FUREST, STRONGEST, BEST.

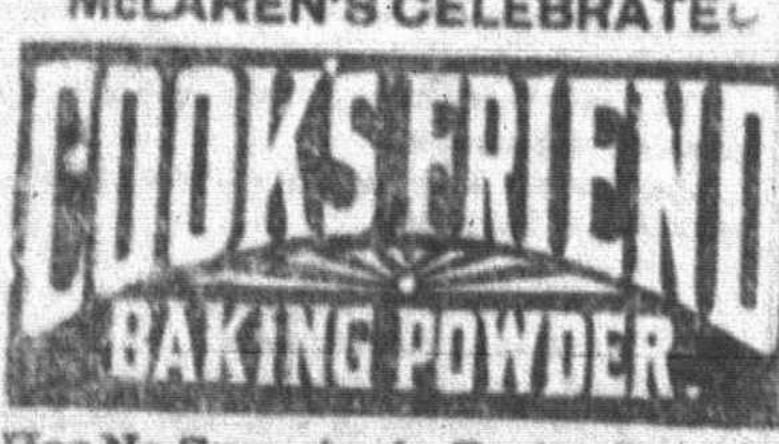

E. W. CILLETT, Toronto, Ont

Made simply with boiling milk or water. For sale by all druggists.

QUINCES,

Sweet Apples, Peaches, Pears, Cranberries.

Headquarters Oyster Depot. MCLAREN'S CELEBRATE

Has No Superior in Purity, Healthfulness and Economy.

HENIRICH'S (REPINED) PACILLY. WHITE HOSE in 1 and 2 oz Cartons A. Gunn & Co., Geo Robertson & Son, and by

W. J. McNeil, Brock Street.

ADAMS 自在位在阿姆斯从改革物 原表 法特表 HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES.

A DE DIGESTION. INVIGORATES THE SYSTEM STRENGTHENS THE VOICE. IMPROVES THE APPETITE.

The Tetit Frutti A. V. Co., 60 Yonge St. at by much to any address on receipt of

BDUCATIONAL

In Book-keeping, Shorthand, Penmanship, Spelling and Arithmetic.

Terms -- Three months $61 Six months, $10. For particulars call at the ODDFELLOWS' BLOCK.

THISARIE COLLEGE OF ORATORY, Elecution and Dramatic Art.

and scientific. DEGREES CONFERRED Large

SCHOOL OF ART CLASSES WILL RE-OPEN UN MONDAY, OCTOBER 3rd, '92 Prospectus of Fees, etc., to be had at it Rooms, corner of Princess and Montreal street CHAS E. WRENSHALL, Principal. TORONTO COLLEGE OF EXPRESSION Elecation, Oratory and Dramatic Art.

Most efficient faculty, west advanced methods Fall Ferm Regius they 17th. Advantages unexcelled by any American school. For Calen-PRINCIPAL MOUNTEER. Areade, Cor. Youge and Gerrard Sta., Toronto | P

Are They Insured ? is Your Furniture Insured ? fair, will be crossed by little electric steam I launches, of which there will be a regular ARE YOUA SHOPKEEPER? | fleet. The grounds will be reclaimed and

FERRINGURANCE effected on all kinds of admirably designed Central park and the well known Buffalo park. There will be J. P. GILDERSLEEVE, in Jackson park state pavilions and build. partment, 348 feet long, and which will lie

FOR WAYT FOUR MAGAZINES PR. | Low restaurance and cares in operation in a BOODICALS AND BLANK BOOKS | the various buildings and about the Progress at the fast approaching catory coremonies of the great World's fair, which is to mark at once the close the beginning of an epoch. These, as the French phrase it, are "end | as one of the marvels of the exposition. Oitrons. of the age" days, and in a sense they are for the tremendous Nineteenth century is | center of each facade. These are designed W. H. Carnovsky, drawing to its finality and not long hence will be historic rather than actual. Therefore it is fitting that the preparations and | wide and eighty feet high. Surmounting I plans for the Chicago display should include not only trophies of present achievement, but also tangible exhibits of past en-

And what a magnificent period it is to tured figures in bas-relief. be commemorated by these preliminary pageants at Jackson park! No other vol-The British possessions are practically autonomous, and a Canadian premier affairs than the queen and the parliamer in connection with the dedicatory cerestupendous exponent of the doings of this

Speaking of the enterprise recently, Sir mighty and unexampled era.

Henry Trueman Wood, the British

"I suppose few people realize the Chicago exhibition. It is absolutely with out comparison. The site comprises Jack-

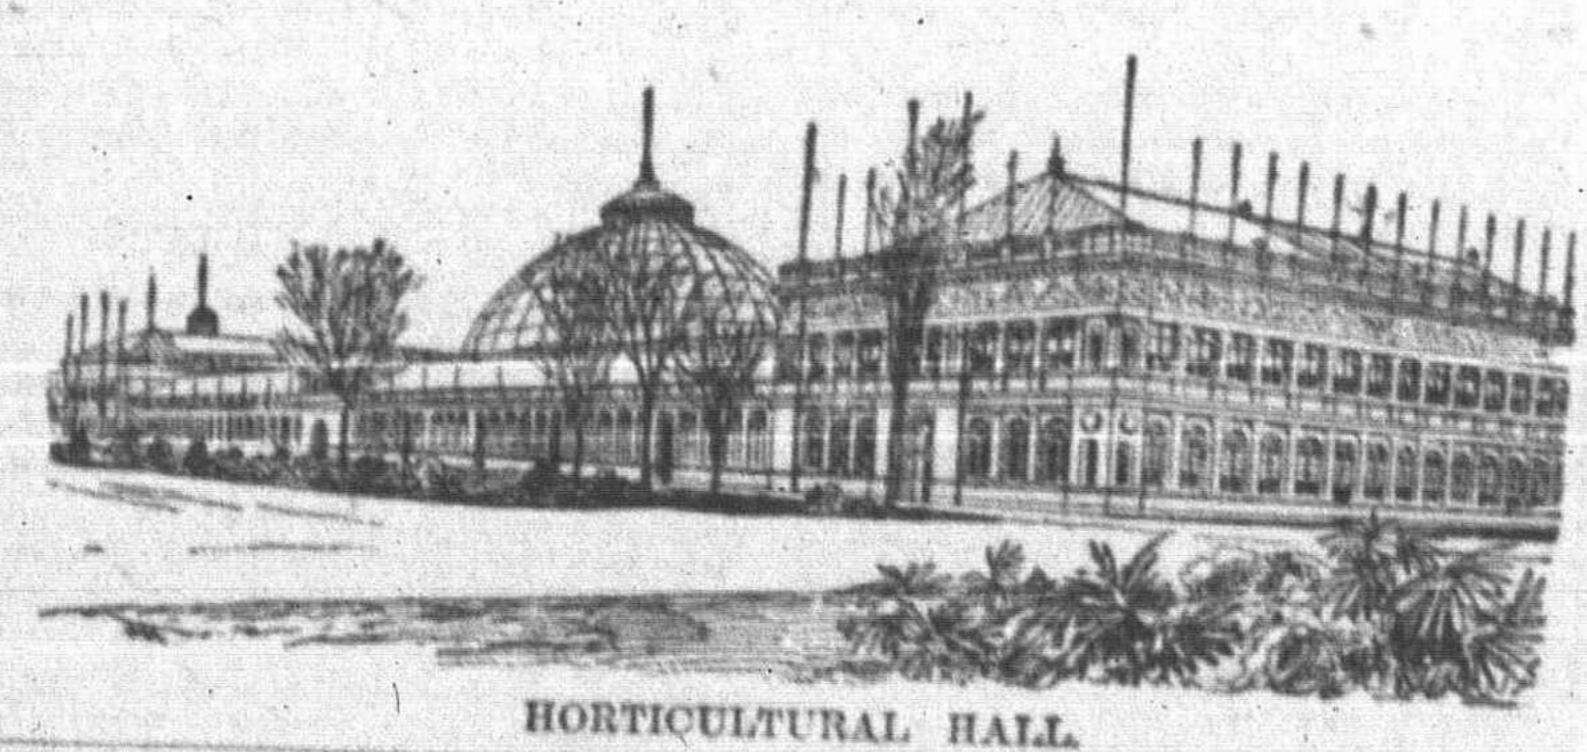

WEST LOGGIA WOMAN'S BUILDING

size. A few comparisons will assist great-. One has to travel almost a mile in walking around it. ous place in the grounds, It faces the lake, with only lawns and promenades betrance and the Casino and Music hall, west the Electrical building and the l goon separating it from the great island which in part is wooded and in part resplendent with agres of bright flowers of varied bues. The building is rectangular in shape, being 1,687 feet long by 787 feet wide. The architect, George B. Post, of New York, has been remarkably successful in giving architectural symmetry and effectiveness to the immense proportions with which he had to deal, and his work stands There are four great entrances, one in the In the manner of triumphal arches, the central archway of each being forty feet i these portals is the great attic story, ornamented with sculptured eagles eighteen feet high, and on each side above the side arches are great panels with inscriptions and the spandrils are filled with sculp-

Other facts and statistics of this levie esting. From the fact that it is the largest I tectural marvel of the greatest World's ing at it or grow weary in reading about . Its erection has involved achievements of construction never before attained. It is of this triumph of architecture 4 Mr. John McGovern, the editor of The Il-Instrated World's Fair, wrote not ! ago: "It overlooks the fair as an Alpin height overhangs a Swiss village. I

Then think of the neroes who tonowed | say to all who may place any credence in the train of Columbus and made effect. | my word that the World's Columbian ex-Ive his discoveries. True, many were actu- | position will surprise them with its mag (ated in their trials and triumphs only by | nitude and beauty. I care not how vivid the last for gold, but the results remain | their imaginations, they will not build outthe same whatever may have been their | ward or up far enough to exceed the realoriginal purpose. What a crowd of splen- | ities of this event. a spirits flit before the mental vision'

"As the eye sees the real buildings, they Cortez and Pizarro overthrowing the an | rise beyond trees, lagoons, beyond each cient dynasties of Montezuma and the other, and spread further than the sign Incas; Balboa planting the flag of Spain | can reach. And I, who cannot conceiv on the shores of the Pacific; Ponce | fair as it unfolds to me, find myself de Leon hunting for the Eountain of the first to have fixed on this building Youth in the glades of Florida; De Soto | the Manufactures as a point of support for struggling westward in his futile search | the mental battle I must wage. This is for gold; Coronado crossing the deserts of | my symbol of the era. Here the Caucasian the southwest that he might reach the | with his machines of toil speaks to me in famed but fabulous Seven Cities of Cibola; | those accents which seem most intellithe founding of St. Augustine and Santa | wilde. As if I were ensconced far enough Fe. Then the voyage of Hendrick Hud-

THE MARCH OF INDUSTRY.

f tribes and the circulation of the blood of tr. 1.500; cost, $100,000 1 commerce and mammon and art and hope -so and thus I step under the portal of this symbolic canopy, and looking upward ! ('through the unroofed arches I fashion an park, a mile away, of 371 acres, and a strip | earth's surface on the away, of art acres, and a strip | that adventurous man has made. f earth's surface on the awful iron curves "Here, on the greatest floor that ever was!

ther area of eighty acres. The latter will laid, where the snows fell and the saw be converted into a bazaar and street of | mills moved, as month by month went b and railroads visited competing point here, on these thirty-two acres, I saw the f traveler-the greatest derrick that ever was start down the aisle of nations. Its travel is done. It stands here now, grown much higher by sight of the arches it has eft behind it, and I may look upward (as the most impressive panorama which labor has offered to curiosity or study, you look upward at Niagara you see much, but man had no part in its archi tecture, and you may easily go to Niagara and looking down instead of up you ma f not behold a thing so stately,"

THE SEA AND THE EARTH.

Object Lessons Regarding the Food Supply of Man. Mother Earth and Father Neptune are the all run along the whole length. Thus there that to the field and ocean proper tribute abould be paid at the great anniversary. The horticultural department of the ex-"The little lagoons, which give such a curiously Venetian aspect to the World's. now on their way to Chicago. In the ex-Anstralla will make a fine showing. The ment is on its way to Chicago. An officer ! nies the shipment to San Francisco. Should this consignment arrive in good order | ates 60,000 rubles for the purpose of mak-"One of the recet notable exhibits will a more will be forwarded at once. The first fug an exhibit of the agricultural presider from Jamaica has already arrived to Cht. | Emplish will be printed explaining the [I upon the lake itself. There will be about. Herticultural hall is the largest and section of the American people in sending ! the various buildings and about the arbibition. It southly about the arbibition of a provided ever excited for a horizontal corn to the famine stricken districts of strick of the semi-total of expenditures.

| Strick of the semi-total of expenditures | Description of th SODICALS AND BLANK BOOKS in the feest Style and at the most live as the property of the people of the most live as the property of the people of the people cusually pleasing effect, aside from the plant decoration, which will harmonize with the general plan of the building. The plan is a central glass done, nected by front and rear curtains with two end pavilions, forming two interior courts each 88 by 270 feet. In these courts will be placed bearing orange trees and other semitropical fruits from California and Florida, to illustrate the manner of grow ing and cultivating the orchards and groves in those states.

i its bulk, and then restored at the tanks with fresh water.

WOMAN AND ART. The Two Are Closely Identified with the Pair's Success. The participation of women in the exposition promises to be one of the most int esting as well as novel features. With a

. TYPICAL OF PATRIOTISM.

lay of money? asks the Chicago Tribune

A great park graded, drained, improved and beautified by the highest resources

tial buildings, giving access to them

ments by artists from allover the countr and seventeen minor buildings, including

In addition to these, twenty-eight state

THE PATRIOTIC SPIRIT.

Other Ways.

Everywhere, on the buildings and in the statuary, erops out in glorious designs the !

intense Americanism of the whole vast!

a project. "Patriculan," "Tradition," "Lib mkstand used on that occasion; Thomas defferson's sword; chair of memorial woods

Spain; bell rung at Valley Forge when Washington occupied that place with his including parts of Columbus' house

f first lightning rod invented by Ben Frank copy of the Declaration of Independent fans used by Franklin at the court landscape art: sand dunes and swamp holes giving place to trim lawns, gardens

been constructed and will be used for recuperating plants injured from any cause. and for the purpose of developing them to the highest degree of perfection before | the condition of their sex throughout the clacing them on exhibition.

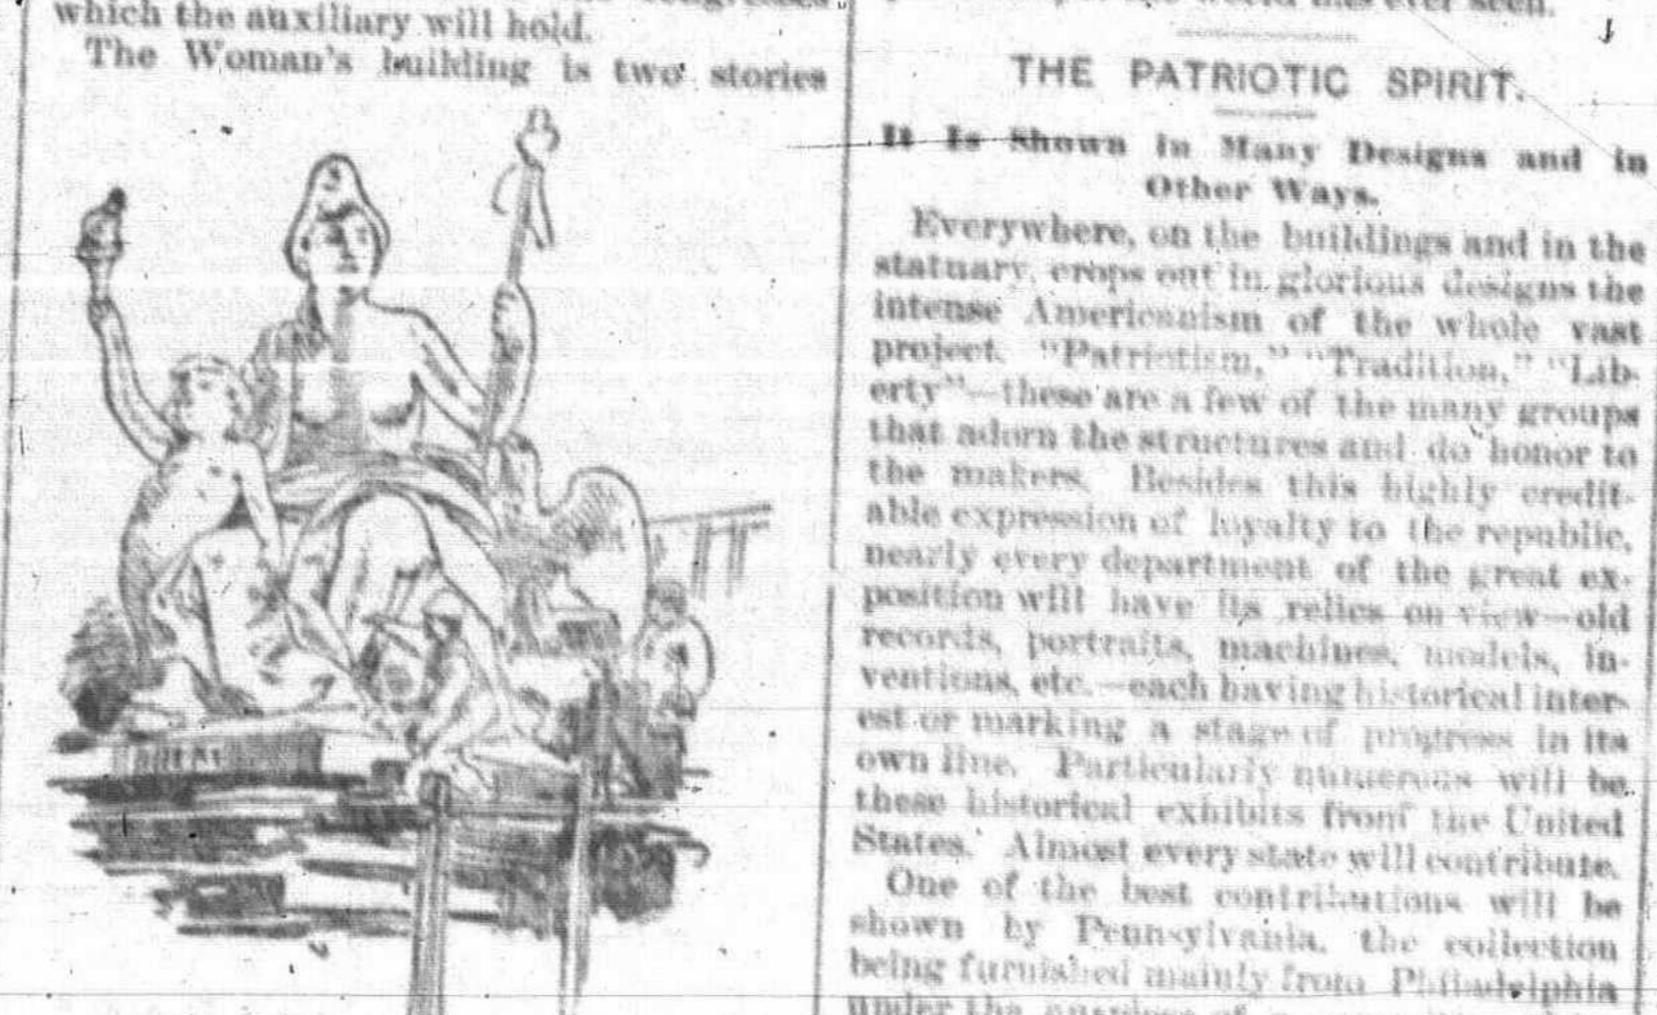

ing a space of 20,000 square feet, have also houses will be assigned to exhibitors who. will propagate plants of unusual merit which cannot be transported from their a plants with which to replace specin passed. A large number of cold frames | which the auxiliary will hold. will occupy adjacent grounds, to be used [for cultivating pansies, various annuals and bulbs, and for the storage of half hardy plants. The classification provides for complete exhibits of green and hot and conservatories, with the best methods of heating and ventilating them, and it is expected that many of these will be arranged in a suitable manner for developing the growth of and for exhibiting various select plants.

The space assigned to the department for exhibits of trees, shrubs and plants which will be hardy in the open ground during the time of the embraces about twenty-five acres, a includes the greater part of a beautiful island, centrally located, artistic ally laid out in beautiful walks, and th choicest part of the fair grounds. Through this entire area has been placed a complete network of pipes to supply all the water necessary to insure vigorous and healthy growth of all trees, shrubs and

There will be displays of flowers in all parts of the grounds, but particularly around the Horticultural building and on the Wooded island. Here will be the rose garden, with more than 50,000 resebushe in it. Here also will be every variety of flowering shrub and tree, with aquatic plants along the lagoon shores. There will | cafe and the other as a tea garden: be a "procession" of flowers throughout in bloom around the Herticultural building, and will close in October with a great ! chrysanthemum show. Inside the Hortis cultural building the fair will open with sixteen acres. by 500 feet. The height of the cornice is 65 | lagroon, while the immediate neighborhood feet and the dome 130. The floor area is | of the building is ornamented with groups | fifteen acres and there is an annex cover | of statues, replica ornaments of classic art, ing nearly four acres. There has been | and other statues of heroic and life size | used in the main building 7,5(0),000 feet of | proportions. Galleries forty feet in width | j lumber and 2,000,000 pounds of structural | extend around the entire building, form ! fron; in the annex 2,000,000 feet of lumber. | ing a continuous promenade. The top of away to espy the curve of the earth and its In connection with this building is an as the dome, 125 feet in height, is surmounted sembly hall 430 by 125 feet; seating capaci- by a colorsul statue of the type of the the battleship, the camina columnate, music hall, peristyle and others devoted to the practical workings of the fair. and foreign buildings in various styles of architecture are rapidly coming forward along the main avenue and in the northern I funity of showing, in most signal manupart of the greands and eleven special twildings are going up in other places I world, what are the achievements of wom-Resides these the Exposition company has to build an intramural railway, bridge electric subways, fountains, obelisks ar different occupations and lines of indo other works which will combine use and trial and charitable work. Under beauty and add to the general effect of rection of the board's president-Mrs. Por the grounds. There can be no doubt that ter Palmer-the work of organization in extent, beauty, artistic effect, complof enlisting the interest of women through ness, adaptability to its purposes and in all respects that appeal to the senses and taste even of the most critical, Jackson ! stage. The lady managers are practically storing those whose season of beauty has) in charge of several of the congresses park in 1893 will be the most beautiful exposition spot the world has ever seen.

I under the auspices of a committee of BUILDING THE LIBERTY GROUP. ough, with an elevation of sixty feet. The otunds is 70 by 65 feet, reaching through I has the Deckeration of Ludependence, the , the height of the building and covered) with a skylight. On the roof of the pavil ions are open areas which will be covered! with oriental awning. One will serve as a . Naturally one associates the work of the six months of the fair, special attention | woman with the progress of art, and so it being devoted to each in its season. The is quite appropriate to group the two, for fair will open in May with a million tulips | art would be nothing without woman, and f woman owes much of her idealization and comancipation to art.

The Fine Arts building is an admirable type of refined classic architecture the greatest show of orchids ever seen. Grecian-Ionic design. The main building. The Horticultural building faces the cen- | 500 by 320 feet, is entered by four great | ter of the Wooded island, which contains | portals, richly ornamented with architecf tural sculpture. Located in the northern! The Agricultural building is in size 800 | part of the park, the south front faces the TRE UNFINISHED TYPE OF TRADITION. famous figure of Winged Victory. table of which it was signed; the silver and is adorned with many groups of statu- stone, and although the structure is tem- statue; clocks of Benjamin Franklin, Wilary of heroic size. The main entrance is | porary in character it is fireproof. The lam Penn and Oliver Cromwell sixty-four feet wide, and is adorned with | frieze of the exterior walls and the Corinthian pillars fifty feet high and five | pediments of the principal entrances are feet in diameter. The retunda is 100 feet | ornamented with sculptures and portrait in diameter, and is surmounted by a great | in bas-relief of the masters of ancient art, connection that agriculture and its kindred | tion of all visitors is the superb "Staty interests of forestry, dairy and live stock | the Republic." nine acres, the buildings coming $1,218,000 The Agriculture building is connected with Machinery hall by a colonnade.

AGRICULTURAL BUILDING.

construment of the collection of plants; of Russis, and a pamphlet in Russian ar

Concise Statement of What /the Pair Directors Have Done. Jackson pierk bes 553 nos Midway plats since has sat / Jackson park is beautil tally situated in the southmeters portion est Chicago, alward anvers to fine from has a firstage of a mile and a holf on Lakel Michigan It may be reached from "down! town" by the Illinois Central railway, by [clarated read, by two lines of cable cars, I or Ches. N. Y., suffered y and dry steaments on Lake Michigan | mod Kidney troubles, causing great pain at During the exposition all excursion, resized the total receipts to Aug 31 were $10. HOOM'S $37520271113.

WHAT HAS BEEN ACHIEVED

A CALL MAN FROM FROM STATE OF STATE OF

This Seal is our trade mark, and guarantees perfection of quality, strength and flavor.

WALSH&STEACY

We had a great day Saturday in the Dress Goods Department.

This week we offer all kinds of Black Serges, Broadcloths, Henriettas, Merinos and Figured Goods at Very Low Prices.

New Trimmings to match.

Special Sale of Silks.

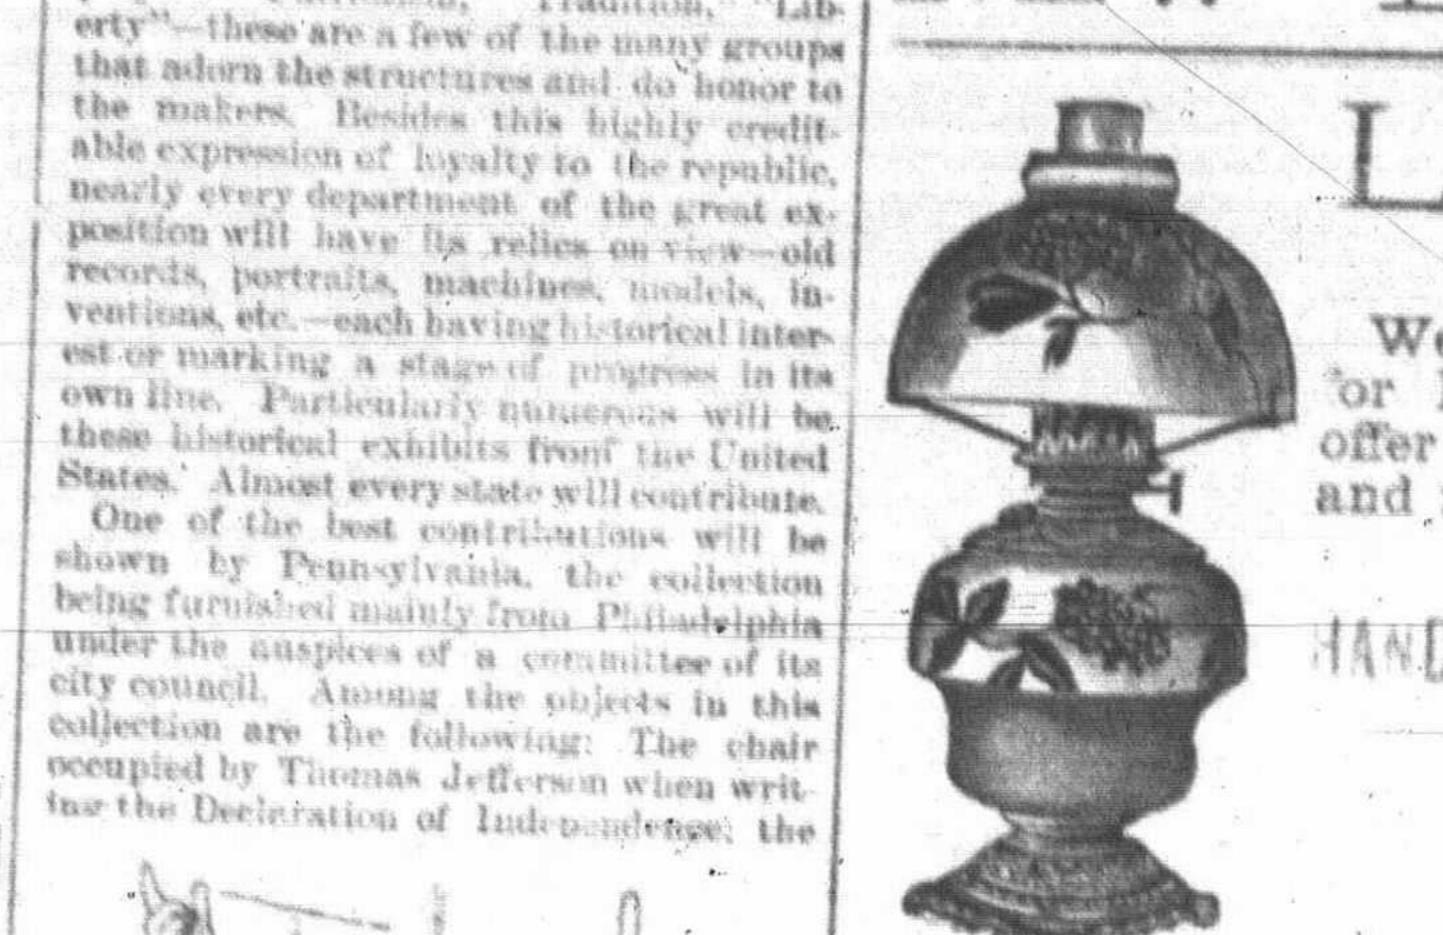

and clumps of trees; the wooded island, which will be a thing of beauty; graceful largoons wind in and out among the rada. WALSH & STEACY, - Princess Street.

which will be a favorite resort in the warm DD LA VEDO position buildings, planned by architects JUILLAIN. MILLAU!

Our city is decreasing every day, our mechanics and workingmen are daily leaving. Free Trade or annexation to the United States is the topic of conversation. What next? It is this that we will not allow our sales to decrease! We have during the past three weeks purchased thousands of dollars of Bankrupt Stocks for spot cash at 40 and 50 cents on the dollar, and we will break the prices lower than ever and give the greatest bargains ever offered.

$40,000 Worth of Fall and Winter Dry Goods, Carpets, Ready Made Clothing. Boots and Shoes Must be Sold During the Next Two Months, I egardless of cost at

F. X. COUSINEAU'S OLD STAND.

We are not headquarters offer you something choice and moderate priced in

If you want a First-Class COAL OIL try our Lighthouse

Mokelvey & Birch, Stoves and House Furnishing Hardware. Brock Street.

SCARCE GOODS JUST

Navy Blue Veilings, Navy Blue Dress Serge.

INSPECTION INVITED BY

36 Inch Art Draperies 18c per yard.

32 Inch Pongee Droperies,

Pillow Silks 90c and $1 per yard

army; sofa belonging to George Washing. Philadelphia; bench made from pew in old Christ church occupied by Washington CRIJILEY BROS and Lafayette; ale mug that belonged I to John Paul Jones; Peale's portrait of Washington, the first ever printed

GLASGCW WAREHOUSE.

In: electrical machine invented by Frank | NEW GOODS FROM ENGLAND AND FRANCE

AT WALDRON'S. New Cream. White and Black Silk Brussels Lacos. New Black and White Figured Flouncing Laces.

New Back and Cream Guipure Laces New Real Honiton Brusses and Maltess Lacs Handkerchiefs New Back Beaded Gupps and Edgings, low prices

New Black Passementers Trimmings, low prices. New White, Cream and Bees Frings and Ruchinss, low prices. R WALDRON, B. ock and Wellington streets.

NEW STORE I: : NEW GOODS!

NEW PRICES

CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS AND GWNTS FURNISHINGS A LARGE AND CAREFUILLY RELECTED STUKE.

best of material and well made Charming at the most reasonable prices. No similar

There gives bare been bought at close rates and largers and depend on getting the

Everything warranted as represented and expression and entermination guaranteed. see Charles

Ministe be cording our about mathem