A SCOTTISH CONCERT. AHUGE TIME IN THE OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT.

The Vocalists Were up to High Water Mark and Created Enthusinsm-Every Member had Specialties. The Audience was Louth to Leave the Hall,

The appearance of the renowned Mac sunan's Royal Edinburgh concert company the opera house, last night, under the auspices of the Sons of Scotland, was esgagement of the company, upon a previous data, gave thum a reputation so that the appreciative audience fully anticipated a rare treat. The programme comprised selections by individual favorites, and the continuous encores received were sufing. The first sendered was an overture, violin and piano, "Rob Roy," by Messra. Scott-Skinner and Biaikie.

As a pianist and accompanist Mr. Blaikie's which there was no bid.

abilities and reputation are well-known. ed several times during the evening, giving a violin sole, "Warblings From The Hills," and introducing "The Bosnie Lass of Ron-Accord," composed by himself. To the prolonged applause which followed he rendered "There is no Place Like Home," and your next order. Daniel Ansley, J. R. Forayth, Augus Cam-eron, Dancan Beath, John Roy, George of that popular melody. A violin fantasie, producing "The Flowers of the Forest." producing "The Flowers of the Forest." with variations; "Reel of Tullocb," with variations, his own work, caused another encore. "Last May a Braw Wooer," was a mezz s-seprano solo, introduced Miss Mabel duaro. This lady has sung with much success at the principal concerts in Scotland and Ireland, also at St. James' hall, Logion, at the Highland society's concerts, and won the approval of the audience. Her tones are very distinct while she is free from apparent exertion. In her character song, Caller Herrin', " a favorite with all Score men, she brought down the house. W. W Kinniburgh, base solo, effered "Scotland, My Home; or the Highland Soldier's Return," Blamphin, and also "Hurrah for the Highlands," Fulcher, Mr. Kinniburgh is a gold medalist of Glasgow, and was a prime favorite base at the principal Scottish conterts. He made a telling effect on the audience. As a seprane soloist Miss Nellie Asher has few rivals. She captivated her hearers from the start. She is the winner of first prize at Brecon national disteddfod and from the principal London and provincial concerts and oratorios. Lady Nairn could not have had a better exponent of the popular "Flora Macdonald's Lament" than this gifted vocalist. Dove Patterson, slocutionist, was in the foremost ranks, and the people were slow to let him off the stage at titled "hilliegrankie," a lay of Scottish cavaliers, at Aytoun, had a tendency to thrill the people with welcome surprise. "Willie Wastle's Courtship," a humorous recital, was encored. Miss Alice McFarlane, contralto soloist, rendered "Auld Robin Gray" excellently and appeared again in a list, will be here for two weeks, beginning duet with Miss Asher, "Ye Banks and on Tuesday next. The Difference Almost Gone. At the dinner of Victoria alumni in Torente Principal Grant, Kingstov, took the apportunity to say that Queen's college wished Victoria every snooms in its enlarged field. He hoped the new venture would prove a great encess; but even though it should fail, he knew confidently that the cialty forces and men behind it would not fail, but would be ready for any fortune. Another nights and a day in the cold, is in a fair way | bond between the Victoria and Queen's was that of closeness of belief. He could say, without hesitation, that no two churches came so near each other in religious bailef as the Presbyterian and Methodist. He sometimes thought it was simes a crime ! that they should continue to live apart, but they could console themselves with the thought that the separation was one of soo'estactical development rather than by the TOR, ETC.
