On Sunday, 16th inst , in the absence of the Rev. Mr Clare, at Arden, services were conducted in the church here by Fred Wensley, lately of Albert college, Belleville. His discourse was listened to with pleasure and attention by a large congregation.

The recent legislation of the Ontario goverament in regard to the preservation of partridge and other of our feathered game, was certainly a wise step and is much appre ciated by all those who are not anxious to see our finest game exterminated. Partridge are not quice so plentiful as in some previous years, but are of excellent quality. Reports come from Trout Lake of wantesale staughter of deer in that locality already. One man is said to have killed, with the aid of his dogs, twenty three of these fleet footed animals already; in many cases merely for the sake of the skins, the carcases being left to the wolves.
