best policy at present advocated by any party, we at the same time recognize the fact that any policy which may be proposed may possess many imperfections, and we derire to assert the right of this association and every member of it to criticize the policy of the present government or any government or party." That is a vindication of which Mr. Armstrong should be very proud. He spoke out in meeting the sentiments of his heart, and because they were advanced, and expressed dissatisfaction with the party policy, an attempt was made to take him by the throat and choke him into allence. But he was sustained by a sweeping majority. The James Card has returned from Manitoba. In justice to the readers of the Whig, who buzz saw again.

RAILWAY CONSOLIDATION. The sweeping condemnation of the Intercolonial railway management by the civil service commission was enough to make the people feel that its sale would be a good thing for the country. They say : "To briefly notice a point brought out in the evidence of Mr. Holden have lately pepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to acknowledged, with their paster in charge, the system. evidence of Mr. Schreiber, it appears that there are a large number of men whose ser vices could be dispensed with; that the gen eral expenditure is susceptible of a considerable reduction; that political influence is exercised in the nomination of the employees; that in the hands of a company the road could be made to pay expenses; that the trains stop at too many stations; that the traffic and receipts could be increased; that although the internal economy is much the same as that of other roads, yet it costs a great deal more; that the local revenue could | Sarsaparilia does, that tells the story of its be lacreased by bringing it up to the rates Isvied by other lines. CONCERT AT PLEVNA

n Interesting Lecture by G. W. Dawson M.P., on North-West. PLEVNA, Nov. 22 -The concert, held the hall last night, was enjoyed by a large audience. Mr. Shields very ably filled the chair. A programme, consisting of music, "That while we believe the policy of the liberal-conservative party of Canada is the ed. Rev. Mr. Clare, Vennachar mission, kindly assisted the choir. The most interesting feature of the entertainment was a lecture delivered by G. W. Dawson, M.P., on his recent tour through the north-west, Mr. Dawson began by giving an account of the country's progress from its earliest set-tlement, touching upon the grievances of the pioneer haif-breeds and the cause of their rebellion. His narrative of Indian customs, forms of worship and their old legends was interesting in the extreme. He gave an inspiring description of the Rocky Mountain scenery and also profitable infor-mation regarding the most desirable sections of the country for the farmers to locate.
