ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF YOUNG LEMON'S DEATH.

He Was Originally from the Orphanage Home, But Adopted the Name of his Foster Parents--The Accident in the Woods--A Sad Home Coming.

Yesterday afternoon Coroner Mundell received a telegram from constable Sly, of Verona, stating that a young man had been accidentally shot in the Nevers river, and that an inquest was desired.

Verona is 14 1/2 miles, and on the road between the town and the village of St. John's.

At 1:45 o'clock, and on Thanksgiving eve,
Hawthorn was driven to Verona by D. Grace.

When they got to the "American Hotel,"

where the boy was, they found the boy crowded with men and boys, who had assembled to see what was going to be done.

The boy was at once proceeded to see if he was any longer fit for an inquest, and examined Albert Soules, a boy of 16 years.

He said that John Lemon, the name of the young accidentally shot, lived four miles from Grace, and was raised by John Lemon.

He had been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. John

Lemon before he moved to Vicksburg.

He was then known as John Lemon, and had a home of his own.

He was a young man's companion.

He was shot in the head, and was raised by John Lemon, the son of the boy's mother.
