E. Ogle, a member of the gang, was wounded in the right breast, but it is not considered dangerous.

Another of the attacking party, was shot in the right side. His wound is a serious one, but is not fatal.

Forewarned, Forearmed.

It had been rumored a month ago that the Dalton gang was contemplating an immediate raid upon the banks of the city. Arrangements were made to give them a hearty reception. The first alarm was maintained night and day to give warning of the gang's approach. The raid did not take place and there came a report from Denning, N. M., that the gang had been captured. The officers had had a little with the bandits in the territory and that three of the bandits had been killed. This report was believed here to have been circulated by the Daltonos themselves, the intention being to divert attention from their true intent, namely, to burn the town into a heap.

The excitement was intense, and the fate of Ogle, should he be captured, will be hanging by a thread.

MATTERS AT HOMESTEAD.

Carnegie Officials Say That the Strike is Over.

HOMESTEAD, Oct. 6.—About 250 feet of the hill-slope on which the company's plant stands—"The Friday Hill"—was torn down yesterday afternoon by workmen of the firm, and last evening the outer mill yard from the restaurant to the company's stores was open. The remainder of the fence along Friday-hill will be removed today, and the company's offices inside the yard will be opened to the road.

The company officials say the reason for tearing down the fence is that so far as they are concerned the strike is practically over and they desire operations to continue as usual.

Several hundred of the locked-out men gathered to watch the operations. They protest to look upon it as an invitation to return to work.

Low Churchmen Off.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Anglican Church Congress opened at Foleshill and a procession was formed, headed by the Archbishop of Canterbury. The procession marched through crowded streets to the cathedral.
