THE TRIAL OF MRS. DEACON

She Hopes to Face a Charge of Criminal

Adultery Upon Her

GRAND, FRANCE, Oct. 14.—The action of Edward Parker Deacon against his wife begins here to-day. The trial is to be held in the Grand Palais, and the defendant in order that the plaintiff can apply for a divorce. At 7 o'clock in the morning the doors of the Grand Palais were opened by a large crowd of people who had gathered to witness the admission to the court room. At 10 o'clock the doors were opened, and a few minutes later the trial began.

There was much discussion among the people as to whether Mrs. Deacon would appear in person, and whether she would allow judgment to be entered against her by default.

Mrs. Deacon, Mr. Deacon's counsel, was unavoidably absent and his place was taken by Frank Platteau, an advocate of Nice.

The trial is expected to last for several days.

It is expected that Mrs. Deacon will appear in person, and that she will allow judgment to be entered against her by default.

It is expected that the trial will be held in the Grand Palais, and that the plaintiff will apply for a divorce at the end of the trial.
