A LIVELY SCENE. other day and for five minutes made things lively. Rev. Dr. Leach had stated in that christianity was dead and that he was glad of it. Hardle denied this and declared ity was dead, but that what had at one time passed as christianity was dead. He rejolosed that the obristianity of the schools was defunct. He thanked God that the christianity of Christ was coming to the front. Having made this explanation, Mr. Hardie, shaking his fist energetically towards his audience of ministers, shouted "You, of the old school, preach only to respectability in your churches. You forget I of State for Canada, and the published W. H. Carnovsky, (Cries of "No, no," and uprost.)
